WINDWARD COMMUNITY COLLEGE MISSION STATEMENT:
Windward Community College offers innovative programs in the arts and sciences and opportunities to gain knowledge and understanding of Hawai‘i and its unique heritage. With a special commitment to support the access and educational needs of Native Hawaiians, we provide O‘ahu’s Ko‘olau region and beyond with liberal arts, career and lifelong learning in a supportive and challenging environment — inspiring students to excellence.

METHOD OF INSTRUCTION: ONLINE:
Ask yourself if online is the right method of instruction for you. If you are very independent, organized, focused, and tech-savvy, AND have approximately 6 to 12 hours PER WEEK available to dedicate solely to the class, you should do fine in an online course. On the other hand, if these traits & time availability do not describe you, you are advised to drop the class immediately and take a traditional (face-to-face (F2F)) class.

- This course will expect that you are able to independently read, comprehend the “facts” on your own, complete the assignments, and navigate through Laulima with little guidance.

- Keeping on track is a must in this class. Always refer to the Class Schedule starting on page 7. It is very easy to fall behind in an online class. Please don’t let this happen to you! You are about to learn the material at a relatively fast pace. This means that EVERY WEEK (other than during the week reserved for Exam #1 and the week reserved for Exam #2) you will be expected to read 1—2 chapters in the textbook, and complete the corresponding assignments (PSIWs, Quizzes, & Discussion Posts). If this sounds overwhelming, then please drop the class.

- Check ANNOUNCEMENTS on the Main Page in Laulima for any announcements pertaining to our class. Every Monday, I will post an Announcement to introduce the Week’s topics & assignments. Furthermore, you should check your UH email account frequently (you are required to use your UH hawaii.edu email account; however, you can have your mail from this account forwarded to an email account that you more frequently use).
Make sure you adhere to the due dates as no late work will be accepted. Furthermore, the Exams MUST be taken during their scheduled times. No exceptions, regardless of reason, will be granted. If you find that you cannot be at a test-proctoring site during the time when the proctored exam is scheduled, then you need to drop this class.

*This class is designed to be accessible to ALL students. Thus, please take note of the following statement:

DISABILITIES ACCOMMODATION STATEMENT

If you have a physical, sensory, health, cognitive, or mental health disability that could limit your ability to fully participate in this class, you are encouraged to contact the Disability Specialist Counselor to discuss reasonable accommodations that will help you succeed in this class. Ann Lemke can be reached at 235-7448, lemke@hawaii.edu, or you may stop by Hale ‘Akoakoa 213 for more information.

CATALOG DESCRIPTION:

HIST 152 is a survey course focusing on the historical development of selected areas of the world from the 16th century to the present. Emphasis placed on analysis of the impact of industrialization, East-West interaction, and the rise of nationalism. (3 hrs.lect)

WCC: FG

FOUNDATION REQUIREMENT AND HALLMARKS:

Hist. 152 fulfills 3 credits in Group B of the General Education requirement (Foundations: Global and Multicultural Perspectives) for both an A.A. degree at WCC and a Bachelor’s degree at UH Manoa. Consequently, it meets the following hallmarks of global and multicultural perspectives:

1. provide students with a large-scale analysis of human development and change over time.
2. analyze the development of human societies and their cultural traditions through time in different regions (including Africa, the Americas, Asia, Europe and Oceania.)
3. offer a broad, integrated analysis of cultural, economic, political, scientific and/or social development that recognizes the diversity of human societies and their cultural traditions.
4. examine processes of cross-cultural interaction and exchange that have linked the world’s peoples through time while recognizing diversity.
5. include at least one component on Hawaiian, Pacific, or Asian societies and their cultural traditions.
6. engage students in the study and analysis of writings, narratives, texts, artifacts, and/or practices that represent the perspectives of different societies and cultural traditions.
STUDENT LEARNING OUTCOMES:
The student learning outcomes for the course are:

1. Identify important individuals, places, organizations and concepts in modern world history.
2. Arrange, in chronological order, significant events in world history.
3. Describe and analyze global processes from 1500 C.E. to the present (e.g. human migration, ecological forces, imperialism, decolonialism, industrialism, nationalism, globalization.)
4. Explain cause and effect relationships in history.
5. Compare and contrast historical experiences across cultures and time.
6. Relate historical events to contemporary issues and events.

REQUIRED TEXTBOOK TO PURCHASE:

Note: In the event that you go to the bookstore and the textbook is out of stock, you must place an order with the bookstore so that they can get it for you. Do not leave without placing an order!

