WINDWARD COMMUNITY COLLEGE MISSION STATEMENT
Windward Community College is committed to excellence in the liberal arts and career development; we support and challenge individuals to develop skills, fulfill their potential, enrich their lives, and become contributing, culturally aware members of our community.

CATALOG DESCRIPTION
HIST 151 is a survey course focusing on significant historical events and patterns of development in world civilizations from the pre-historic period to the 1500s. (3 hrs.lect)
WCC: FG

FOUNDATION REQUIREMENT AND HALLMARKS
Hist. 151 fulfills 3 credits in Group A of the General Education requirement (Foundations: Global and Multicultural Perspectives) for both an A.A. degree at WCC and a Bachelor’s degree at UH Manoa. Consequently, it meets the following hallmarks of global and multicultural perspectives: provide students with a large-scale analysis of human development and change over time. Analyze the development of human societies and their cultural traditions through time in different regions (including Africa, the Americas, Asia, Europe and Oceania.) Offer a broad, integrated analysis of cultural, economic, political, scientific and/or social development that recognizes the diversity of human societies and their cultural traditions. Examine processes of cross-cultural interaction and exchange that have linked the world’s peoples through time while recognizing diversity. Include at least one component on Hawaiian, Pacific, or Asian societies and their cultural traditions. Engage students in the study and analysis of writings, narratives, texts, artifacts, and/or practices that represent the perspectives of different societies and cultural traditions.

STUDENT LEARNING OUTCOMES
The student learning outcomes for the course are:
Identify important individuals, places, organizations and concepts in pre-modern world history. Arrange, in chronological order, significant events in world history.
Describe and analyze global processes from prehistory to 1500 C.E. (e.g. human migration, ecological forces, spread of world religions, creation of empires.)

Explain cause and effect relationships in history.

Compare and contrast historical experiences across cultures and time.

Relate historical events to contemporary issues and events.

COURSE TASKS
1. To learn about the origins of human culture and society and their religious and political developments.
2. To learn to think critically about world history issues through the discussion of reading assignments, group work, class debates, and writing.
3. To analyze and/or be able to critique different points of view and to be able to discuss and examine issues from more than one angle.
4. To understand how the ancient history of civilizations affects those regions today and to tie them to current events.
