WRITING INTENSIVE HALLMARKS

This course is a Writing Intensive (WI) course. WI courses use writing as a means of learning. Hallmarks of WI courses include:

W1. The class uses writing to promote the learning of course materials.

Instructors assign formal and informal writing, both in class and out, to increase students' understanding of course material as well as to improve writing skills. Writing is considered a process in which multiple drafts are encouraged.

W2. The class provides interaction between the instructor and students while students do assigned writing.

In effect, the instructor acts as an expert and the student as an apprentice in a community of writers. Types of interaction will vary. For example, a professor who requires the completion of one long essay may review sections of the essay, write comments on drafts, and be available for conferences. The professor who requires several short papers may demonstrate techniques for drafting and revising in the classroom, give guidance during the composition of the papers, and consult with students after they complete their papers. Individual conferences are mandatory for WI courses at Windward CC.

W3. Written assignments contribute significantly to each student’s course grade.

Writing assignments must make up at least 40% of each student’s course grade. Only students who satisfactorily complete the writing assignments should be allowed to pass the course with a "D" or better.

W4. The class requires students to do a substantial amount of writing—a minimum of 4,000 words, or about 16 pages. The types of writing assigned will vary and may include formal and "informal" (writing that is not revised) writing. Depending on the course content, students may write analytic essays, critical reviews, journals, lab reports, research reports, reaction papers, etc. In-class exams and drafts are not counted toward the 4000-word minimum.
W5. To allow for meaningful professor-student interaction on each student’s writing, the class is restricted to 20 students.

TOTAL | 100 |

- All assignments are to be posted on time to laulima for grading.
- You will be required to use Google docs to share papers with peers and instructor.
- You are required to use Brainfuse feedback or a scanned copy of the writing center feedback sheet to be submitted with the final report. Brainfuse can be access only through the MyUH portal. To make an appointment with the writing center, go to MySuccess.
- To get feedback on drafts from the instructor, schedule a conference. This may be done via telephone, skype or face-to-face.
- Students are required to conference with the instructor (face-to-face or via telephone) twice during the semester. If the conference is via telephone or skype, be sure to have access to a computer and internet during that time.
- Read the assigned chapters from the textbook.
- Business writing requires different formatting in different kinds of documents. Please carefully follow the formatting tips provided in each chapter, and remember that all assignments must be typed. For a brief review of MLA style and formatting, please see the Appendix, pp. A13-A18.
- Do not submit any papers in pages software, as they cannot be read on UH computers and will not be given credit.
- Write discussion posts to the laulima weekly threads that respond to textbook readings, and contribute to online class discussions.
- Use Academic Search Premier database and WCC for scholarly research.
- Do other homework that may be noted in the weekly schedule.
- Check email and laulima frequently.
- Check-in (labeled thread) every Monday.
- Obtain an active hawaii.edu account and have access to both a computer and the Internet, which is a "must" for this class.

ONLINE ATTENDANCE

Students are not required to be online at a certain time for this course and have the flexibility to access the course at any time via laulima.hawaii.edu. However, all assignments must be completed by the due date and time specified. Computers are available for use at the Kaneohe Campus. Not having access to the Internet is not an excuse for missing assignments. Always have a back-up plan to be able to get online.
As with any credit course, you can expect to spend between 3-6 hours a week on this course. It is important that you plan to devote a regular block of time to this course each week. (I wouldn't recommend trying to squeeze this class in during the weekend.) Additionally, assignments are due often—sometimes you will have one or more assignments due every day during the week. Also, I will post announcements and send email quite often as well. So, plan on checking in daily Monday through Friday.

Attendance begins on day one of the semester. Attendance cannot be made-up. If you stop attending class and miss more than 20% of the class, you will fail the course. The last day of attendance will be recorded with the final grade.

Alternate Technology Access Plan:
In registering for a Distance Education course (Cable or Web) the student is responsible for finding immediate alternate access to a computer with Internet connectivity or cable television should that student experience technical difficulties. Technical difficulties can include but are not limited to problems with a student's computer hardware/software; inoperability of a student's VCR or DVR; or lack of service by a student's Internet Service Provider (ISP) or Cable Provider. Technical issues do not constitute the extension of an assignment, project, quiz or exam deadline unless agreed upon by the instructor.

