WINDWARD COMMUNITY COLLEGE MISSION STATEMENT

Windward Community College offers innovative programs in the arts and sciences and opportunities to gain knowledge and understanding of Hawai‘i and its unique heritage. With a special commitment to support the access and educational needs of Native Hawaiians, we provide O‘ahu’s Ko‘olau region and beyond with liberal arts, career and lifelong learning in a supportive and challenging environment — inspiring students to excellence.

CATALOG DESCRIPTION

ENG 209 Business Writing (3): A study of business and managerial writing; practice in writing letters, memos, and reports, including a report requiring research and documentation. Prerequisite: “C” or better in ENG 100. WCC: DL

Activities Required at Scheduled Times Other Than Class Times:

- Computer work: Internet, word processing, and email.
- Team work on group project.
- Two conferences with instructor – one prior to week eight, the second prior to week fifteen.

STUDENT LEARNING OUTCOMES

Students will:

- Understand the nature and functions of business and managerial writing.
- Apply the principles of effective business writing in composing business messages.
- Adapt a business message to its context, audience, and purpose.
- Prepare business reports, including a research report involving gathering and analyzing information, drawing conclusions, making recommendations, and documenting sources.
- Proofread and edit business writing for grammatical, spelling, punctuation, and mechanical errors.
- Prepare and make effective use of presentation software.
- Compose effective résumés and employment letters.
WRITING INTENSIVE HALLMARKS

- The course uses writing to promote the learning of course materials. Instructors assign formal and informal writing, both in class and out, to increase students' understanding of course material as well as to improve writing skills.
- The course provides interaction between teacher and students while students do assigned writing. Individual conferences are mandatory for WI courses at WCC.
- Writing contributes significantly to each student's course grade. Writing assignments must make up at least 40% of each student's course grade. If not, the course syllabus must state that students must satisfactorily complete all writing assignments to pass the course with a "D" or better.
- The course requires students to do a substantial amount of writing--a minimum of 4000 words, or about 16 pages. Depending on the course content, students may write analytic essays, critical reviews, journals, lab reports, research reports, or reaction papers, etc. In-class exams and drafts are not counted toward the 4000-word minimum.
- To allow for meaningful professor-student interaction on each student's writing, the class is restricted to 20 students. Professors who team-teach or who are assisted by a teaching assistant may request that the enrollment be higher as long as a 20-to-1 student to faculty ratio is maintained.

COURSE POLICIES

In General, please:

- Read this syllabus and all handouts and assignment sheets carefully.
- Study model documents provided in the textbook and in class.
- Come to class ready with questions.
- Email or call me (poteetd@hawaii.edu; 429-4020) if you have a question that you feel cannot be addressed to the class.
- See me in person. Either drop by during office hours or make an appointment.

In-Class:

English 209 will be taught in a computer lab using Laulima, an online educational program. Students must have basic computer literacy and a University of Hawaii ID and password to access Laulima and join class activities.
This class involves daily discussions, group work, and other forms of participation in and out of class. Full participation in all activities will have a significant impact on your writing performance and progress.

You may lose up to five points per class period for non-participation in activities or distracting or rude behavior, which includes but is not limited to: 1) leaving your cell phone ringer on, 2) answering your cell phone, 3) text messaging, 4) surfing the net or checking email, 5) talking while a classmate or the instructor presents information, and 6) making disparaging or inappropriate remarks. If you have one or both hands under the table and spend time in class gazing longingly for some reason at your lap, I will assume that you are texting or checking your email and will subtract points accordingly.

Extra Help:
You are responsible for your own learning. I encourage you to ask me questions about the class and the readings and to ask for clarification at any time.

Free tutoring is available through TRiO Student Support Services; request a tutor early. The contact number for the TRiO office is 235-7487.

The Writing Lab in Akoakoa provides you with a conducive environment to work on your assignments; it includes computers, printing, and supportive writing coaches.

Absences/Tardiness:
Absences will count against your semester point total at the following rate:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Absence #</th>
<th>Points Lost</th>
<th>College classes are not like work days. They are, rather, like special sessions or workshops for which you’ve set aside time and money. Additionally, state taxpayers heavily subsidize your class time. For these reasons, you will lose ten points from your semester total for each class you miss. In other words, credit for attendance in this course is nonrefundable.</th>

<tr>

</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Be on time. You will lose ten points for every three times you arrive late to class.
It is your responsibility to keep up with work you miss. Ask your classmates for copies of their notes, for homework and other assignments, and for what other preparation you need for class.

Required Conferences:
You must meet with me in conference at least twice this semester. You can see me individually, in pairs, or in groups of three or four. Non-participation in conferences will be penalized as follows:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Conferences</th>
<th>Points Lost</th>

</tr>
<tr>

</tr>
<tr>

</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
You have multiple writing assignments this semester, some of them worth more points than others. You can maximize the utility of your conference time by meeting with me about your “high value” assignments, but I’m happy to spend as much time as you’d like discussing other questions or concerns.

Homework:

Late work will be penalized as follows:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Days Late*</th>
<th>Value Lost</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>1-2</td>
<td>15%</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>3-7</td>

</tr>
<tr>
<td>8-10</td>
<td>50%</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>11 or more</td>
<td>100%</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

*Calendar days. Fractional points will be rounded down. Incomplete work will be returned to you and marked late.

Writing Standards:

Business writing requires different formatting in different kinds of documents. Please carefully follow the formatting tips provided in each chapter, and remember that all assignments except for writing improvement exercises must be typed. For a brief review of MLA style and formatting, please see the Appendix, pp. A16-A18.

Emails/Calls:

Please write grammatically correct emails, using complete words and full sentences (no shorthand, such as “where r u now”). Start with a greeting (Aloha Bob, Dear Mrs. Smith, or Hi Desi), and end with a signature (Thank you, Sincerely, or just your name). Get in the habit of writing professionally!

If you have any problems or last minute emergencies, email me or call and leave a voice mail. Please allow for a 24 hour turn-around time on emails (i.e. if you have a question regarding an assignment due on Thursday, send your email on Wednesday morning).

DISABILITIES ACCOMMODATION STATEMENT

If you have a physical, sensory, health, cognitive, or mental health disability that could limit your ability to fully participate in this class, you are encouraged to contact the Disability Specialist Counselor to discuss reasonable accommodations that will help you succeed in this class. Ann Lemke can be reached at 235-7448, lemke@hawaii.edu, or you may stop by Hale ʻAkoakoa 213 for more information.
