Foundation Requirements and Hallmarks

HIST 151 fulfills 3 credits in Group A of the General Education requirement (Foundations: Global and Multicultural Perspectives) for both and A.A. degree at WCC and a Bachelor’s degree at UH Manoa. Consequently, it meets the following hallmarks of global and multicultural perspectives:

1. Provide students with a large-scale analysis of human development and change over time.
2. Analyze the development of human societies and their cultural traditions through time in different regions (including Africa, the Americas, Asia, Europe, and Oceania.)
3. Offer a broad, integrated analysis of cultural, economic, political, scientific, and/or social development that recognizes the diversity of human societies and their cultural traditions.
4. Examine processes of cross-cultural interaction and exchange that have linked the world’s peoples through time while recognizing diversity.
5. Include at least one component on Hawaiian, Pacific, or Asian societies and their cultural traditions
6. Engage students in the study and analysis of writings, narratives, texts, artifacts, and/or practices that represent the perspectives of different societies and cultural traditions
Student Learning Outcomes

The student learning outcomes (SLOs) for the course are:

1. Identify important individuals, places, organizations and concepts in modern world history.
2. Arrange, in chronological order, significant events in world history.
3. Describe and analyze global processes from prehistory to 1500 C.E. (e.g. human migration, ecological forces, spread of world religions, creation of empires.)
4. Explain cause and effect relationships in history.
5. Compare and contrast historical experiences across cultures and time.
6. Relate historical events to contemporary issues and events.

Texts: Bentley and Zeigler, Traditions and Encounters: A Global Perspective on the Past, Vol. I

Narayan, The Ramayana
Van Gulik, The Celebrated Cases of Judge Dee

Course Objectives/Competencies:

Upon successful completion of HIST 151 the student should be able to:

- Distinguish the characteristics of the world’s major civilizations in their geographic settings
- Trace the development of traditional civilizations and recognize their enduring influences
- Describe global processes (agri/urban revolutions, migration, disease, imperialism, colonialism, etc.)
- Describe interactive roles which social, religious, political, economic, technological forces have played amongst the civilizations of the world
- Discuss the historical dimensions of contemporary world affairs and issues
- Discuss the role of intercultural contacts and interactions
- Describe the different interpretations and understandings of history in different regions of the world

Method of Instruction: Online

Ask yourself if online is the right method of instruction for you. If you are very independent, organized, focused, and tech-savvy, you should do fine in an online course. On the other hand, if these traits do not describe you, please seriously consider taking a traditional (face-to-face (F2F)) class.

* This course will expect that you are able to independently read, comprehend the “facts” on your own, complete the assignments, and navigate through Laulima with little guidance.

* Keeping on track is a must in this class. Always refer to the Class Schedule that is included in this syllabus. Remember that this is an online class and that you are responsible for completing everything listed in the Class Schedule basically on your own. I will be able to communicate with you through email and discussion boards, but much of the work this semester you will have to complete on your own. This means that EVERY WEEK you will be expected to read 1-2 chapters in the textbook, any additional readings in the form of books or articles, and complete the corresponding assignments as scheduled in the Class Schedule. There is a lot of writing in this class! If this sounds overwhelming (and to many it will!), then please drop the class and enroll in a traditional class.

* Check ANNOUNCEMENTS on the Main Page in Lauolia for any announcements pertaining to our class. Announcements for the week will be posted by Monday evening, so be sure to check the weekly announcements each week on Lauolia (as there will be directions for the week, important information for the class, instructor’s reactions to your Discussion Board posts, etc). Furthermore, you should check your UH email account frequently (you are required to use your UH email account, however you can have your UH email forwarded to any email that is more convenient).

* Make sure you adhere to the completion dates. Late work will be accepted, but the grade will drop 10%/day.

Course Requirements: The class consists of the following tasks that serve as both learning and assessment tools for the purpose of measuring your learning and your ability to meet the course SLOs.

