CATALOG DESCRIPTION

HIST 151 is a survey course focusing on significant historical events and patterns of development in world civilizations from the pre-historic period to the 1500s. (3 hrs.lect)
WCC: FG

FOUNDATION REQUIREMENT AND HALLMARKS

Hist. 151 fulfills 3 credits in Group A of the General Education requirement (Foundations: Global and Multicultural Perspectives) for both an A.A. degree at WCC and a Bachelor’s degree at UH Manoa. Consequently, it meets the following hallmarks of global and multicultural perspectives:
1. Provide students with a large-scale analysis of human development and change over time.
2. Analyze the development of human societies and their cultural traditions through time in different regions (including Africa, the Americas, Asia, Europe and Oceania.)
3. Offer a broad, integrated analysis of cultural, economic, political, scientific and/or social development that recognizes the diversity of human societies and their cultural traditions.
4. Examine processes of cross-cultural interaction and exchange that have linked the world’s peoples through time while recognizing diversity.
5. Include at least one component on Hawaiian, Pacific, or Asian societies and their cultural traditions.
6. Engage students in the study and analysis of writings, narratives, texts, artifacts, and/or practices that represent the perspectives of different societies and cultural traditions.
STUDENT LEARNING OUTCOMES
The student learning outcomes for the course are:

1. Identify important individuals, places, organizations and concepts in pre-modern world history.

2. Arrange, in chronological order, significant events in world history.

3. Describe and analyze global processes from prehistory to 1500 C.E. (e.g human migration, ecological forces, spread of world religions, creation of empires.)

4. Explain cause and effect relationships in history.

5. Compare and contrast historical experiences across cultures and time.

6. Relate historical events to contemporary issues and events.

COURSE TASKS

Course Requirements/ Readings: Students must come to class prepared to participate and discuss any questions they have about the lecture and readings. Readings are expected to be completed the day of the lecture. They are assigned help you understand the material discussed in class. They are NOT optional. Respect for fellow students and an enthusiasm for learning is highly valued in the classroom.

Attendance: Class attendance and participation in discussions are critical. Attendance will be taken at the first fifteen minutes of the class and it will be part of your final grade. If students leave class early without explanation, their points will be deducted. While I will lecture on background and related materials, it is expected that you will raise questions, share your observations and thoughts with other students, and develop critical thinking in this course. Students will be penalized TWO POINTS for every class missed and students with unexcused absences who “disappear” from the course will be given a grade of F. If there is a reason for your absence, please tell me in advance or bring in some official document (doctor’s note) explaining your absence. Exams must be made up by the next class period following a student’s return. No worksheets, assignments, or papers will be accepted via email. All assignments must be turned in during class.