COURSE TASKS
Welcome to the wonderful world of history—where we will make the past come to life as we explore the histories of the various peoples of the world in order to become better informed citizens and make our modern, global world more meaningful! As we look into the past, it may be helpful to view history as a movie—full of characters, with some playing significant roles and others playing supporting ones, drama, and significant events. Together, then, we will analyze this movie called history, highlighting the important individuals, concepts/ideas, places, societies, events, and all the drama that went along with this. As we explore the drama of the past, you will learn how to identify, describe, and analyze the historical development of selected areas of the world from 1500 CE to the present, focusing on topics such as East-West interaction, cross-cultural conflict & exchanges, industrialization, nationalism, imperialism, and the world wars.

The class will be centered around the following course tasks, that serve as both learning and assessment tools, for the purpose of measuring your learning and your ability to meet the course SLOs.

✓ Take 2 Exams. In order to preserve the integrity of this class, your FIRST exam is proctored (i.e., you must go to a designated test-proctoring site to take your exam). The second exam (completed during Finals Week) will be taken at-home. The purpose of these exams is to assess your critical thinking, reading comprehension, memorization, and writing skills regarding the material covered in class up to the moment of the exam. Exams will consist of a mixture of identification, short answer, & essay. Each exam is worth 22% of your final grade and is worth up to 100 points total.

- Since the FIRST Exam is PROCTORED, you will need to find a test-proctoring site in which to take your exam. To find a test-proctoring site, go to the following website, and review their policies & hours: http://www.hawaii.edu/dl/faculty/prep/proctor_office.html
- If WCC is your home campus, you will take your exams at THE TESTING CENTER in Hale La’akea (the Library).
- You will need to let me know by email during the FIRST WEEK OF CLASS where you will be taking your exam. If you do not email me your test-proctoring site by then, you will automatically be assigned to take your exams at THE TESTING CENTER in the Library at WCC.
- The proctored exam (Exam #1) must be completed during Week 8 (Monday, 10/14—Friday, 10/18) or Week 9 (Monday, 10/21—Friday, 10/25) of the semester. No exceptions will be made UNLESS YOU HAVE A LEGITIMATE REASON & MAKE ARRANGEMENTS WITH ME PRIOR TO WEEK 8. If you cannot take a proctored exam during the scheduled time, you need to drop the class.

✓ Complete 15 Quizzes which are found in the “Tests & Quizzes” icon in Laulima. Each weekly quiz will consist of 5 multiple choice questions and you will have ten minutes to complete the quiz. ACCESS TO THE QUIZ WILL BE LIMITED to Monday through Sunday for the week that it is assigned. In other words, the quiz will open be open for 1 week, opening at 12am Monday morning and closing at 11:59pm Sunday night. Each quiz is worth up to 10 points possible. The 15 quizzes are worth 33% of your final grade.

✓ Complete 14 Primary Source Investigation Worksheets (PSIW) which are found in the Assignments icon in Laulima. These PSIW Assignments will ask you to play the role of a historian by evaluating, analyzing, and reflecting upon assigned primary source readings. They also serve the purpose of developing your critical thinking and writing skills. The source readings for your PSIWs are found either in the Resources icon; click on folder entitled “Assigned Readings for PSIW Assignments”; readings will be listed according to Week # ... for example “PSIW Reading for Week #2” OR in your textbook on the page # designated in the PSIW Assignment itself found in the Assignment icon in Laulima. Each PSIW Assignment is worth 5 points. The PSIW will ask you to summarize, reflect upon, and analyze the source. If any 2 or more PSIWs are completed exactly alike, a zero will result. Please keep answers clear, concise, and in YOUR OWN WORDS. Do NOT copy your answers word-for-word out of these readings (unless it is when you are quoting the source). If you do so, this is considered PLAGIARISM, and you will not get credit for your answers. Please be advised that no late assignments will be accepted, regardless of reason. Assignments will always be due on the Sunday night by 11:59pm. See the class schedule for exact due dates. Due dates are also posted online by each assignment (note that you are allowed a little “grace period” for turning in your PSIWs but it is not good study habits to always depend on this). If you are having trouble with Laulima, then I expect you to email me PSIW answers BEFORE the due date. The 14 PSIWs account for 15% of your final grade and are worth up to 70 points total.

