WINDWARD COMMUNITY COLLEGE MISSION STATEMENT

Windward Community College offers innovative programs in the arts and sciences and opportunities to gain knowledge and understanding of Hawai‘i and its unique heritage. With a special commitment to support the access and educational needs of Native Hawaiians, we provide O‘ahu’s Ko‘olau region and beyond with liberal arts, career and lifelong learning in a supportive and challenging environment — inspiring students to excellence.

CATALOG DESCRIPTION

A composition course on the writing process including: description, narration, exposition, and argument. Course stresses unity, development, organization, coherence and other basic writing skills necessary for college writing. Prerequisite: “C” or better in ENG 23 or placement in ENG 100 or approval of designated Language Arts representative.

Activities Required:
Completion of Windward Community College’s Library Research Unit and approximately six hours per week of reading and writing. Please make daily checks with your hawaii.edu e-mail account because that is how I shall communicate with class members.

STUDENT LEARNING OUTCOMES

The student learning outcomes for the course are:

1. Write complex and well-reasoned compositions in language, style, and structure appropriate for a purpose and audience.
2. Engage in a writing process that includes exploring ideas, considering multiple points of view, developing and supporting a thesis, revising with the help of peer and instructor feedback, editing, and proofreading.
3. Find, evaluate, integrate, and properly document information from libraries, the internet, and other sources, with an eye for reliability, bias, and relevance.
4. Read for main points, perspective, and purpose, and analyze the effectiveness of a variety of rhetorical strategies, so that they may integrate that knowledge into their writing.

WRITTEN COMMUNICATION HALLMARKS

Additionally, this course will also:

1) Introduce students to different forms of college-level writing, including, but not limited to, academic discourse, and guide them in writing for different purposes and audiences.
2) Provide students with guided practice of writing processes--planning, drafting, critiquing, revising, and editing--making effective use of written and oral feedback from the faculty instructor and from peers.
3) Require at least 5000 words of finished prose--equivalent to approximately 20 typewritten/printed pages.
4) Help students develop information literacy by teaching search strategies, critical evaluation of information and sources, and effective selection of information for specific purposes and audiences; teach appropriate ways to incorporate such information, acknowledge sources and provide citations.
5) Help students read texts and make use of a variety of sources in expressing their own ideas, perspectives, and/or opinions in writing.

Students will also take and pass the Library Research Unit (LRU).
Students will also submit a weekly reading response to weekly readings.

Finally, students will submit a portfolio, together with a reflection paper, at the end of the course discussing how they have met the SLOs, and what they have learned about the writing process.

ONLINE ATTENDANCE

Students are not required to be online at a certain time for this course and have the flexibility to access the course at any time via laulima.hawaii.edu. However, all assignments must be completed by the due date and time specified. Computers are available for use at the Kaneohe Campus. Not having access to the Internet is not an excuse for missing assignments.

It is important that you plan to devote a regular block of time to this course each week (I do not recommend trying to squeeze this class in during the weekend.) Additionally, assignments are due often - sometimes you will have one or more assignments due every day during the week. I shall post announcements and send email quite often, so plan on checking in daily Monday through Friday.

Alternate Technology Access Plan:

In registering for a Distance Education course (Cable or Web) the student is responsible for finding immediate alternate access to a computer with Internet connectivity or cable television should that student experience any technical difficulties. Technical difficulties can include but are not limited to problems with a student's computer hardware/software; inoperability of a student's VCR or DVR; lack of service by a student's Internet Service Provider (ISP) or Cable Provider. Technical issues do not constitute the extension of an assignment, project, quiz, or exam deadline unless agreed upon by the instructor.

An Alternate Technology Access Plan will be made by the student prior to the start of the semester and should be implemented immediately upon encountering technical difficulties. The student is required to continue course work as a result of having an alternate plan of access while independently resolving any technical issues with hardware/software, VCR/DVD, ISP, or Cable Provider.

Library Research Unit:

All students are required to complete the Library Research Unit (LRU) for this course (ENG 100). You will need to pass three tests with a minimum score of 10/15 for each test.

You can access the online video tutorials here:

https://drive.google.com/a/hawaii.edu/file/d/0BWGnEgcGnQGNmM4Sm9Zdnh0QmM/view

https://drive.google.com/open?id=14FAQlNUxmfLIcElDMbsC3RFHc0bgLBwG1YwnI

Both videos explain how to access the tests. Given that the LRU explains how to do quality research, all students must complete the LRU by the time we begin the Research Paper Assignment (see Course Schedule).
DIRE WORDS OF WARNING
One main reason why students fail an online class is because they think the course will be easier than a face-to-face class. Online classes are not easier and, in many ways, are more difficult. Students are more likely to fail online classes than face-to-face classes, and online classes demand that students keep up with the coursework, interact with their fellow students, and contact their instructors any time they have a problem.

Additional Information

Course Policies
Drafts: Writing is a process, and all essays must go through several drafts. I do not grade drafts, but instead offer suggestions for revision. You are invited to email me a draft of your work at any time.

Revisions: There are no revisions for this course.

Statement of Academic Honesty: Plagiarism is especially seductive and easy in the era of the internet, but you can use relevant sources appropriately. In this class, you will learn how to use the ideas of others to develop arguments of your own and cite others’ words and ideas properly. Plagiarism is an academic offense and I take it very seriously. Any student engaged in any of the following activities will receive zero credit for the assignment and/or an f for the course.

The following are examples of the types of behavior that conflict with the community standards that the UH values and expects of students. Engaging in, or attempting to engage in any of these behaviors subjects a student to the disciplinary process and sanctions on each campus.

1. Acts of dishonesty, including but not limited to the following:
   a. Cheating, plagiarism, or other forms of academic dishonesty.
   b. Furnishing false information to any UH official, faculty member, or office.
   c. Forgery, alteration, or misuse of any UH document, record, or form of identification.

2. The term "cheating" includes, but is not limited to: (1) use of any unauthorized assistance in taking quizzes, tests, or examinations; (2) use of sources beyond those authorized by the instructor in writing papers, preparing reports, solving problems, or carrying out other assignments; (3) the acquisition, without permission, of tests or other academic material belonging to a member of the UH faculty, staff or student (4) engaging in any behavior specifically prohibited by a faculty member in the course syllabus or class discussion.

3. The term "plagiarism" includes, but is not limited to, the use, by paraphrase or direct quotation, of the published or unpublished work of another person without full and clear acknowledgement. It also includes the unacknowledged use of materials prepared by another person or agency engaged in the selling of term papers or other academic materials.

Plagiarism also includes neglecting to identify as a quotation a documented idea that has not been assimilated into the student’s language and style; paraphrasing a passage so closely that the reader is misled as to the source; submitting the same written or oral material in more than one course without obtaining authorization from the instructors involved; and ‘dry-labbing,’ which includes obtaining and using experimental data from other students without the expressed consent of the instructor, utilizing experimental data and laboratory write-ups from other sections of the course or from previous semesters, and fabricating data to fit the expected results.”
Please note: students found plagiarizing will be reported to the Vice Chancellor for Student Affairs.

Formatting: all assignments must be typed (double-spaced, Times New Roman, 12pt. font, 1 inch margins) and adhere to MLA style documentation format when appropriate. Please be sure to save your files as a .doc or .docx file.

English Proficiency and Writing Tutoring
Students are strongly discouraged from dropping ENG 100 because it is a prerequisite for numerous other courses within the UH system. If you are having problems, please speak with me. I am here to help you pass this course.
