CATALOG DESCRIPTION

An introduction to Hawai'i and Hawaiian culture in the context of the larger Pacific, including Hawaiian origins, settlement, language, land, history, society, religion and the arts. Online course weeks of instruction run from Wednesday to Wednesday.

STUDENT LEARNING OUTCOMES

The student learning outcomes for the course include:

1. Compare and contrast cultures and histories of Pacific island peoples in relation to their languages, religious traditions, artistic expressions, material culture, and political and economic development.
2. Identify ways in which the environment has shaped Hawaiian and Pacific island culture.
3. Describe the integration of land in Hawaiian culture and the historic changes in the relationship between people and land through written and oral communication.
4. Describe aspects of Hawaiian relationship with other groups of people in and outside of Hawai'i. Identify implications of the relationships and develop proposals for possible ways to affect positive change.
5. Identify, access, and evaluate major Hawaiian studies sources.

COURSE TASKS AND ASSIGNMENTS

1. Assigned readings and Videos

-There will be weekly reading assignments, which will come from two history textbooks and various articles. One of the history books is a required purchase for this class ($35.00 + $5.00 shipping and handling) while the other textbook and articles will be provided via Laulima (no cost). To supplement the assigned readings there are a number of assigned videos that will further broaden our comprehension of the theme of a particular week. These videos are located in the “Resources” link.

Successful completion of this course is contingent upon thorough examination of all assigned readings.

2. Mastery examinations.

-There will be one mid-term examination and one final examination.

3. Online Discussion/Participation

- Since this is an online course, participation is required. Students must participate by posting their comments on the discussion board each week. Students will be prompted to answer a question I will pose at the beginning of the week and will have until the end of the week to post. Our weeks are from Wednesday to Wednesday. Students are also encouraged to respond to postings by your classmates that will promote discussion. Because there may be multiple readings or videos to watch in a given week, students should post comments that reflect a thorough comprehension of all the assigned literature and media for that week. In other words, when posting comments, please attempt to connect all literature and media assigned for that given week to the theme of that week.
