COURSE TASKS

You will write 4 graded out-of-class essays. The first graded out-of-class assignment will be Compare-and-Contrast. You will interview the instructor the first day of class and write a two page paper on the similarities and differences between you and the instructor. This first paper will not be graded immediately; rather, you will have the chance to revise it and turn it in for a grade the second week of the semester. The second graded out-of-class essay will be a Summary. You will summarize a given hand-out and explain what the hand-out is about. You will not discuss whether or not you agree with the author. In the third graded out-of-class assignment, you will write an Analysis. You will analyze another hand-out and discuss the strengths and weaknesses of said hand-out. You will also offer your own opinion on what the author is saying - do agree or disagree with him/her? In the fourth graded out-of-class essay, the Persuasive Research Essay, you will consider your beliefs about a chosen topic as well as the beliefs of others and research your issue thoroughly. You will then incorporate research, evidence, statistics, quotes, etc. in order to substantiate your viewpoint and refute the opposition. Students are also required to complete the library unit to successfully pass this course, as well as take and pass a mid-term exam.

ASSESSMENT TASKS AND GRADING

Grades for assignments turned in one class period late will be reduced by 10%; after that, no late assignments will be accepted. And you must complete all assignments to pass this course! Requests for extensions must be made BEFORE the due date, and extensions are granted at the instructor’s discretion. ASSIGNMENTS ARE NOT ACCEPTED BY EMAIL. If you know you are going to be absent the day an assignment is due, ask your study-buddy or another classmate to turn in your work for you.

Additional Information

Course Policies
I understand that you are all adults with numerous other responsibilities and obligations beyond the realm of the classroom. I do not need to hear excuses for not attending class, being late for class, not turning in assignments, etc. etc. But in fairness to students in the class, I shall enforce the following policies regarding attendance and assignments:

Attendance: regular attendance is necessary for successful completion of this course and absences cannot be made up. Missing class, being late, and engaging in non-class related activities during class will affect your overall grade. I do not differentiate between excused and unexcused absences: if you miss more that five (5) classes, you will lose half a letter off your final grade for each additional absence. If you miss more than eight (8) classes, you will automatically receive an F for the course. Missing a mandatory conference counts as an absence. However, being physically present is not enough to meet attendance and participation criteria. In order to ensure optimum learning, you should be awake and alert, have the appropriate texts and assignments with you, and actively participate in class. Sleeping or engaging in non-class related activities (texting, browsing the internet, wearing earphones, etc.) will not be tolerated, and you will be marked absent. Please note: three (3) tardies counts as one (1) absence.

Peer Review Workshops: all assignments will be workshopped in groups by your peers. Participation in these workshops (bringing your draft to class and the feedback you provide to others) constitutes a portion of your grade. Missed workshops cannot be made up. You do not want to miss the peer workshops!

Drafts: Writing is a process, and all essays must go through several drafts. I do not grade drafts, but instead offer suggestions for revision. We will also work-shop all assignments, in class, and offer suggestions for improvement. You will also have the opportunity to revise any graded assignments for a higher grade, if you so wish.

Revisions: You may revise any of your first three out-of-class assignments and hand in any of these revisions on or before December 1. Remember to attach your graded paper when you turn in your revision. The grade for your revised essay will be averaged with the grade you originally received. (For example, if your grade for the Argument Analysis is 85%, and you receive 95% on the revised draft, your final grade for the Argument Analysis will be changed to 90%).

Additional Information:

Statement of Academic Honesty: Plagiarism is especially seductive and easy in the era of the internet, but you are capable of using relevant sources appropriately. In this class, you will learn how to use the ideas of others in order to develop arguments of your own and cite others’ words and ideas properly. Plagiarism is an academic offense and I take it seriously. Any student engaged in any of the following activities will receive zero credit for the assignment and/or an F for the course as I see fit. Plagiarism, as defined by University of Hawaii’s Student Conduct Code, states:

The following are examples of the types of behavior that conflict with the community standards that the UH values and expects of students. Engaging in, or attempting to engage in any of these behaviors subjects a student to the disciplinary process and sanctions on each campus.

1. Acts of dishonesty, including but not limited to the following:
   a. Cheating, plagiarism, or other forms of academic dishonesty.
   b. Furnishing false information to any UH official, faculty member, or office.
   c. Forgery, alteration, or misuse of any UH document, record, or form of identification.

2. The term "cheating" includes, but is not limited to: (1) use of any unauthorized assistance in taking quizzes, tests, or examinations; (2) use of sources beyond those authorized by the instructor in writing papers, preparing reports, solving problems, or carrying out other assignments; (3) the acquisition, without permission, of tests or other academic material belonging to a member of the UH faculty, staff or student; (4) engaging in any behavior specifically prohibited by a faculty member in the course syllabus or class discussion.
3. The term "plagiarism" includes, but is not limited to, the use, by paraphrase or direct quotation, of the published or unpublished work of another person without full and clear acknowledgement. It also includes the unacknowledged use of materials prepared by another person or agency engaged in the selling of term papers or other academic materials.

Plagiarism also includes neglecting to identify as a quotation a documented idea that has not been assimilated into the student’s language and style; paraphrasing a passage so closely that the reader is misled as to the source; submitting the same written or oral material in more than one course without obtaining authorization from the instructors involved; and “dry-labbing,” which includes obtaining and using experimental data from other students without the express consent of the instructor, utilizing experimental data and laboratory write-ups from other sections of the course or from previous semesters, and fabricating data to fit the expected results.

Formatting: all assignments must be typed (double-spaced, Times New Roman, 12pt. font, 1 inch margins) and adhere to MLA style documentation format when appropriate.

English Proficiency and Writing Tutoring

Students are strongly discouraged from dropping ENG 100 because it is a prerequisite for numerous other courses within the UH system. If you are having problems, please speak with me and seek help from the Tutoring Center. All tutoring complements and supports classroom instruction. Tutoring is designed to meet each student's individual needs, and it is generally given in one-to-one sessions. You do not need an appointment. Tutors are available on a walk-in, first-come - first-served basis.