✓ Participate in ALL 15 Discussions found in the Weekly Discussions Lounge (click on the Discussions and Private Messages icon in Laulima to access) according to the class schedule by posting twice per Discussion, and being mentally present & respectful of others. Refer to the class schedule to see assigned Discussion for the week. Discussions will be graded on how well you follow the guidelines listed below. Each Discussion is worth up to 2 points total. The 15 Discussions account for 7% of your final grade and is worth up to 30 points total. Assigned Discussion Posts for the week will always be due on the Sunday by 11:59pm of the week in which it was assigned. No late Discussion Posts will be accepted, regardless of reason. ACCESS to the Discussion will be LIMITED to Monday through Sunday for the week that it is assigned. In other words, the Discussion will open be open for 1 week, opening at 12am Monday morning and closing at 11:59pm Sunday night. For each Discussion, you are expected to contribute in the following ways:

- ONE: Post an answer to the Discussion Topic/Question of at least 2 complete sentences that are ORIGINAL in thought (and not just a paraphrase of the comments that preceded it) by clicking on “NewTopic” to post within the Discussion Forum.
- TWO: Post a THOUGHTFUL reply to another student’s TOPIC (within the Discussion Forum) by posting at least a 1 complete sentence reply by clicking on “PostReply.” Be sure to not just post a reply that says you agree/disagree. Always explain your position.
- THREE: Be mindful that you one, do not monopolize discussion with your own point-of-view; two, do not go off topic; and three, are respectful of what your classmates have to say. Negative comments will NOT be tolerated. Please note that one of WCC’s core values is Ho‘ihi (Respect). This includes cultural awareness & aloha, student voice, ‘ohana-style inclusiveness, and LGBTI Safe Zones. Discussion forums will NOT be used to discriminate against or put down your fellow students or other cultures & religions. If you conduct yourself in a way that disparages others, then you are in direct violation of the Student Code of Conduct and you will be dealt with appropriately (which could mean removal from class).

*Everyone starts the class with an “A” (450 points)!
What you do with your “A” is now up to you!*
*If more than 180 points is lost, then you will fail the class. Please don’t let this happen!

*You can keep track of your grade in Laulima by clicking on the Gradebook Icon.

*The “N” grade is only given in circumstances in which the student has worked conscientiously, attended regularly, finished all work, fulfilled course responsibilities, and has made measurable progress. However, either the student has not achieved the minimal student learning outcomes and is not prepared to succeed at the next level, or the student has made consistent progress in class but is unable to complete the class due to extenuating circumstances, such as major health, personal, or family emergencies. The “N” grade is not given in circumstances in which you have NOT made consistent progress in the class &/or attended class regularly.

CLASS SCHEDULE:

*The class is set up so that you complete the following tasks in this general order for EACH topic unit that corresponds to the assigned chapter(s) in the textbook:

1. 📚 READ: read the assigned chapter(s) in the textbook & the corresponding Chapter Highlights found in the Resources icon in our Laulima site.

2. 📚 PSIW: read the assigned primary or secondary source (found either in the Resources icon; click on folder entitled “Assigned Readings for PSIW Assignments”; readings will be listed according to Week # … for example “PSIW Reading for Week #2” OR in your textbook on the page # designated in the PSIW Assignment itself found in the Assignment icon in Laulima) and complete the assigned PSIW Assignment (found in the Assignments icon in Laulima). The week’s PSIW Assignment will be due at 11:59pm Sunday night. While you are able to complete assignments ahead of the time for which they are assigned, always remember to adhere to the due date.

3. 📚 DISCUSS: post TWICE (1st post: your original answer to topic by clicking “NewTopic”; 2nd post: your reply to another student’s topic post by clicking “PostReply”) in the assigned discussion forum for the week. Discussion Forums are found in the Discussions and Private Messages icon in Laulima and will be listed according to Week #. The week’s Discussion will be due at 11:59pm Sunday night. ACCESS to the Discussion will be LIMITED to Monday through Sunday for the week that it is assigned. In other words, the quiz will open be open for 1 week, opening at 12am Monday morning and closing at 11:59pm Sunday night.

4. 📚 QUIZ: take the TIMED, multiple-choice quiz on the assigned chapter(s) in the textbook (or syllabus in the case of the first quiz) for the week. Quizzes are found in the “Tests & Quizzes” icon in Laulima. The quiz will consist of 5 multiple choice questions and you will have ten minutes to complete the quiz. ACCESS to the Quiz will be LIMITED to Monday through Sunday for the week that it is assigned. In other words, the quiz will open be open for 1 week, opening at 12am Monday morning and closing at 11:59pm Sunday night.
5. ALWAYS REMEMBER THAT THE DUE DATE FOR PSIW ASSIGNMENTS, DISCUSSIONS, & QUIZZES IS SUNDAY NIGHT AT 11:59pm. NO EXTENSIONS OF DUE DATES WILL BE GRANTED REGARDLESS OF REASON (THE ONLY EXCEPTION IS IF YOU ARE PHYSICALLY UNABLE TO DO SO DUE TO A SEVERE, DOCUMENTED ILLNESS OR MEDICAL EMERGENCY) DUE TO THE FACT THAT THIS IS AN ONLINE COURSE AND YOU ARE ABLE TO COMPLETE ALL WORK ON YOUR OWN TIME.
