5. Final Reflections (Form of Portfolio): Final reflections presented as a portfolio taken you is your weekly journals (see above) about the topics presented in class will account for 20% of your grade. (200 points)
6. Cooperative/Collaborative: Some activities will only require participation in group activities in class, but most will require preparation outside of class and sharing the work product or information in class group discussion. It is important to plan ahead to make certain you complete the work required to be done outside of class so you are ready to share with the class at the time the topic is discussed. Because activities are planned in-class group learning opportunities, there are no MAKEUP opportunities for these activities.

Each student is viewed as a Learner/Peer Teacher. Your shared observations, knowledge, skills, questions, and responsive listening are valued and contribute to a positive learning environment. Consequently, it is important that students participate and contribute to the interactive learning environment.
7. Attitude: Have fun learning: this is important as learning IS fun.
8. Supplemental Instruction: Ashley-Michelle Tilton (amtilton@hawaii.edu)
A Supplemental Instructor is available to meet with students in Psychology 100 sections (Palacat) to offer additional assistance with questions on course content, preparing for assignments, exams, etc.

*Please note that this syllabus is subject to change and we will let you know about changes in class and through announcements posted on the class home page on Lulima.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

Student Responsibilities

- The student is expected to attend and actively participate in all course lectures and activities, and complete assignments on time.
- The student is expected to be prepared in advance of class sessions (i.e. having read text materials, bringing required work materials to class).
- The student is responsible to be aware of announced changes in the course schedule, including examination dates and assignment deadlines. Student should actively access their MyUH Email account and the Lualima Interactive site.
- It is the students' responsibility to be informed about deadlines critical to making registration changes (e.g. last day of erase period and last day for making an official withdrawal).
- The student is responsible for managing their time appropriately. College courses require much more reading, writing and studying than high school. Students can expect to spend 10 hours per week (in class as well as study and preparation time) on every class they take.

Disabilities Accommodation Statement

If you have a physical, sensory, health, cognitive, or mental health disability that could limit your ability to fully participate in this class, you are encouraged to contact the Ann Lemke, the Disability Specialist Counselor to discuss reasonable accommodations that will help you succeed in this class. Ann can be reached at 235-7448, lemke@hawaii.edu, or you may stop by Hale 'Akoakoa 213 for more information.

University Statement on Non-Discrimination

The University of Hawai'i Executive Policy E1.202 declares and reaffirms its commitment to the University's equal education and employment opportunity policy. The University is committed to a policy of nondiscrimination on the basis of race, sex, age, religion, color, national origin, ancestry, handicap, marital status, arrest and court record, sexual orientation, gender identity, and veteran status. This policy covers admission and access to, and participation, treatment, and employment in the University's programs and activities." If you feel that you are being discriminated against contact the WCC Vice Chancellor for Student's Office at 235-7466 or the UH Equal Employment Opportunity and Affirmative Action Office at 956-7077.
