Windward Community College offers innovative programs in the arts and sciences and opportunities to gain knowledge and understanding of Hawai'i and its unique heritage. With a special commitment to support the access and educational needs of Native Hawaiians, we provide O'ahu's Ko'olau region and beyond with liberal arts, career and lifelong learning in a supportive and challenging environment — inspiring students to excellence.

CATALOG DESCRIPTION

An introduction to Hawai'i and Hawaiian culture in the context of the larger Pacific, including Hawaiian origins, language, land, history, society, religion, and the arts.

Activities Required at Scheduled Times Other Than Class Time: Some.

STUDENT LEARNING OUTCOMES

Throughout the semester we will contemplate our own kuleana as students, teachers, and people, who call Hawai'i home and what that means. Upon successful completion of HWST 107, nā haumāna should be able to reach the following learning outcomes for the course:

1. Compare and contrast cultures and histories of the Pacific island peoples in relation to their languages, religious traditions, artistic expressions, material culture, and political and economic development.
2. Identify ways in which the environment has shaped Hawaiian and Pacific island culture.

3. Describe the integration of land in Hawaiian cultures and the historic changes in the relationship between people and land through written and oral communication.
4. Describe aspects of Hawaiian relationship with other groups of people in and outside of Hawai‘i. Identify implications of the relationships and develop proposals for possible ways to affect positive change.
5. Identify, access, and evaluate major Hawaiian studies sources.

COURSE TASKS AND REQUIREMENTS

1. Exams: There will be three non-cumulative exams.
2. Assigned readings:
 - There will be weekly assigned readings which will be posted on the HWST 107 Laulima site. These readings may be supplemented with additional handouts, films, lectures, and guest speakers.
 - Group presentations on assigned readings per unit.
3. Mālama ‘Āina/Aloha ‘Āina: class will participate in Aloha ‘Āina and Mālama ‘Āina projects as assigned by the instructor.
4. Creative Expression Project: a creative piece inspired by any of the course curriculum, lectures, readings, films, and lectures. It can be created using any form of creative media including paint, sculpting, drawing, music, poetry, film, or a combination of different media. The final project will include the piece and a short description of what it is and what your inspiration was.
5. Extra-credit: There will be two opportunities for extra credit, which will require attendance at a pre-approved event relating to the topic of Hawaiian studies and a reaction paper on that event to be turned in within two weeks of that event. (Extra-credit is worth 10 points each)

GRADING STRUCTURES

- Three exams, each worth 100 points for a total of 300.
- Group Presentations 50 points.
- Mālama ‘Āina/Aloha ‘Āina, 100 points.
- The creative project is worth 50 points.

GRADES

Final grades will be based on the accumulated total points as indicated below. If you incur unexcused absences, those points (5 pts. for each unexcused absence) will be deducted from your total accumulated points at the end of the semester toward your final grade.

A = 500-450

B = 449-399
C = 398-348
D = 347-297
F = 297 AND BELOW

COURSE EXPECTATIONS:

Attendance: Attendance is mandatory and will be recorded daily. Each unexcused absence will incur a 3-point penalty that will be subtracted from the total points accumulated at the end of the semester.

You are expected to arrive to class on time, to be present for the entire length of the class, and not leave early unless arranged for with the instructor.

There will be times when the instructor may have to travel. In these situations, instructions will be provided for you during the time the instructor will be gone.

Make up tests will only be allowed if student contacts instructor before the test with a valid reason for missing test.

Respect the class as a learning environment by:

- Positive engagement in class activity.
- Use of appropriate language.
- Be attentive to the mode of the class. Sometimes we will be in large group discussion, small group discussion, and individual work. Know the difference between each.
- In large group discussions, there should be one person talking at a time.
- Keep focus on learning and don't impede other's ability to focus on learning

LEARNING RESOURCES: Course readings will be available on Lulima. Any additional resources will be provided by the instructor.
