WINDWARD COMMUNITY COLLEGE MISSION STATEMENT

Windward Community College offers innovative programs in the arts and sciences and opportunities to gain knowledge and understanding of Hawai`i and its unique heritage. With a special commitment to support the access and educational needs of Native Hawaiians, we provide O`ahu's Ko`olau region and beyond with liberal arts, career and lifelong learning in a supportive and challenging environment — inspiring students to excellence.

CATALOG DESCRIPTION

HIST 152 is a survey course focusing on the historical development of selected areas of the world from the 16th century to the present. Emphasis placed on analysis of the impact of industrialization, East-West interaction, and the rise of nationalism. (3 hrs.lect)

WCC: FG

FOUNDATION REQUIREMENT AND HALLMARKS

Hist. 152 fulfills 3 credits in Group B of the General Education requirement (Foundations: Global and Multicultural Perspectives) for both an A.A. degree at WCC and a Bachelor's degree at UH Manoa. Consequently, it meets the following hallmarks of global and multicultural perspectives:

1. provide students with a large-scale analysis of human development and change over time.
2. analyze the development of human societies and their cultural traditions through time in different regions (including Africa, the Americas, Asia, Europe and Oceania.)
3. offer a broad, integrated analysis of cultural, economic, political, scientific and/or social development that recognizes the diversity of human societies and their cultural traditions.
4. examine processes of cross-cultural interaction and exchange that have linked the world's peoples through time while recognizing diversity.
5. include at least one component on Hawaiian, Pacific, or Asian societies and their cultural traditions.
6. engage students in the study and analysis of writings, narratives, texts, artifacts, and/or practices that represent the perspectives of different societies and cultural traditions.

STUDENT LEARNING OUTCOMES

The student learning outcomes for the course are:

1. Identify important individuals, places, organizations and concepts in modern world history.
2. Arrange, in chronological order, significant events in world history.

3. Describe and analyze global processes from 1500 C.E. to the present (e.g human migration, ecological forces, imperialism, decolonialism, industrialism, nationalism, globalization.)
4. Explain cause and effect relationships in history.
5. Compare and contrast historical experiences across cultures and time.
6. Relate historical events to contemporary issues and events.

COURSE TASKS

- Welcome to the wonderful world of history—where we will make the past come to life as we explore the histories of the various peoples of the world! The class is focused around our textbook’s theme of “traditions & encounters.” Within this theme, you will learn how to identify, describe, and analyze the historical development of selected areas of the world from 1500 CE to the present, focusing on topics such as East-West interaction, cross-cultural conflict & exchanges, industrialization, nationalism, imperialism, and the world wars.
- The class will be centered around the following course tasks, that serve as both learning and assessment tools, for the purpose of measuring your learning and your ability to meet the course SLOs.
  - ✓ Take 2 exams. The purpose of these exams is to assess both your critical thinking and writing skills regarding the material covered in class up to the moment of the exam. Study guides will be given out prior to exams to help you focus your preparation. Exams are to be taken when scheduled. Make-up exams will only be given in cases of illness (with a doctor’s note) or valid emergency. If you are unable to take the scheduled exam, I expect you or a family member to immediately contact me before or on the day of the scheduled exam. No make-up exam will be scheduled without you contacting me in a timely manner. Each exam is worth up to 100 points.
  - ✓ Complete 27 Homework Worksheets (HW). These worksheets are designed to introduce you to the background information (or context) of important issues that will be covered in the following class period. The worksheets will have varied formats such as web explanation, identification, and short essay, and are meant to serve as a guide in which to focus your attention as you read the assigned chapters for homework. At each class, you will receive a STAMP to indicate that you completed your worksheet on time. The worksheet gives only a limited amount of space for your answers—this is so that your answers are concise, yet significant. Everyone will complete their worksheets differently—some will be more detailed than others. What I am concerned with when I grade your worksheets is whether or not it indicates that you read the assigned readings. Each worksheet is worth 1 point and will be graded with a + (good; 1 point) or - (needs work; 0.5 points), and will be turned in at the end of each class in which it is due. Be sure to note that on some days, 2 worksheets are due. It is extremely important for you to complete these worksheets prior to class in order for you to be prepared for class discussion and group assignments. If you did not attempt to complete your worksheet as directed, then you will NOT receive a stamp for it. Remember that for your worksheets to be worth something, they must be stamped. You may also be called upon to share your answers with the class. If you do not turn in your worksheets when they are due, you will not stamps for them, and thus will receive no credit for them. If you miss class, you must email me your worksheet answers by the start of class in order for you to earn your stamp. Late worksheets will not be accepted, regardless of reason, without a NQA coupon. However, please take note that you only have 4 NQA coupons to use on late worksheets, and once you use these coupons, you will not be able to turn in any more late worksheets.

- ✓ Complete a variety of in-class activities. This includes Primary Source Investigation Worksheets (PSIW), focused free-writes, primary source investigations, and group assignments. These assignments will rely heavily on you being prepared for class (i.e., having both read the assigned readings and completed the corresponding homework worksheet). Some assignments will be worth more points than others depending on the assignment. Groups will typically consist of 3-4 members, and will be randomly assigned based on preparation for the class (i.e., at the beginning of class, you will place your name card in the folder that best fits your preparation for the class: “I did my homework”; “I did some of my homework”; “I didn’t do my homework”. Furthermore, some classes will involve large class discussions where everyone will be expected to contribute to the discussion. Since all of these assignments require being present for class, you will NOT be able to make-up these in-class assignments, regardless of reason, if class is missed WITHOUT an NQA Coupon. An NQA Coupon allows you to request the in-class assignment(s) missed on the day of your absence so that you can complete the assignment(s) on your own time (these makeup assignments must be turned in by the last day of class). Please note that you only have 4 NQA coupons to use throughout the semester so use them wisely. Furthermore, for every 6 classes missed, your final grade is automatically lowered by 1 letter grade (unless you had extenuating circumstances such as a major illness or family emergency).
- ✓ Participate in class by being physically, as well as mentally, present and respectful of others. This includes turning off your cell phone, not talking story with friends, not listening to music, and coming to class on time. This also includes not monopolizing class discussion with your own point-of-view and not being respectful of what your classmates have to say. Negative comments will NOT be tolerated. Furthermore, any inappropriate behavior, including trying to be the class-clown, will result in immediate expulsion from the class. Hence, please be respectful of your classmates, thus fostering a positive learning environment!

