Aloha Food Vendor:

The Windward Ho‘olaule‘a Steering Committee would like to invite you to participate in our annual community celebration on Saturday, September 22, 2007, from 9:00 a.m. to 9:00 p.m. The food booths will line the Great Lawn of Windward Community College for a fun-filled day for the entire family.

The purpose of this event is to showcase people, community groups and businesses from Waimanalo to Kahuku-Laie as well as educational opportunities at the college. The event is expected to draw more than 20,000 people for a fun-filled, educational day for the entire family.

The Windward Ho‘olaule‘a is a grassroots, non-profit effort coordinated by Windward Community College and the Kaneohe Business Group with participation from volunteers, students, businesses, and organizations. Our entertainment stage will showcase top-name entertainers, and under the big tents, we will have island crafters, ono ethnic food, and community booths.

Any proceeds will go to the college’s Advancement and Scholarship funds.

The price of a 10’ x 20’ space is $400 if reserved by August 15, 2007. However, to secure your spot, we encourage you to apply as soon as possible. We are asking that you provide your own tents, equipment, and lighting, but generators and electrical outlets will be provided. Ample parking will be available.

For your convenience in reserving a space for the 2007 Windward Ho‘olaule‘a, please complete the enclosed Food Vendor Application and Food Vendor Agreement.