An Alternate Technology Access Plan will be made by the student prior to the start of the semester and should be implemented immediately upon encountering technical difficulties. The student is required to continue course work as a result of having an alternate plan of access while independently resolving any technical issues with hardware/software, VCR/DVD, ISP, or Cable Provider.

DISCUSSION QUESTION REPLIES - 15 POINTS (15%) – 1/2 point per posting

In order to become great writers, practice is required. To that end, we will be employing the use of discussion board postings in this class. A minimum of two posts per week is required: one post should be your own reply to the weekly discussion question; one additional post should be a reply to your classmates' posts. There should be no concern for grammar, punctuation, paragraphs, etc., as the purpose of these entries is to provide you with practice writing and debating with your fellow classmates.

The most important part of an entry is the content. When you respond to another student’s posting, you must be respectful when responding. There is no tolerance for name-calling, degradation, or any other form of slander against another student. In other words, attack the issue or argument, not the person.

To earn full credit per week, each of your posts should be 100 or more words.
Each post is worth 1/2 point so you can earn one point each week by posting two substantial messages per week in the discussions thread for a total of 15 points.

NOTE: Posts can be made at any time. However, all weekly posts are due by midnight (HST) on the last day of each week (Sunday).
There are no required posts in the final week of class.
CLASS POLICIES

RESPECT IN THE VIRTUAL CLASSROOM

It is expected that you will demonstrate respect toward both the instructor and your fellow classmates. This is part of our shared responsibilities in a learning context. Given that cultural issues—such as ethnicity, race, gender, class, sexual identity, and relationship to land and place—can be controversial in ways that affect us personally, you must agree to put aside your differences for the duration of this class and demonstrate respect towards other people’s opinions. This respect is not merely “your” responsibility—as a member of the Windward Community College faculty, I have a responsibility to each of you to ensure that learning takes place in an intellectually safe and hostility-free environment. Put aside your differences and consider other people’s feelings in this class.

PLAGIARISM

Plagiarism includes but is not limited to submitting any document, to satisfy an academic requirement, that has been copied in whole or part from another individual’s work without identifying that individual; neglecting to identify as a quotation a documented idea that has not been assimilated into the student’s language and style, or paraphrasing a passage so closely that the reader is misled as to the source; submitting the same written or oral material in more than one course without obtaining authorization from the instructors involved; or dry-labbing, which includes (a) obtaining and using experimental data from other students without the express consent of the instructor, (b) utilizing experimental data and laboratory write-ups from other sections of the course or from previous terms during which the course was conducted, and (c) fabricating data to fit the expected results.

To check your papers for plagiarism, use an add-on in google docs. If plagiarism is suspected, the instructor will upload paper to a plagiarism checker. If you are caught plagiarizing in any manner, it may result in a zero on the assignment. A plagiarized assignment cannot be made-up. Plagiarism may also cause a student to fail the class. This infraction is reported to the Vice Chancellor of Student Affairs, who may choose to impose an expulsion from the class or university.

DEADLINES

- All assignments are submitted and accepted only via the assignments tool in laulima. EMAILED ASSIGNMENTS ARE NOT ACCEPTED FOR A GRADE.
- Assignments are due by 11:55 p.m. (HST) unless otherwise noted on the schedule.
- Late Papers do not receive full credit and are only accepted 48 hours after the due date. After that point, late papers will not receive credit. If for some reason you are unable to turn in an essay within the allowed time, you will receive a zero for that assignment. You may possibly receive partial credit for discussion forum/assignments that are posted less than 24 hours after the original due date.
- Requests for extensions must be made BEFORE the due date, and extensions are granted at the instructor’s discretion.
• It is your responsibility to learn about and follow the official procedure for dropping classes. If you stop participating in this class but do not follow up to officially drop it, you will receive a failing grade.
• An Incomplete for this course is only considered when less than 10% of all coursework is left to complete and only under extreme circumstances.
