CATALOG DESCRIPTION

In this class students will learn various traditional hula interpretations. Students will be taught the basic foot work and hand gestures of traditional hula accompanied by chanting, Ipu Heke (double gourd) or Pahu (drum). Students may also be required to make accompanying instruments, like Ipu (smaller single gourd), Kāla'au (sticks), 'Ili'ili (stones), and Pū'ili (split bamboo), and learn accompanying oli (chants) under the direction of the class instructor. Students will be taught different historical aspects of specific hula, associated hula mythology, ali‘i (chiefly) genealogies; plants, and place names.

There will be a final class performance at the end of the semester to be determined by the Instructor.

STUDENT LEARNING OUTCOMES

The student learning outcomes for the course are:

1. Students will learn a basic understanding of the differences between traditional and more modern styles of hula including the significance of hula as part of Hawaiian culture in traditional times.
2. Students will learn the histories and mythologies behind the creation and performance of various hula.
3. Students will learn how to perform several hula in unison, and the relationship between movements with the significance of lyrical content in a mele or oli combined with the occasions for which one is dancing.
4. Students will learn how to prepare adornments for their specific hula.

ASSESSMENT TASKS AND GRADING
Attendance: Students are required to attend classes. Attendance will be taken at each class. A doctor’s note or some other form of documentation must substantiate classes missed for a valid reason. The student’s point total will have 5 points deducted for every absence after four initial absences. If a class is missed, it is the student’s responsibility to contact other students and make up practice time with them.

Cultural Research papers: Students will be required to research the cultural use and/or significance of the hula being taught. Student papers should be type-written, include any photos or diagrams that students can find, and include an annotated bibliography of sources.

Adornment completion: Students are required to put together adornments for the hula they are dancing. Students will be graded on completion and on quality of effort put in to creating their assigned adornment.

Class participation and progress: Students will be graded on their class participation and progress. Attending class consistently and active participation are important to the success of group performances.

Hoʻike (Presentation): Students will be graded on a final group presentation in which the class will showcase several of the hula learned throughout the semester.

Students will graded as follows:

- Cultural research papers: 100pts
