COURSE TASKS

1. Mastery of Basic Aspects of Piano Technique

a. Major Scales. One-hand, one-octave, two hands, scale pattern. These should be practiced daily in contrary and parallel motion and may be included on in-class quizzes and exams.

b. Minor Scales. Beginning on white blade keys, one-octave, one hand.

c. Transposition. This will be practiced on a regular basis in class and should be a part of your daily practice. Any of the compositions we learn in class may be transposed to any other key. Exams may include an example to be transposed, after you have read it at sight.

d. Harmonization of melodies using I, IV, V7 and ii chords for the key in which the melody is written. Harmonization may be included on exams.

e. Accompaniment Patterns. Several different patterns of accompaniment that may be devised from given chords or chord symbols—block chord, broken chord, waltz bass, and ostinato patterns. Each student will be expected to demonstrate two different types of accompaniment during a class session after these have been learned and practiced.

2. Music Theory
Class work will include learning to read and write:
- Major scales, 1 octave, 2 hands
- Minor scales, one octave, 2 hands
- The I - IV - V7 - I chord progression in utilizing the ii, vi and iii chords in different keys, major and minor, root positions and inversions
- Chords on other scale tones in various inversions
- Key signatures for both major and minor keys
- General and specific intervals
- Review Major, Minor, Augmented and Diminished triads
- Inversion of seventh chords

3. Performance

a. In-Class Performance. You will be required to learn and perform nine (9) test pieces, to be played for your fellow students (and, of course, the instructor)

b. End-of-the-Semester Recital. All students in WCC's music classes perform for each other (one composition each). The recital traditionally takes place on the day following the final exam period.

Criteria for performance evaluation are as follows:
1) Accuracy of notes and rhythm
2) Observance of dynamic markings
3) Correct articulation (legato and staccato)
4) Musical interpretation
5) Fluidity of performance

4. MusicLab Melody (MUS 101)

Each student is required to complete one level of MusicLab Melody (MLM) during the semester. You may register for MUS 101 and receive 1 additional hour of credit. MLM is an individualized course designed to develop proficiency in sight reading rhythmic patterns. You will need to schedule 2 or 3 thirty-minute sessions in the Learning Center each week. See MUS 101 course outline for details.

There will be an orientation session early in the semester during class. Testing may be done in either the Learning Center or on the machines in Haloa. See my office card for scheduled testing times.

5. Attendance

You will be allowed (2) unexcused absences during the semester. For each additional absence, your final grade will be lowered one step (i.e., A to A-, to B+, to B, etc.). Two tardies count as 1 absence.
Short lectures to introduce concepts; drills at keyboard or chalkboard; group discussions of ideas and problems; ensemble (group) playing; and individual practice.

ASSESSMENT TASKS AND GRADING

Method of Grading

Points will be assigned as follows:

LEARNING RESOURCES

Texts and Other Required Materials

1. E.L. Lancaster & Kenon D. Renfrow: Alfred's Piano 101, Book 2
2. Music Lab Melody Disk (CD or floppy disk)
   Continuing students may use the disk you already have

Suggested Supplementary Reading

Ristad, Eloise: A Soprano on Her Head
Green, Barry: The Inner Game of Music

Additional Information
1. Student responsibilities:
   a. Attend class regularly.
   b. Practice at least ONE HOUR outside of class for each class session.
   c. Participate actively in class discussions and drills.
   d. Prepare ALL assignments on time.
   e. Be present for exams. You must notify the instructor AHEAD OF TIME if you are unable to take an exam at the designated time. Call my office (235-7326) or the switchboard (235-0077) to report an absence.

3. Practice Hints:
   a. Prepare to play a piece by reading it through with your eyes for note and rhythm patterns.
   b. Practice SLOWLY and ACCURATELY; learn hands separately.
   c. Don't allow yourself to make mistakes; they just have to be unlearned.
   d. Always go back at least one note to correct a mistake; don't play the wrong note, then right note in sequence more than once, because that is the pattern you will learn.
   e. Don't play pieces straight through each time. Try these alternatives:
      1) Practice one measure-plus-one note.
      2) Mark and work on "fractures" (difficult spots) until they are the easiest parts of the piece.
      3) Play the piece backwards--start with the last couple of measures, then go back one or two more and play to the end, then a little further back, etc., until you are playing from the beginning to the end.
   f. COUNT ALOUD. It works!!!

RECITAL PROTOCOL

1. The recital is in Paliku Theater. You will be able to enter through the lobby doors about 9:30 A.M. The recital BEGINS at 10:30 AM. Come early; this will allow you time to practice and do some relaxation techniques. If that is not possible, at least be on time.

2. Dress as though you were going to a nice place. Shorts, rubber slippers, cut-off tops, hats or caps of any sort and sunglasses may not be worn. Even though bare belly buttons are the current rage, yours will need to be covered for the recital.

   Suggested attire:
   - Men: Slacks, aloha or golf shirt, shoes and socks
   - Women: Nice dress and shoes, skirt and blouse, dress slacks and top

3. Take care of going to the bathroom and drinking water BEFORE 10:30. Once the recital begins, you need to stay in the theater. You may NOT simply play or sing and leave unless you have presented me with a written statement from your boss that you are required to work before 12:30. Staying only until you have performed is very rude to the other performers.

4. Should you arrive late (in spite of all my admonitions), listen to see if someone is performing before rushing into the theater. If you hear music, wait outside until the applause begins and only then enter the room.

5. Remember to bring your food for the potluck. Take dishes to Palanakila 117 (Faculty Conference room).

6. Your singing or playing is a gift to the others in the room. Have a good time!
