"Being part of a cohort gave us the extra help we needed to pass our classes."

"By participating in the Hūlili program, we are able to learn more about our Native Hawaiian culture."

"Cohorts give students the opportunity to build lasting relationships and help them feel connected."

"Hūlili: your bridge to academic and transfer success..."
Hūlili is a federally-funded collaborative program between Windward Community College (WCC) and the University of Hawaii at Mānoa (UHM) to improve the transfer and success of Native Hawaiian students.

Who is Hūlili for?
Hūlili is geared towards recent high school graduates who want to earn an Associate of Arts degree at WCC with the intent to transfer to UHM.

Eligibility Requirements
• A recent graduate of Castle, Hakipuʻu Learning Center, Kahuku, Kailua, or Kalaheo High School (consideration may be given to other high schools).
• COMPASS placement into ENG 22.
• Be enrolled full-time (12-15 credits as a classified undergraduate student).
• Must commit to completing an Associate of Arts degree at WCC.
