COURSE TASKS

Basics:

- Learn proper vocal technique (breath control, tonal production, dynamic range) through the practice of specific vocalises.
- Be aware of any habits that do not support physically efficient singing.

Vocal Technique:

- Learn techniques for different styles of singing.
- Learn to use dynamic levels.

Music Theory:

- Learn musical elements that support improvement in sight-reading.
- Develop basic sight-reading ability through continual practice, both in class and outside class.
- Complete 10 modules of MusicLab Melody, Basic level.
- Work with other computer programs suggested by instructor to acquire basic knowledge of music theory. (optional)

Evaluation:

- Participate in the evaluation of your own performances and those of other students in the class.
- Attend one vocal concert by well-known vocalists and write a critique of each performance.
DUE DATE: 10 calendar days after performance and no later than April 28, 2006. Five points will be deducted for each day the paper is late.

Performance:

- Develop poise and confidence by performing two songs in Italian and three songs in English in class videotaping sessions.
- Participate in end-of-semester recital on May 16, 2008.

Smart Music (as needed):

- The songs in the Musicals and the Arias Collections are on the computer in Palanakila 211 and 110. This program allows you to adjust pitch, tempo and other elements for the accompaniment. You can get a home version for more convenient practice scheduling.
- You can email your practice sessions for me for review and suggestions. I will demonstrate this in class.

Journal:

- Keep a daily journal of your vocal experiences—practice, performance, changes, new ideas, sounds, etc. The journal will be turned in on the first class session of each week

Extra Credit:

- Register for MUS 114, College Chorus, attend rehearsals and sing in scheduled performances (2-3 per semester). This will support your vocal training and give you practice in sight reading. Music is provided for rehearsals and concerts. (50 pts)
- View and write a summary of any or all three videos in The Human Voice video series. (10 pts each)

Required:

Meribeth Bunch & Cynthia Vaughn: The Singing Book (includes 2 CD's)

Vaccari: Modo Practica

MusicLab Melody Student Disk

Optional:

Elosie Ristad: A Soprano on Her Head

Recommended equipment for practice: Cassette tape recorder and two blank tapes, full-length mirror, hand mirror, and pen-light flashlight.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

- Instruction will be through lecture, demonstration, performance by students (master class approach in which instructor critiques performance for rest of class), and use of AV materials when available.
- Being in class is vital to your success. Developing proper vocal habits and sounds requires close observation by and feedback from your teacher. You will receive 2 points for each class attended 1 point for an excused absence, and 1 point if you are tardy, but no more than 25 minutes late. Refer to the Student Conduct Code in the WCC College Catalog for additional information about attendance policies.
- You, the student, will be expected to:
 1. Practice at least 3-4 hours a week outside of class. I recommend 30 minutes daily.
 2. Attend ALL class sessions.
 3. Be on time for classes.
 4. ALL assignments, singing or written, are due on the date assigned and may not be accepted at a later date.
 5. When ill, call in BEFORE class (either office or leave a message with the switchboard) or send an e-mail. After-the-fact excuses will not result in an excused absence.
 6. Take advantage of the opportunity to hear well-known vocalists in performance either live or on the radio or TV.

- Writing Your Critique

1. Format

- A. As with all college-level work, your critique is expected to be typewritten, double-spaced on one side of the page.
- B. On the first page in the upper right or left hand corner, place your name, the date submitted, the name of the recital or concert, and the name(s) of the principals in the concert.
- C. Start with a thesis statement, such as “Tonight, I heard a voice that embodied all the qualities of a great singer” or “Ms. X is a terrible singer.” Then follow that statement with supporting evidence.

2. Criteria--Use the same criteria by which your singing is being measured (see E above).

- Posture
- Breath support and control
- Intonation
- Correct voice placement (focus)
- Flexibility and expansion of vocal range
- Diction
- Memorization

3. The evaluation must be turned in NO LATER THAN 10 calendar days following the performance. No reports will be accepted after May 2, 2008.

- Your Voice Journal

Keep a daily journal, preferably in a loose leaf notebook. As noted earlier, your journal should include notes from class lectures and reading from your textbook, practice, performance, changes, new ideas, sounds, experimenting with your speaking voice, etc. Be sure to note the date on which the journal is written, how long you practiced and what you practiced.

NOTE: Singing with the radio (at home or in your car) or jamming with your friends, and sing at church ARE NOT practice; they are performance. Practice needs to be done alone in a reasonably quiet space. You are encouraged to use our practice rooms in Hale Palanakila if you do not have an appropriate place at home.

1. The recital is in Paliku Theater. You will be able to enter through the lobby doors about 9:30 A.M. The recital BEGINS at 10:30 AM. Come early; this will allow you time to practice and do some relaxation techniques. If that is not possible, at least be on time.
2. Dress as though you were going to a nice place. Shorts, rubber slippers, cut-off tops, hats or caps of any sort and sunglasses may not be worn. Even though bare belly buttons are the current rage, yours will need to be covered for the recital.

Suggested attire:

Men	Slacks, aloha or golf shirt, shoes and socks
Women	Nice dress and shoes, skirt and blouse, dress slacks and top

3. Take care of going to the bathroom and drinking water BEFORE 10:30. Once the recital begins, you need to stay in the theater. You may NOT simply play or sing and leave unless you have presented me with a written statement from your boss that you are required to work before 12:30. Staying only until you have performed is very rude to the other performers.
4. Should you arrive late (in spite of all my admonitions), listen to see if someone is performing before rushing into the theater. If you hear music, wait outside until the applause begins and only then enter the room.
6. Remember to bring your food for the potluck. Take dishes to Palanakila 117 (Faculty Conference room).
7. Your singing or playing is a gift to the others in the room. Have a good time!
