Catalog Description:

A global and historical survey focusing on human societies and cross-cultural interactions since 1500 C.E. (3 hours lecture) WCC: FG

Instructor’s Note:

The world we live in today is more interconnected than ever before. Nonetheless, what we see today is merely the end result of a process that has been going on for thousands of years, namely, the movement and interaction of peoples and ideas across the globe. In this course we will trace the development of complex societies around the globe, starting from 15th century and ending in the present. In so doing we will focus on the ways in which people and ideas have been spreading around the globe, laying the foundation for the interconnected world in which we live today.

Note on Summer Session: READ!!!! IMPORTANT!!!!!!

Ask yourself if a summer session class is right for you. Since we only have 6 weeks to cover 500 years of history, this class will be highly accelerated. This means that you will be doing a great deal of reading and writing each week. If you are worried that you will not be able to read 2-3 chapters per week, various supplemental readings from articles throughout the semester, AND complete AT LEAST 3-5 PAGES of writing per week, THEN PLEASE DROP THE CLASS.
IF YOU ARE UP TO THE CHALLENGE, THEN PROCEED. BUT BEWARE! THIS CLASS WILL BE TOUGH!!!

Foundation Requirements and Hallmarks

HIST 152 fulfills 3 credits in Group B of the General Education requirement (Foundations: Global and Multicultural Perspectives) for both and A.A. degree at WCC and a Bachelor’s degree at UH Manoa. Consequently, it meets the following hallmarks of global and multicultural perspectives:

1. Provide students with a large-scale analysis of human development and change over time.
2. Analyze the development of human societies and their cultural traditions through time in different regions (including Africa, the Americas, Asia, Europe, and Oceania.)
3. Offer a broad, integrated analysis of cultural, economic, political, scientific, and/or social development that recognizes the diversity of human societies and their cultural traditions.
4. Examine processes of cross-cultural interaction and exchange that have linked the world’s peoples through time while recognizing diversity.
5. Include at least one component on Hawaiian, Pacific, or Asian societies and their cultural traditions
6. Engage students in the study and analysis of writings, narratives, texts, artifacts, and/or practices that represent the perspectives of different societies and cultural traditions

Student Learning Outcomes

The student learning outcomes for the course are:

1. Identify important individuals, places, organizations and concepts in modern world history.
2. Arrange, in chronological order, significant events in world history.
3. Describe and analyze global processes from 1500 C.E. to the present (e.g. human migration, ecological forces, imperialism, decolonization, industrialism, nationalism, globalization.)
4. Explain cause and effect relationships in history.
5. Compare and contrast historical experiences across cultures and time.
6. Relate historical events to contemporary issues and events.
Method of Instruction: Online

Ask yourself if online is the right method of instruction for you. If you are very independent, organized, focused, and tech-savvy, you should do fine in an online course. On the other hand, if these traits do not describe you, please seriously consider taking a traditional (face-to-face (F2F)) class.

* This course will expect that you are able to independently read, comprehend the “facts” on your own, complete the assignments, and navigate through Laulima with little guidance.

* Keeping on track is a must in this class. Always refer to the Class Schedule that is included in this syllabus. Remember that this is a summer class. You are about to learn the material at a VERY ACCELERATED rate. This means that EVERY WEEK you will be expected to read 2-3 chapters in the textbook, any additional readings in the form of books or articles, and complete the corresponding assignments as scheduled in the class schedule. If this sounds overwhelming (and to many it will!), then please drop the class and take the class during the regular semester.

* Check ANNOUNCEMENTS on the Main Page in Laulima for any announcements pertaining to our class. I will usually post the announcement for the week and the discussion board assignments by Monday evening, so Monday evening or Tuesday morning is usually a good time to check the Laulima’s homepage. Furthermore, you should check your UH email account frequently (you are required to use your UH email account, however you can have your UH email forwarded to any email that is more convenient.

* Make sure you adhere to the completion dates as NO LATE WORK WILL BE ACCEPTED. The reason one takes an online class is for its flexibility, but I also think that keeping you to some sort of weekly schedule is the best way to ensure that you keep up with the overwhelming amount of material. And since this is also an online class with mainly written work, I TRUST that when you do your assignments, you are doing all of the work yourself and utilizing only the class resources (i.e., textbook, handouts, books, previous assignments, etc.) that you have. I do not tolerate any form of plagiarism, and punishment for any nefarious activity will be swift and brutal.

Reading Handouts: (To be provided by instructor on Laulima throughout course)
Course Requirements:

The class will be centered around the following course tasks, that serve as both learning and assessment tools, for the purpose of measuring your learning and your ability to meet the course SLOs.

