WINDWARD COMMUNITY COLLEGE MISSION STATEMENT

Windward Community College offers innovative programs in the arts and sciences and opportunities to gain knowledge and understanding of Hawai'i and its unique heritage. With a special commitment to support the access and educational needs of Native Hawaiians, we provide O'ahu's Ko'olau region and beyond with liberal arts, career and lifelong learning in a supportive and challenging environment — inspiring students to excellence.

CATALOG DESCRIPTION

Recommended but not required preparation: JPNS 101

Elementary-level conversational Japanese to develop speaking along with an understanding of Japanese culture. The course will focus on speaking and listening to Japanese language in practical, daily life situations. It is suitable for people who come into contact with Japanese-speaking people in the course of their daily activities but who have little or no knowledge of Japanese language.

Activities Required at Scheduled Times Other Than Class Times

There is lab work required that is scheduled at times other than in class.

Any Japanese word processing may need to be done at the computer lab if there is no at-home access to a computer.

STUDENT LEARNING OUTCOMES

The student learning outcomes for the course are:

On completing the course, students will be able to:

1. Communicate in basic Japanese in given situations
2. Use Japanese language appropriately at the elementary level in various social situations (e.g. formal and informal)
