CATALOG DESCRIPTION

A global and historical survey focusing on human societies and cross-cultural interactions to 1500 C.E. (3 hours lecture)
WCC: FG

FOUNDATION REQUIREMENT AND HALLMARKS

HIST 151 fulfills 3 credits in Group A of the General Education requirement (Foundations: Global and Multicultural Perspectives) for both an A.A. degree at WCC and a Bachelor’s degree at UH Manoa. Consequently, it meets the following hallmarks of global and multicultural perspectives:

1. provide students with a large-scale analysis of human development and change over time.
2. analyze the development of human societies and their cultural traditions through time in different regions (including Africa, the Americas, Asia, Europe and Oceania.)
3. offer a broad, integrated analysis of cultural, economic, political, scientific and/or social development that recognizes the diversity of human societies and their cultural traditions.
4. examine processes of cross-cultural interaction and exchange that have linked the world’s peoples through time while recognizing diversity.
5. include at least one component on Hawaiian, Pacific, or Asian societies and their cultural traditions.
6. engage students in the study and analysis of writings, narratives, texts, artifacts, and/or practices that represent the perspectives of different societies and cultural traditions.

STUDENT LEARNING OUTCOMES

The student learning outcomes (SLOs) for the course are:

1. Identify important individuals, places, organizations and concepts in pre-modern world history.
2. Arrange, in chronological order, significant events in world history.
3. Describe and analyze global processes from prehistory to 1500 C.E. (e.g., human migration, ecological forces, spread of world religions, creation of empires.)
4. Explain cause and effect relationships in history.
5. Compare and contrast historical experiences across cultures and time.
6. Relate historical events to contemporary issues and events.

METHOD OF INSTRUCTION: HYBRID

Ask yourself if hybrid is the right method of instruction for you. If you are very independent, organized, focused, tech-savvy, enjoy working in groups and participating in discussions, you should do fine in a hybrid course. On the other hand, if these traits do not describe you, please seriously consider taking a traditional class.

- This course will expect that you are able to independently read, comprehend the “facts” on your own, complete the assignments, and navigate through Laulima with little guidance.

- Keeping on track is a must in this class. Always refer to the Class Schedule in this syllabus. It is very easy to fall behind in this class. Please don’t let this happen to you! You are about to learn the material at a relatively fast pace. This means that every week, on your own, you will be expected to read 1—2 chapters in the textbook & any assigned readings in the Course Reader, and complete the corresponding assignments (Video Exploration Assignments, Quizzes & Exams, Real World Assignment, HCAPs, &/or Discussion Posts). If this sounds overwhelming, then please drop the class.

- Check ANNOUNCEMENTS on the Main Page in Laulima for any announcements pertaining to our class. Every Monday, I will post an Announcement to introduce the Week’s topics & assignments. Furthermore, you should check your UH email account frequently (you are required to use your UH hawaii.edu email account; however, you can have your mail from this account forwarded to an email account that you more frequently use).

- Our class meets once a week (unless otherwise noted on the Class Schedule). In order to prepare you for class, you will read the assigned readings, watch the assigned documentaries, and complete the required assignments BEFORE class (see the Class Schedule for reference). Class will then be devoted to applying, analyzing, evaluating & synthesizing what you learned about at home in a variety of student-centered activities (individual & group). In general class will usually follow this format: 1) Focusing Assignment & Questions from Readings/Assignments (15 minutes); 2) Activity or Activities (55 minutes); 3) Introduction of Next Topic (5 minutes).

Make sure you adhere to the due dates to avoid the late penalty that is assessed for all late work. Note that you will have assignments that are either due online in Laurila OR in-class (see Class Schedule for reference). Furthermore, the Exam #1 and Exam #2 MUST be taken during their scheduled times, unless you made prior arrangements with me or had a valid emergency and contacted me in a timely manner.

