- This is an alcohol-free event.
- On a first-to-sign-up basis, vendors will be chosen by the type of product(s) sold. This is to limit duplication. Your merchandise will be screened by the Windward Ho’olaule’a Committee. You will be sent a confirmation letter once you are accepted.
- You are responsible for damages to your assigned work area at set-up, during the event, and at time of take down.
- The refundable deposit check for cleaning and damages will not be cashed. It will be returned to you within 14 days after the event providing there is no evidence of damage to your work area.
- Children, age 10 and under, are not allowed in the booth area for liability reasons.
- Windward Community College student body organizations will vend products during the event. Monies raised will go toward furthering specific curricular activities on campus (i.e., Hawaiian Education, books and materials for the library, etc.)

We are seeking craft donations for our Silent Auction to benefit WCC students. If you are interested, check here
