Grading
Final course grades will be calculated from a grading scale of 100 possible points.

Attendance & Active Participation
While this is an online course and attendance and active participation does not apply as it would in a face-to-face learning environment, Laulima records each student’s log in history. Students who are bordering in-between grades will automatically be given the higher grade if they have been actively participating in the Laulima discussions and have shown a regular presence in the Laulima.

Late Work Policy
All assignments, projects, Laulima discussions, and Simnet lessons and exams must be completed by the assigned due dates. Late work will not be accepted. Exceptions will be made in cases due to extenuating circumstances (e.g. illness, death in family) at the discretion of the instructor.

Computer Platform
This course was designed to be completed on a PC. While it is possible to complete different aspects of the course using a Mac, technical support for students attempting to complete this course on a Mac will be available on a limited basis.

Required Software
You must have access to Microsoft Office 2010 in order to complete the assignments and activities in this course.

Computer Lab Paper
The Academic Computing Services grants each new Windward Community College student an initial paper allowance for printing documents. Once it is used, students have to pay for paper usage at the Library. This policy will be discussed in the first week of our class. Please arrange for paper credit at the Library to avoid last-minute dashes to the Library during exams.

STATEMENT AND POLICIES

Disabilities Accommodation Statement
If you have a physical, sensory, health, cognitive, or mental health disability that could limit your ability to fully participate in this class, you are encouraged to contact the Disability Specialist Counselor to discuss reasonable accommodations that will help you succeed in this class. Ann Lemke can be reached at 235-7448, lemke@hawaii.edu, or you may stop by Hale ‘Akoakoa 213 for more information.

Academic Dishonesty—Cheating and Plagiarism
Students assume full responsibility for the content and integrity of the academic work they submit. The guiding principle of academic integrity shall be that a student's submitted files, work, examinations, reports, and projects must be that of the student's own work. See the Windward Community College catalog for details. Students shall be guilty of cheating if they:

- Represent the work of others as their own (plagiarism).
- Use or obtain unauthorized assistance in any academic work.
- Give unauthorized assistance to other students.
- Modify, without instructor approval, an examination, paper, record, or report for the purpose of obtaining additional credit.
- Misrepresent the content of submitted work.

Note: If you are caught cheating on exam, you may be placed on probation for a semester. You will receive a score of zero for that exam.