COURSE TASKS

Welcome to the wonderful world of history—where we will make the past come to life as we explore the histories of the various peoples of the world in order to become better informed citizens and make our modern, global world more meaningful! As we look into the past, it may be helpful to view history as a movie—full of characters, with some playing significant roles and others playing supporting ones, drama, and significant events. Together, then, we will analyze this movie called history, highlighting the important individuals, concepts/ideas, places, societies, events, and all the drama that went along with this. As we explore the drama of the past, the class will focus on the development of diverse cultures, similarities & differences between these cultures, and the connections & conflicts that have arisen between these cultures.

The class will be centered around the following course tasks, that serve as both learning and assessment tools, for the purpose of measuring your learning and your ability to meet the course SLOs.

- Take 2 Exams. Each Exam is worth 100 points total. The purpose of these exams is to assess both your critical thinking and writing skills regarding the material covered in class up to the moment of the exam. Each exam consists of TWO PARTS: Part One which consists of the writing of 1 typed, double-spaced essay worth 50 points and Part Two which consists of multiple choice questions & written explanation questions (10 points each). Exam #1 Part One & Exam #2 Part One are completed AT-HOME and is submitted in the “Exams” icon in our class Laurila site by the designated due date. Exam #1 Part Two is completed IN-CLASS on the designated date while Exam #2 Part Two is completed AT-HOME. Part One of Exams #1 & #2 emphasizes THINKING, READING, & WRITING and that is why you are allowed to complete this part at home.
  - Part Two of Exam #1 emphasizes RESOURCEFULNESS and thus you will be allowed a 4” x 6” notecard, double-sided, typed or printed for use when completing this exam. Part Two of Exam #2 also emphasizes RESOURCEFULNESS, will have a time limit of 75 minutes, and will be completed at-home to be submitted in the “Exams” icon in our class Laurila site.
    - Exams are to be taken when scheduled. Make-up exams will only be given in cases of illness (with a doctor’s note) or valid emergency. If you are unable to take the scheduled exam, I expect you or a family member to immediately contact me before or on the day of the scheduled exam. No make-up exam will be scheduled without you contacting me in a timely manner.

- Take 10 Quizzes which are found in the “Exams” icon in our class Laurila site. Each weekly quiz will consist of 5 multiple choice questions and you will have 10 minutes to complete the quiz. Quizzes will be on the assigned readings & Lessons for the week. You will be granted access to all quizzes at the beginning of the semester, but each quiz must be completed by its specified due date in the syllabus which will always be on a Sunday by 11:59pm. Please note that late quizzes will continue to be accepted in Laurila until the last day of instruction; however, all quizzes completed after the due date will be assessed a late penalty of 3 points. Each quiz is worth up to 10 points possible.

- Complete the Real World Assignment: Cover Letter & Resume for a Historical Individual. This assignment is worth 20 points total and will be due by on Sunday, 5/3 by 11:59pm and emailed to me as a Word Document (if you do not have Word, then you should email it to me either in PDF or RTF format). The guidelines for this assignment are attached to this syllabus.
  - For this assignment, you must pick a historical individual (pre-1500 CE; however, if you choose an individual from Hawai‘i, it can be pre-1819 CE) that was also a proven warrior. Pretending that you are this person, you are to create a cover letter and resume for this person if he/she were applying for a job. No more than one person per historical person. If you have a historical person in mind, you should sign up for that person ASAP by emailing me as it will be first come, first choice (you can also sign up in class but any emails received prior to your request will have first choice). Be sure to check for a confirmation email from me regarding your choice. I will post a list of those chosen individuals in the Homepage of our Laulima site. Once the name of an individual is listed on the Homepage, you are no longer able to pick that person. If you are unsure of a historical person, please contact me. Real World Assignments submitted after the due date will be assessed a 5-point late penalty and will not be considered for the job.

