Activities Required at Scheduled Times Other Than Class Times

If you receive a grade of C+ or lower on your first essay, you will be required to attend an essay and reading skills workshop before the next written assignment is due.

STUDENT LEARNING OUTCOMES

The student learning outcomes for the course are:

1. Identify the following elements or dimensions: origin, doctrines, ethics, sacred literature, important figures/founders, rituals, worship, and institutions for each of the world’s major religious traditions.

2. Identify the similarities and differences between two or more religions on the basis of the aforementioned dimensions.

3. Examine the relationship between religion and culture/society.
4. Question and think critically.

COURSE TASKS

1. Attendance and class participation.
2. There are six quizzes. Five quizzes will count toward your final grade. Your lowest quiz grade will be dropped.
3. Complete Think Log entries in class and at home. Your Think Log entries will be collected randomly throughout the semester. Failure to submit your Think Log when requested results in loss of points toward your final Think Log grade. Late Think Logs will not be accepted unless you had an excused absence the day they were collected. Bring your Think Log folder to every class.
4. Complete the two essays. For each essay, you will be given three essay choices. Choose the one you like best and write a three-page essay on the topic. Essay writing guidelines and a rubric will be distributed prior to the essay due date.
5. Report on and analyze a religious story in the news.
6. Complete the reading assignments.
7. Come to class prepared and with an open mind.

Make-up assignments will NOT be allowed unless arrangements are made PRIOR to the assignments. Students are expected to attend all classes, arrive on time, and remain for the entire class period. Students who miss class are responsible for material covered in their absence. Consult with peers or the instructor to make up missed work. An absence requires a written excuse from an official source, such as a medical doctor. Two unexcused absences will result in the lowering of the final grade by one letter.
Academic Honesty:
Students are expected to act with personal integrity, to respect other students’ opinions and property, and to help create an academic environment in which discussion is encouraged. Students are expected not to engage or tolerate acts of plagiarism, cheating, copying, fabrication of citations, or other acts of academic dishonesty. Students charged with academic dishonesty face serious consequences that range from an F grade for the assignment to a Fail grade for the course.

Cell Phones:
Kindly do not answer phone calls, text message, or play games on your cell phone during class. The instructor urges you to turn off your cell phone during class.
