WINDWARD COMMUNITY COLLEGE MISSION STATEMENT

Windward Community College offers innovative programs in the arts and sciences and opportunities to gain knowledge and understanding of Hawaiʻi and its unique heritage. With a special commitment to support the access and educational needs of Native Hawaiians, we provide O'ahu’s Koʻolau region and beyond with liberal arts, career and lifelong learning in a supportive and challenging environment — inspiring students to excellence.

CATALOG DESCRIPTION

A general study of the social, political and economic development of Hawaiʻi from the ancient Hawaiians to the present. (3 hours lecture) DH

STUDENT LEARNING OUTCOMES

The student learning outcomes for the course are:

1. Describe, analyze and interpret the major themes in history of Hawaiʻi from the pre-contact period to the present.
2. Critically analyze primary sources.
3. Identify important individuals and events in the history of Hawaiʻi.
4. Make connections between contemporary events and Hawaiʻi’s history.

WRITING INTENSIVE COURSE HALLMARKS

The student learning outcomes for the course are:

1. Writing promotes learning of course content.
2. Writing is considered to be a process in which multiple drafts are encouraged.
3. Writing contributes to each student’s course grade.
4. Students do a substantial amount of writing, a minimum of 4,000 words. Depending on the types of writing appropriate to the discipline, students may write critical essays or reviews, journal entries, lab reports, research reports or reaction papers.
5. To allow for meaningful teacher-student interaction on each student’s writing, the class is restricted to 20 students.
COURSE TASKS

TASK 1. Take two exams. There is no comprehensive final in this course. Exams will consist of fill-in-the-blank, multiple choice, and/or short answer/IDs. Both exams are worth 75 pts each.

TASK 2. Complete a Research Paper. Students will select a topic from a list, and write a 7 page paper. Formatting instructions will be provided. Drafts of this paper will be reviewed by fellow students, and the instructor. Students must see the instructor during office hours at least one time regarding the paper. This paper is worth 100 points. Additionally, there are three intermediate steps that are also graded: submission of research proposal, peer review of first draft, and instructor review of second draft. Each of these are worth 10 points each, for 30 points total. Additionally, students must have a conference with the instructor in person during office hours at least one time regarding the paper. Coordinate with the instructor via email or in class to schedule.

TASK 3. Complete 26 Discussion Worksheets. These assignments are designed to prepare you for class discussion as well as to help you to prepare for the exams. Each is worth 2 points (52 pts. total.) Each assignment must be handed in on the day for which it is assigned. Late submittals will not be accepted! You MUST attend the class, and be present for class discussion, for your assignment to be accepted for credit. There will be no chance to revise any of these discussion assignments.

TASK 4. Submit 15 Weekly Journals. Each Monday, you will submit a journal for the previous week. Your journal entries should reflect your thoughts on the readings, class discussions, and videos, in addition to any thoughts in general that you have for the subject material. Each weekly journal must be a minimum of one full page, and is worth 5 pts. (75 pts. total.)

TASK 5. Complete a Primary Document Analysis (PDA). This is a two-page writing assignment which analyzes a primary document that pertains to the history of Hawaii. The primary document is chosen by the student, with the approval of the instructor. It is worth 50 points.

TASK 6. Attend regularly, participate in in-class writing exercises and class discussions. This is the SUBJECTIVE component of the class, and is worth 18 points. (It should be the EASIEST 18 points of the class, but that is up to you!)

GRADING

COURSE EXPECTATIONS

1. Turn off your cell phones! No texting!

2. I EXPECT YOU TO TAKE YOUR EXAMS AT THE SCHEDULED TIME. If a serious emergency arises, I expect you, or a family member, to immediately email me (froning@hawaii.edu) or phone me (284-2640) before or on the day of the scheduled exam. If no answer, leave a message. Leave me a number to call you back. I will then immediately send a make-up exam to The Learning Center for you to take within 48 hours. No make-up exam will be scheduled without you contacting me in a timely manner.

3. I expect that you to come to class on time. If you are late, you may miss a quiz or class discussion of the worksheet for that day.

4. I always expect you to read your assignments before class begins and to always BRING THE APPLICABLE BOOK OR BOOKS TO EVERY CLASS SESSION. I expect you to complete the discussion worksheets BEFORE class begins and to let me know immediately if you are not prepared for class discussion before I put you with a discussion partner. I also expect you to discuss your answers with your fellow students and to listen respectfully to their answers.

5. I expect you to stay awake in class.

RECOMMENDATIONS THAT WILL HELP YOU IN THIS CLASS

1. Always take notes. Note taking helps you stay focused and keeps your mind from drifting. Take notes during the films/videos as well as lectures.

2. Ask me to repeat a point that you missed. Ask questions.

3. Sit up front. It is much less distracting and you can see the board & video clearly.

4. Drop in on me during my office hours. Help me get to know you as an individual. Ask for help. Phone me, or e-mail me, if you can't make it to my office.

5. Be ready to change the way you look at history!