- After I receive all cover letters & resumes, I will post them in the “KickA Industries Resumes” folder in the Resources icon in our Laulima site by Tuesday, 5/5. You are then to read all resumes so that you can then come up with the 3 most qualified individual that you would hire (you can choose your own individual as one) so that you can then participate in the “KickA Industries Hiring Executives Discussion” found in the “Discussion Board” icon in our class Laulima site by writing a 5—7 sentence post on the 3 individuals you would hire and why. In your post, you should explain each of the individual strengths of your chosen individuals (be as specific as possible when talking about these strengths) and how when these strengths are combined, they would make an unbeatable team. The due date for this post is Sunday, 5/10, by 11:59pm. This post will be worth 5 points total. On Tuesday, 5/12, I will announce the 3 Most Qualified Individuals based on the 3 most chosen individuals in the Discussion. The students who created the cover letters & resumes of the 3 chosen individuals will be awarded 5 points extra credit.

✓ Complete 8 Video Exploration Assignments found in the “Assignments” icon in Laulima. You will notice that there are sometimes multiple assignments assigned per week according to the class schedule. Assignments assigned for the week will always be due on the Sunday by 11:59pm of the week in which it was assigned. You will have access to all assignments starting on the first day of class in case you would like to complete them ahead of the week in which they are assigned for. Please note that late assignments will continue to be accepted in Laulima until the last day of instruction; however, all assignments completed after the due date will be assessed a late penalty of 2—4 points depending on the assignment. These assignments deal with you watching historical documentaries found on YouTube (links to which are in both our Laulima site’s Homepage and in the Assignment itself) and answering questions based on these documentaries. Note that you are to submit your answers for each Assignment online in the Assignments icon. Please disregard the instructions written on page 9 of your Course Reader. See our Laulima class site Homepage for the links to these documentaries and further information on submission of questions. The amount of points each of these assignments in worth is varied depending on the number of questions asked in each assignment (1 point per question given). The 8 assignments total 40 points.

✓ Complete 3 Historical Comparative Analysis Papers (HCAPs) and share them in class in small groups on the assigned dates. HCAPs will be due in-CLASS on designated dates. These typed 2-page papers (350—500 words) will analyze a recent news article of your own choice by relating it to specific Primary Sources found in your Course Reader (PS) & answering specific comparative questions. The topic of the HCAPs for the spring semester is FREEDOM. The purpose of the HCAPs is to compare freedom in the past to freedom in the present in order to make the past more relevant to the present. By doing so, you will demonstrate your ability to meet SLOs #5 & #6 for this course. Furthermore, another purpose of this project is to connect this class to the real world by exploring current issues through newspaper articles. Additionally, the project will develop your critical thinking skills as you analyze the similarities and differences between freedom in the past and freedom today. We will discuss the format of this assignment more at a later time. Each paper is worth 20 points (including 2 points for presentation) and must be presented in small groups on the designated presentation days. If absent on presentation day, the 2 points for presenting in small groups will automatically be forfeited due to the collaborative nature of presentations. Late HCAPs will be assessed a 5 point penalty, plus forfeit the 2 points for presenting in small groups if unable to present research in small group on the designated presentation days. The guidelines for this assignment are attached to this syllabus.
✓ Participate in ALL 3 Discussions found in the “Discussion Board” icon in our class Laulima site (click on “Discussion Board” icon in Laulima to access; then look for the assigned Discussion for the Week to participate in). Refer to the class schedule to see assigned Discussion(s) for the week. Discussions will be graded on how well you follow the guidelines listed below:
  o For each Discussion, you are to only REPLY to the post that I have up. In other words, after reading the post that I have set up as an introduction to the Discussion, please just click "reply."
    ▪ The instructions will be this: in your reply, please 1) answer the question that I post in 2—3 complete sentences, and 2) respond to the student’s response that directly precedes your reply with 1—2 complete sentences. In other words, if you are the first student to reply to this post, then you are to 1) answer the question, and 2) reply to what I write about. Another example is if you are the 10th student to reply, then you will be 1) answering the question that I post below, and 2) replying to the reply of the 9th student. If you have any questions about this, please email me.
    ▪ Your answer to the question that I post should consist of 2—3 complete sentences that are ORIGINAL in thought (and not just a paraphrase of the comments that preceded it).
    ▪ Your response to the student’s response that directly precedes yours should consist of 1—2 complete sentences of why you agree or disagree with this student’s response. In other words, don’t just say you agree or disagree. Always explain your position.
    ▪ Always be mindful that you are RESPECTFUL of what your classmates have to say. Negative comments will NOT be tolerated. Please note that one of WCC’s core values is Ho’ihi (Respect). This includes cultural awareness & aloha, student voice, ‘ohana-style inclusiveness, and LGBTI Safe Zones. Discussion forums will NOT be used to discriminate against or put down your fellow students or other cultures & religions. If you conduct yourself in a way that disparages others, then you are in direct violation of the Student Code of Conduct and you will be dealt with appropriately (which could mean removal from class).
    ▪ Always remember that discussions are meant to provoke critical thinking on a given topic. Although you may disagree with what I or your fellow classmates have to say, I expect you to always be respectful in your disagreement.
    ▪ Each Discussion is worth up to 5 points total. Assigned Discussion Posts for the week will always be due on the Sunday by 11:59pm of the week in which it was assigned. No late Discussion Posts will be accepted, regardless of reason due to the collaborative nature of this assignment. ACCESS to the Discussion will be LIMITED to Monday through Sunday for the week that it is assigned.

