“STORIESRUs”

Connecting with students through Hōʻailona (Symbolic Artifacts) and Moʻolelo (Storytelling)

Artifacts are objects that tell a story. Examples of artifacts include:

- travel souvenir
- college keepsake
- book, poem, or haiku
- trophy, statue, or sports memorabilia
- drawing, painting, or collage photograph
- newspaper clipping, poster

➢ Bring 1-3 artifacts to the workshop

Participants will learn how to:

- use hōʻailona (artifacts) to evoke moʻolelo (storytelling)
- build relationships with students and colleagues through hōʻailona
- infuse Native Hawaiian values into the classroom and workplace
