Debate Workshops

Thursday, September 14
5:30 – 7:30 p.m.

Hale A'o, Rooms 101/102

One evening, three amazing workshops. FREE and open to everyone!

Workshop #1

"Verbal & Nonverbal Communication Tips"

LUCILLE GILBERT, Leeward and Windward Community College

This workshop will focus on learning to convey confidence, win over audiences, and memorizing information with simple verbal and nonverbal communication tips.

Workshop #2

"On That Point!"

STERLING HIGA,
PhD in Education candidate

This workshop will focus on the theory and practice of giving and taking points of information in a debate.

For more information, contact
Audrey Mendoza Badua at amendoza@hawaii.edu

Workshop #3

"Rebuttals: A Crash Course in Always Being Right"

CHRIS GILBERT,
Leeward Community College

A debater has just given you an argument—and you agree with it. How can you argue against a point that's true? As a debater, learn how to rebut arguments even if you can't disprove them. As a citizen, learn how to spot rhetorical tactics that might trick lay audiences.