✓ Complete a variety of in-class activities. This includes primary source analyses, mock trials, role-playing activities, focused free-writes, & synthesis writings. These assignments will rely heavily on you being prepared for class (i.e., having both read the assigned readings and completed the corresponding homework worksheet). Some assignments will be worth more points than others depending on the assignment. Groups will typically consist of 3-4 members, and will be randomly assigned. Furthermore, some classes will involve large class discussions where everyone will be expected to contribute to the discussion. Since all of these activities require being present for class to receive the points, if you are absent, you will need to make-up the points by completing an assignment for the missed class which will then be due in one week. However, the points for any missed classes beyond the first 3 absences will not be able to be made up due to the collaborative nature of being present for these assignments, regardless of reason (unless, of course, the reason is that you have a documented case of illness).

✓ Participate in class by being physically, as well as mentally, present and respectful of others. This includes turning off your cell phone, not talking story with friends, not listening to music, and coming to class on time. This also includes not monopolizing class discussion with your own point-of-view and not being respectful of what your classmates have to say. Negative comments will NOT be tolerated whether in-class OR in posted in the Laulima Discussions. Furthermore, any inappropriate behavior, including trying to be the class-clown, will result in immediate expulsion from the class. Always be respectful of one another. Furthermore, one of WCC’s core values is Ho’ihi (Respect). This includes cultural awareness & aloha, student voice, ‘ohana-style inclusiveness, and LGBTI Safe Zones. Hence, if you conduct yourself in a way that disparages others, then you are in direct violation of the Student Code of Conduct and you will be dealt with appropriately (which could mean removal from class). Hence, please be respectful of your classmates, thus fostering a positive learning environment!

*You may keep track of your grade in our class’s Laulima site under the Gradebook option. Please note, though, that I will only update the Gradebook 2x during the semester, approximately 1—2 weeks after a scheduled exam. If you are concerned about your grade, then you should make an appointment to see me, or come by my office during my office hours.

*(Hopefully, this will not happen, but if it turns out that more than 200 points is lost, an “F” for the class will result.)

*The “N” grade is only given in circumstances in which the student has worked conscientiously, attended regularly, finished all work, fulfilled course responsibilities, and has made measurable progress. However, either the student has not achieved the minimal student learning outcomes and is not prepared to succeed at the next level, or the student has made consistent progress in class but is unable to complete the class due to extenuating circumstances, such as major health, personal, or family emergencies. The “N” grade is NOT given in circumstances in which you have NOT made consistent progress in the class &/or attended class regularly.

