Activities Required at Scheduled Times Other Than Class Times

If you receive a grade of C+ or lower on your first essay, you will be required to attend an essay and reading skills workshop before the next written assignment is due.

STUDENT LEARNING OUTCOMES

The student learning outcomes for the course are:

1. Identify the various understandings of experience, existence, and/or the Ultimate/Absolute Reality in the world’s religious traditions.

2. Compare and contrast the similarities and differences between these meanings of existence in two or more religions.

3. Identify the rituals, myths, and symbols/art that shape these worldviews.

4. Analyze their belief systems.
COURSE TASKS

1. Attendance and class participation.
2. Complete Think Log entries in class and at home. Your Think Log entries will be collected randomly throughout the semester. Failure to submit your Think Log when requested results in loss of points toward your final Think Log grade. Late Think Logs will not be accepted unless you had an excused absence the day they were collected. Bring your Think Log to every class.
3. Complete the two essays. For each essay, you will be given three essay choices. Choose the one you like best and write a three-page essay on the topic. Essay writing guidelines and a rubric will be distributed prior to the essay due date.
4. Complete portfolio assignments before the portfolio draft collection date and complete all portfolio entries before the final. There will be assignments throughout the semester that are intended for your end of the semester portfolio. Guidelines regarding the portfolio will be distributed during the first week of classes.
5. Pass the reading quizzes.
6. Complete the reading assignments.
7. Come to class prepared and with an open mind.

Additional Information

Make-up Policy:
Make-up assignments will NOT be allowed unless arrangements are made PRIOR to the assignments. Students are expected to attend all classes, arrive on time, and remain for the entire class period. Students who miss class are responsible for material covered in their absence. Consult with peers or the instructor to make up missed work. An absence requires a written excuse from an official source, such as a medical doctor. Two unexcused absences will result in the lowering of the final grade by one letter.
Academic Honesty:
Students are expected to act with personal integrity, to respect other students’ opinions and property, and to help create an academic environment in which discussion is encouraged. Students are expected not to engage or tolerate acts of plagiarism, cheating, copying, fabrication of citations, or other acts of academic dishonesty. Students charged with academic dishonesty face serious consequences that range from an F grade for the assignment to a Fail grade for the course.

Cell Phones:
Kindly do not answer phone calls, text message, or play games on your cell phone during class. The instructor urges you to turn off your cell phone during class.

Super Extra Credit and Extra Credit:
To earn Super Extra Credit, attend a Common Book event and write a two-page double spaced reaction paper. Extra Credit can be earned by writing a two-page double spaced reaction paper to a class lecture, discussion, reading, or video. Students may write up to five extra credit papers. All extra credit must be received by December 4th, 2007.

Disabilities Accommodation:
If you have a physical, sensory, health, cognitive, or mental health disability that could limit your ability to fully participate in this class, you are encouraged to contact the Disability Specialist Counselor to discuss reasonable accommodations that will help you succeed in this class.