* Weekly Discussion Board posts. Each week I will post various Discussion Board topics on the Discussion Board tab on Laulima. You are required to comment on ALL Discussion Board posts (2 per week) throughout the semester. You will be rewarded with 10 points for each post (120 points possible). Posts should be around 250 words. Remember, this is the only way we can communicate with each other as a class for the next six weeks, so help each other make this stale medium of an online discussion board a vibrant place of meaningful discussion and debate!

There will also be extra credit Discussion Board posts each week, so be sure to go the extra mile to ensure your perfect score in History 152!!!

* Complete 12 reading (textbook and required) assignments. By the end of each week you will complete 2 Reading Assignments (of your choice unless labeled “required”) based on various readings throughout the week. These assignments will consist of 4-6 questions based on the textbook/supplemental readings as designated in the Class Schedule found in this syllabus. You are required to complete two assignments each week, but the choice of which assignments to complete is actually up to you (unless it is labeled as REQUIRED). For example, week one will have one required assignment all students have to complete, entitled The Fortunate Isles Assignment. But there are also two other assignments (Assignment 1 and Assignment 2 based on chapter 22 and 23 in the Bentley and Ziegler Traditions and Encounters textbook) available for week one. Since you need two assignments each week and are required to complete the Fortunate Isles assignment, you only need to complete one of the textbook assignments (either Assignment 1 or Assignment 2) for week one. As long as you are completing the required assignment (There are only a few required assignments in the semester), you can choose which textbook assignment to complete. List of readings, assignments, and due dates are located in the course schedule found at the end of this syllabus.

The assignments can be found by selecting the “Resources” icon on our class Laulima site and clicking on the folder that says “Assignments.” Each week’s assignments are to be turned in through Laulima’s Dropbox (as an attachment) by 11:59 pm (Hawaii Standard Time) on the Sunday of each week (i.e., Week One’s (May 22-28) assignments will be due by 11:59, Sunday, May 28). All assignments will be posted by the first day of class, so feel free to complete assignments early if at all possible. (Don’t wait until Sunday to start, you won’t be able to finish!!!) Each assignment is worth 20 points, for a total of 240 points for the entire semester.
* Complete a midterm and final examination. These examinations are to be taken in the testing center at Windward Community College (or at your nearest local college if you are not on Oahu) by the specified date found in your syllabus. The exams consist of three parts, a matching section worth 30 points, a short identification section worth 20 points, and an essay section worth 50 points, for a total of 100 points for each examination. I will supply you with a study guide for each exam, but it is up to you to prepare for success!

Grading:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Assignments/Points</th>
<th>Total</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>12 Reading Assignments (2 per week, 20 pts each)</td>
<td>240</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>12 Discussion Board Posts (10 pts each)</td>
<td>120</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>2 Examinations (Midterm and Final, 100 pts each)</td>
<td>200</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Total Points possible: 560

Grade Scale:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Points</th>
<th>Grade</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>504-560</td>
<td>A</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>448-503</td>
<td>B</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>392-447</td>
<td>C</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>336-391</td>
<td>D</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>0-335</td>
<td>F</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Think of it this way. As of the first day of the class, you have a total of 460 points, a perfect A. If you lose 46 points, you will drop a letter grade. So my best advice is to keep up with all of the readings and stay ahead of the final deadline just in case of an emergency. REMEMBER: THERE IS NO PENALTY FOR COMPLETING THE WORK EARLY!!!

Finally, be aware that CHEATING and PLAGIARISM are considered ACADEMIC FRAUD under the Student Code of Conduct. Ignorance of what constitutes plagiarism is no excuse. Any student caught cheating or plagiarizing will receive a failing grade for this course.

INCOMPLETES are not granted for this course.

Statement on Student Responsibilities

In instructional activities, students are responsible for meeting all of the instructor's attendance and assignment requirements. Failure to do so may affect their final grade. In all college-related activities, including instruction, they must abide by the college's codes and regulations, refraining from behavior that interferes with the rights and safety of others in the learning environment. Finally, if they decide to file a grievance, they are fully responsible for providing proof that they have been wronged.

ADVICE?

Learn to admit when you don’t know something (I do so every day!), and NEVER be afraid to ask questions. Remember: there are no stupid questions! The best three word phrase to utilize this semester is simple: “I don’t know.” Be brave enough to admit that and you will go far in this class, and in life!

Socrates: […] οὖτος μὲν οἴεταί τι εἰδέναι οὐκ εἰδώς, ἐγώ δέ, ὥσπερ οὖν οὐκ οἴδα, οὐδὲ οἶμαι

– This man, on one hand, believes that he knows something, while not knowing [anything]. On the other hand, I – equally ignorant – do not believe [that I know anything].

Which person would you rather be? The one who pretends to know everything? Or the one brave enough to admit that they do not?

CONSULT instructor if you need help, advice, encouragement, or have questions about the course. Feel free to email me with any and all questions. Since we will never meet face to face, written communication is vital to your success.