KickA Industries NEEDS YOU!

HELP US SAVE THE WORLD!

KickA Industries has immediate openings for a few good men & women—barbarian or civilized—as we embark on world domination to eliminate the zombie threat forever.

Company History: KickA Industries is a public-private corporation dedicated to eliminating the zombie pandemic that has turned 90% of the world’s population into the living dead. Although guns were the preferred method of zombie elimination, bullets are now in short supply. Hence, KickA Industries is traveling back in time & recruiting from the world’s historical warrior population who know how to kick a with weapons that don’t need reloading (yes, time travel exists but the mechanics of time travel or why KickA Industries doesn’t just send someone back to prevent the zombie plague remains as classified information).

Minimum Qualifications: Ability to kick a in multiple situations and environments. Experience in the field. Dependable (will not run away in hazardous situations).

Desirable Qualifications: Proven ability to kick a. Proven ability to lead. Multiple conquests.

Pay Scale: Starting salary depends on experience. Hazard pay bonus in addition to starting salary. Life & health insurance offered. Family will be provided for upon death in the line of action.

To Apply: Please send in a cover letter stating how you meet the minimum and desirable qualifications, and a resume with current reference(s).

We are an EOAA business. We will not discriminate based on gender, ethnicity, culture, sexual orientation, religion, color, age, weight, height, &/or manners.
Purpose of Assignment: To have fun with history, to think & write critically & creatively, and to also see how learning history can have real world applicability. Although you are picking a historical person to complete this assignment, you are learning how to write a cover letter and resume—two skills needed in the real world.

Scenario: You, a historical warrior from Pre-Medieval World History, sees this job ad posted on a tree just as you’re coming back from hunting. Since you seek wealth, fame, and adventure, you decide to apply for this job that will take you into the future to battle these slow-moving zombies, a job that sounds as easy as taking candy from a baby for a bad a, hard-core warrior like yourself.

Assignment: Pick a historical individual (pre-1500 CE; however, if you choose an individual from Hawai‘i, it can be pre-1819 CE) that was also a proven warrior. Pretending that you are this person, apply for this job by creating a cover letter and resume. No more than one person per historical person. If you have a historical person in mind, you should sign up for that person ASAP by contacting me as it will be first come, first choice. If you are unsure of a historical person, please contact me.

You will be expected to do additional research on your historical person in order to create an appropriate and accurate cover letter and resume. Although you need to be creative, you still need to be ACCURATE. In other words, you will NOT be able to make things up regarding your chosen person—if your person didn’t do something, don’t make something up. For example, do not say that your person conquered something if he did not. Or, do not say that your person learned his/her skills by attending Warrior College. Instead, if your person was, for example, a specified Spartan warrior, you would write that he graduated from the agoge since the agoge was basically like warrior school. If you need help in making sure that you are balancing the art of accuracy & creativity, be sure to contact me!

You will need to include at least ONE primary source reference for your person. This primary source reference is an identification (who, what wrote, where from, when lived, why important) of an actual writer that wrote about your person back then. In other words, this reference is someone who lived during the time period of your person. This reference is NOT someone from our own modern day that wrote a book about your person. Although you only need to find 1 primary source reference, note that the more primary source references you can identify, the stronger the resume of your person. If you are unsure of your reference(s), be sure to contact me.
Brief Overview: The Historical Comparative Analysis Paper (HCAP) will analyze the topic of freedom across time by comparing a specific Primary Source found in the Course Reader (PS) to a current events news article. This analysis will be done in a 4-paragraph paper that answers specific questions in each paragraph.