* Complete 21 textbook assignments (based on readings in the textbook Traditions and Encounters) and 6 supplemental reading assignments (based on the books and articles). The assignments and due dates are designated in the Class Schedule found in this syllabus. The assignments will be distributed through Lauolia and can be found in the Resources folder on your Lauolia class page. The assignments are to be turned in through Lauolia’s Dropbox by 11:59 pm (Hawaii Standard Time) on the Sunday of the week in which it appears on the Class Schedule (i.e., Week One’s (Aug 24-30) assignments will be due by 11:59 PM, Sunday, Aug 30). The material for each week will be posted on Lauolia each Monday, giving you ample time (one week) to complete the assignments by the following Sunday. Each assignment is worth 15-20 points. 420 points possible.

* Post 16 weekly (one each week) discussion comments on the discussion board on Lauolia. This is easy! All you have to do is post a comment to one of the discussion questions of the week which I will post at the beginning of each week (roughly a paragraph of text, approximately 250 words). It’s that simple! Just one comment per week will fulfill the requirement. It is our only chance to feel like a connected class, but it will not be successful without your participation and support! Each post is worth 10 points, 160 points possible. You have to comment on the Discussion Board by Sunday of each week as the Discussion Board will close after midnight (Sunday).
Grading:

<tr>
<th>Assignment Type</th>

<tbody>

<td>Reading Assignments</td>
<td>420</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Discussion Board</td>
<td>160</td>

Grade Scale:

<table>

<tr>

<td>C</td>
</tr>
<tr>

Think of it this way. As of the first day of the class, you have a total of 580 points, a perfect A. If you lose 58 points, you will drop a letter grade. So my best advice is to keep up with all of the readings and stay ahead of the final deadline just in case of an emergency. REMEMBER: THERE IS NO PENALTY FOR COMPLETING THE WORK EARLY!!!

Finally, be aware that CHEATING and PLAGIARISM are considered ACADEMIC FRAUD under the Student Code of Conduct. Ignorance of what constitutes plagiarism is no excuse. Any student caught cheating or plagiarizing will receive a failing grade for this course.

INCOMPLETEes are not granted for this course.

Statement on Student Responsibilities

In instructional activities, students are responsible for meeting all of the instructor's attendance and assignment requirements. Failure to do so may affect their final grade. In all college-related activities, including instruction, they must abide by the college's codes and regulations, refraining from behavior that interferes with the rights and safety of others in the learning environment. Finally, if they decide to file a grievance, they are fully responsible for providing proof that they have been wronged.

Disability Support Services: If you have a documented disability and have not voluntarily disclosed the nature of your disability and the support you need, please come and see me ASAP.

DISABILITIES ACCOMMODATION STATEMENT

If you have a physical, sensory, health, cognitive, or mental health disability that could limit your ability to fully participate in this class, you are encouraged to contact the Disability Specialist Counselor to discuss reasonable accommodations that will help you succeed in this class. Ann Lemke can be reached at 235-7448, lemke@hawaii.edu, or you may stop by Hale ‘Akoakoa 213 for more information.
ADVICE?

Learn to admit when you don’t know something, and NEVER be afraid to ask questions. Remember: there are no stupid questions! The best three word phrase to utilize this semester is simple: “I don’t know.” Be brave enough to admit that and you will go far in this class, and in life!

Socrates: [...] οὗτος μὲν οἴεται τι οἴδεναι οὐκ οἴδος, ἐγὼ δὲ, ὡσπερ οὖν οὐκ οἶδα, οὐδὲ οἶμαι

– This man, on one hand, believes that he knows something, while not knowing [anything]. On the other hand, I – equally ignorant – do not believe [that I know anything].

Which person would you rather be? The one who pretends to know everything? Or the one brave enough to admit that they do not?

CONSULT instructor if you need help, advice, encouragement, or have questions about the course. Feel free to email me with any and all questions. Since we will never meet face to face, written communication is vital to your success.