ASSESSMENT TASKS AND GRADING

*2 Exams	x 100 points each =	200 points	(66% of final grade)
*In-Class Activities (incl. in-class work, Respect, Part.)	=	73 points	(25% of final grade)
*27 Homework Worksheets	x 1 point each =	27 points	(9% of final grade)
	=	300 points possible

*Everyone starts the class with an “A” (300 points)!
What you do with your “A” is now up to you!

To keep your	You can't lose more than	Which means
A	30 points	A = 270 points & above
B	60 points	B = 240 points & above
C	90 points	C = 210 points & above
D	120 points	D = 180 points & above

*You may keep track of your grade in our class's Lulima site under the Gradebook option. Please note, though, that I will only update the Gradebook 2x during the semester, approximately 2 weeks after a scheduled exam. If you are concerned about your grade, then you should make an appointment to see me, or come by my office during my office hours.

*(Hopefully, this will not happen, but if it turns out that more than 120 points is lost, an “F” for the class will result.)

*The “N” grade is only given in circumstances in which the student has worked conscientiously, attended regularly, finished all work, fulfilled course responsibilities, and has made measurable progress. However, either the student has not achieved the minimal student learning outcomes and is not prepared to succeed at the next level, or the student has made consistent progress in class but is unable to complete the class due to extenuating circumstances, such as major health, personal, or family emergencies. The “N” grade is NOT given in circumstances in which you have NOT made consistent progress in the class &/or attended class regularly.

LEARNING RESOURCES

1. Bentley, Jerry H. and Herbert F. Ziegler. Traditions and Encounters, Volume II: From 1500 to the Present. 5th Edition. New York: McGraw-Hill, 2011.
2. Course Reader of PSIWs, Worksheets, & Other Sources for Malia Lau Kong's HIST 152: World Civilization II Course

*Note: In the event that you go to the bookstore and the textbook &/or Course Reader is out of stock, you must place an order with the bookstore so that they can get it for you. Do not leave without placing an order! If you find yourself in the situation of not having a textbook &/or Course Reader, you must make use of the reserve textbook copy and Course Reader copy that are available in the library for “library use only” in order to keep up with the required readings and homework assignments.

METHOD OF INSTRUCTION

- ❖ The course will expect that you are able to independently read and comprehend the “facts” on your own. Class will never be a review of the “facts” that are learned by reading the textbook. Instead, class will be devoted to exercises that engage the brain at a higher cognitive level (i.e., application, analysis, evaluation, etc.).
- ❖ The method of instruction for part of this course relies on the FLIPPING THE CLASS concept. In this method, you will be completing assignments IN-CLASS that you would complete for homework in other classes. The rationale behind this concept is that some assignments are better completed in-class where I can advise and guide you. Nevertheless, IT IS STILL ESSENTIAL THAT YOU COMPLETE THE ASSIGNED READINGS PRIOR TO COMING TO CLASS. IF YOU FAIL TO COMPLETE THE ASSIGNED READINGS PRIOR TO CLASS, THEN YOU WILL BE UNABLE TO COMPLETE THESE ASSIGNMENTS TO THE BEST OF YOUR ABILITY AND YOUR GRADE FOR THE IN-CLASS ASSIGNMENT WILL SUFFER.
- ❖ The method of instruction for another part of this course relies on the WRITING-ACROSS-THE CURRICULUM pedagogy. In this pedagogy, you will use writing to help you critically think about history. By doing so, you will be gaining critical thinking skills that you can apply to all aspects of your life.

RECOMMENDATIONS THAT WILL HELP YOU IN THIS CLASS

1. This class requires a lot of reading, writing, and thinking! Keep up with the readings and always do your homework. Since we will move at an extremely fast pace, it is crucial for you to keep up with readings and homework assignments.
2. Faithfully attend class.
3. Always take notes! This includes anything that is written on the board, viewed on the overhead projector, and gleaned from videos.
4. Bring your textbook to every class. We will typically refer back to your textbook during class, and it will help you complete in-class assignments.
5. Ask questions if you don't understand and definitely let me know if you are having any problems in the class.

DISABILITIES ACCOMMODATION STATEMENT

If you have a physical, sensory, health, cognitive, or mental health disability that could limit your ability to fully participate in this class, you are encouraged to contact the Disability Specialist Counselor to discuss reasonable accommodations that will help you succeed in this class. Ann Lemke can be reached at 235-7448, lemke@hawaii.edu, or you may stop by Hale 'Akoakoa 213 for more information.

Life happens. Sometimes you just can't make it to class. These 4 coupons allow you to makeup the work missed (including turning in a late Homework Worksheet) in FOUR missed classes. After you have used all your coupons, that's it. Please do not ask for special consideration because it is NOT fair to all the other students in class who have been faithfully attending class regardless of life happening. Each unused coupon is worth 1 point extra credit.