Purpose: The purpose of the HCAPs is to compare freedom in the past to freedom in the present in order to make the past more relevant to the present. By doing so, you will demonstrate your ability to meet SLOs #5 & #6 for this course. Furthermore, another purpose of this project is to connect this class to the real world by exploring current issues through newspaper articles. Additionally, the project will develop your critical thinking skills as you analyze the similarities and differences between freedom in the past and freedom today.

Other Info: Each paper is worth 20 points (including 2 points for presentation), is due in-class on designated dates, must be typed, and must be presented in small groups on the designated presentation days. Late HCAPs will be assessed a 5 point penalty, plus forfeit the 2 points for presentation if either absent or unable to present research in small groups on the designated presentation day.

HCAP Guidelines: In order to write your HCAP, you will need to write 4 typed paragraphs. The minimum number of sentences for each paragraph is 5. Each paragraph has a specific set of instructions that are detailed below:

- Paragraph 1: Evidence—Primary Source (PS)
  - For HCAP #1, use Primary Source: Sima Qian, The Legalist Policies of the Qin, pgs. 29—32 of Course Reader
  - For HCAP #2, use Primary Source: Herodotus, Xerxes Invades Greece, pgs. 41—49 of Course Reader
  - For HCAP #3, use Primary Sources: Tacitus, Rebellion of Boudicca and Dio, Boudicca’s Rebellion, pgs. 60—70 of Course Reader
  - Using the specified PS, complete the following tasks:
    1. Identify the individual(s) &/or society(ies) involved (who, what, where, when). In order to complete this, you may need to reference your class notes &/or textbook.
    2. Answer the following questions:
a. According to what the PS reveals, what does freedom mean to the author of the source & the individual(s) &/or society(ies) involved?
   i. You will need to determine for yourself what freedom means according to the source as freedom may never be defined outright. For example, freedom could mean the right to speak your mind (freedom of speech) or the freedom to determine your own government.

b. Why & how is freedom being threatened, lost, &/or debated?
   1. Include at least 2 quotes from the PS (make sure that you only quote from the actual primary source and not the secondary source summary that introduces the primary source).

Paragraph 2: Evidence—Current Events News Article
   o Find a current events news article (online or print) from the New York Times, CNN, Fox News, or Honolulu Star-Advertiser. Make sure that you find a news article that is relevant and appropriate (i.e., deals with the issue of freedom in some capacity). The article cannot be older than 1 month, and must deal with a current event (i.e., event needs to have taken place or be still taking place in 2015). Attach a copy of the article to your HCAP or the specific web address if an online source with full bibliographic information (article title, date, author, source).
   o Using your news article, complete the following tasks:
     1. Identify the individual(s) &/or society(ies) involved (who, what, where, when). In order to do this, you may have to do a little more research on your current events topic.
     2. Answer the following questions:
        a. According to what the news article reveals, what does freedom mean to the individual(s) &/or society(ies) involved?
           o You will need to determine for yourself what freedom means according to the source as freedom may never be defined outright. For example, freedom could mean the right to speak your mind (freedom of speech) or the freedom to determine your own government.
        b. Why & how is freedom being threatened, lost, &/or debated?

Paragraph 3: Analysis—Compare & Contrast PS and Current Events News Article
   o Using both the specified PS and your chosen news article, answer the following questions:
     1. How is the historical issue of freedom (from the specified PS) similar to the modern issue of freedom (from your chosen news article)? Find at least 1 similarity.
     2. How is the historical issue of freedom (from the specified PS) different from the modern issue of freedom (from your chosen news article)? Find at least 1 difference.
     3. What do you think accounts for the similarity(ies)?

Paragraph 4: Analysis—Synthesis
   o Take a stand on an argument to the specified question topic below by referencing the specified PS and your chosen news article:
     1. HCAP #1 Question: Is peace & stability worth the loss of certain freedoms? Why or why not?
     2. HCAP #2 Question: Is freedom ever worth going to jail for or dying for? Why or why not?
     3. HCAP #3 Question: Is one person’s freedom fighter another person’s terrorist? Why or why not?
