CATALOG DESCRIPTION

Introduction to practices and procedures used to report internal operations to management. Topics include manufacturing operations, budgeting, standard costing, cost-volume-profit analysis, job and process costing, statement of cash flows, and financial statement analysis. (3 hours lecture)

Pre-Requisite(s): ACC 201 with a grade of “C” or better or equivalent or consent of instructor.

The student learning outcomes are:

1. Analyze, record, and report equity and long-term liability transactions related to partnerships and corporations from both an issuer and investor perspective using GAAP.
3. Analyze financial statements using horizontal analysis, vertical analysis, and financial statement ratio techniques.
4. Describe the concepts of managerial accounting and explain how they are applied to various business models.
5. Analyze, record, and report the activities of a manufacturing company using process cost, job order cost, and standard cost accounting systems.
6. Prepare information and reports that may be used by management to plan, direct, motivate, and control a business using Cost-Volume-Profit analysis, incremental analysis, and operational and capital budgeting techniques.

Activities Required at Scheduled Times Other than Class Times

The University of Hawaii Laulima course management website is used for general management of the course and may be used to administer examinations. All assigned homework is hosted at the MyAccountingLab companion site. Instructions for accessing the MyAccountingLab site are explained at the following address:
http://pearsonmylabandmastering.com/students/

When registering for MyAccountingLab, you will need to use the following Course ID:

hanson45823

You are required to keep up with all assigned readings, and homework. Students are required to submit their homework via the MyAccountingLab website by the last day of instruction. Students are also encouraged to make use of the other learning tools which are available at the MyAccountingLab website.

STUDENT LEARNING OUTCOMES

The student Learning Outcomes are listed above in the Catalog Description category of this syllabus.

COURSE CONTENT

The course picks up where Accounting 201 (Introduction to Financial Accounting) left off by introducing the student to the process used to prepare an indirect method statement of cash flow. The bulk of the course is aimed at exposing the student to the concepts and techniques of managerial accounting. Analytical techniques are introduced for evaluating financial statements and capital investments. The course covers the basic cost accounting involved in a manufacturing operation.
The budgetary process is explained and demonstrated. Students’ hone their competency in these areas by working through the assigned homework problems.

ASSESSMENT TASKS AND GRADING

1. You must complete “Objectives of the Course” 2 and 3 or you will fail the course.
2. Available Course Points are as follows:

   40.0% Homework A
   15.0% Midterm Examination 1 (Chapters 14 & 15)
   15.0% Midterm Examination 2 (Chapters 16 & 17)
   15.0% Midterm Examination 3 (Chapters 19 & 20)
   15.0% Final Exam (Chapters 22 through 24)
   100.0%

A All assigned homework must be submitted via the MyAccountingLab online portal.
MyAccountingLab allows you multiple attempts at each homework problem. The student is given the whole semester to complete the all homework assignments. Because it is very easy to fall behind to a point where catching up is extremely difficult, you are strongly encouraged to pace your homework completion to follow the pace of the topics covered in class.

Students’ individual letter grades will be given at the end of the course and will be based on their overall success in percentage terms, weighted as shown in 2. above. Note: Grade percentages shown at the Laulima website are unofficial, and may differ significantly from the student’s final course grade. Students who wish to assess their progress during the semester should arrange to meet with the instructor. Letter grades will be assigned to final student points as follows:

- A 90% or better weighted average
- B 80% or better, but less than 90%
- C 70% or better, but less than 80%
- D 60% or better, but less than 70%
- F below 60%
- I Incompletes will not be given
- C/NC Credit/No Credit option is available for this course.
- W Withdrawal grade will only be given if official withdrawal is processed according to published procedures. (See current schedule and college catalog)

LEARNING RESOURCES

1. Financial Accounting (3rd edition), authors – Horngren, Harrison, and Oliver, publisher – Pearson – 2012

2. Access to MyAccountingLab on-line course site. See the Activities Required at Scheduled Times Other than Class Times section above

Additional Information

1. It has been shown that success in an introductory accounting class is highly correlated with attendance and homework completion. The students who attend class as scheduled and come prepared to class, having completed all of the assigned homework, tend to do very well in this class.

2. All homework that is to be graded must be submitted to the instructor via the MyAccountingLab online portal. MyAccountingLab allows you the whole semester for each homework submission. You are encouraged to keep your homework completion paced with the class discussion topics, as it will be very difficult to catch up at the end of the semester.

3. THERE WILL BE NO MAKE-UP EXAMINATIONS for the midterm examination, and the final examination.

4. Office hours may change during the semester as needed. The instructor will make you aware of any schedule office hour changes.
Academic Dishonesty
Students enrolled in this course are expected to abide by the academic honor code of the College. Acts of academic dishonesty will not be tolerated and will be dealt with in accordance with the College guidelines.
