

Academic Support - Library	WCC SLOs	Understand importance of ethical conduct and practice in daily lives	Communicate through speaking, writing, and listening effectively individually and in teams	Think critically and solve problems by finding, analyzing and evaluating information and engaging in informed debate	Use technology to access, maintain, and analyze data and information	Make choices for a healthy mind, body, and spirit	Pursue life-long learning and share learning with others	Apply specialized skills for employment	Appreciate and /or express themselves artistically creatively, and culturally.	Contribute to the community through active participation and support	Develop life skills to fulfill their personal and professional potential.
Develop, organize, and maintain a variety of information resources, from both within the Library and worldwide, that provide for diverse perspectives and learning styles.		X	X	X	X	X	X		X
Provide a high quality of service to users
Strengthen services that foster information literacy and enhance learning and teaching.		X		X	X						X
Administer resources effectively

04/22/09

NHeu