David Haymer, Ph.D.

The Innocence Project is a non-profit legal organization aimed to exonerate the wrongfully convicted through the use of new DNA-based methods. DNA evidence is now commonly introduced in criminal investigations by both prosecuting and defense attorneys.

David Haymer obtained his PhD degree from Purdue University. Currently, he is a Professor of Cell and Molecular Biology at the University of Hawaii John A. Burns School of Medicine. He is the DNA consultant of the Hawaii chapter of the Innocence Project. He has over 25 years of experience with DNA analysis.
