WINDWARD COMMUNITY COLLEGE MISSION STATEMENT

Windward Community College is committed to excellence in the liberal arts and career development; we support and challenge individuals to develop skills, fulfill their potential, enrich their lives, and become contributing, culturally aware members of our community.

CATALOG DESCRIPTION

Continuation of JPNS 201. Emphasis on increasing proficiency in reading, speaking and writing.

Activities Required at Scheduled Times Other Than Class Times

There are no activities required that are scheduled at times other than class. However, there will be one group project that may require some out-of-class attention. In addition, any Japanese word processing may need to be done at the computer lab if there is no at-home access to computers.

STUDENT LEARNING OUTCOMES

The student learning outcomes for the course are:

1. Understand written material previously learned and new vocabulary and kanji in the context of various experiences.
2. Understand and write paragraphs on topics grounded in personal experience or from learned material.
3. Handle basic communicative tasks and social situations within given contexts.
4. Read with increasing understanding longer material based on learned contexts. Material is written in the three writing systems with approximately 175 kanji, adding approximately 75 new ones learned each semester.
