Windward Community College Mission Statement

Windward Community College is committed to excellence in the liberal arts and career development; we support and challenge individuals to develop skills, fulfill their potential, enrich their lives, and become contributing, culturally aware members of our community.

CATALOG DESCRIPTION: Focus on American politics and government on the basis of tradition and continuity. Covers: overview of constitutional development, institutions, processes and participants of the American political system and alternative interpretations.

REQUIRED ACTIVITIES: Students may be asked to attend on and off-campus events; participate in relevant and appropriate educational activities outside of regularly scheduled class time such as service learning opportunities, internships, volunteer activities at non-profit community service agencies and organizations, etc.

STUDENT LEARNING OUTCOMES: The student learning outcomes for the course are:

1. Demonstrate knowledge of basic terms, concepts, and principles of politics.
2. Demonstrate ability to analyze political processes, institutions, and issues.
3. Apply basic terms, concepts, and principles to everyday life.
4. Enhance understanding, appreciation, and effectiveness in political participation..

COURSE TASKS:

1. Attendance is required. Unexcused absences will result in grade reduction.
2. Register to vote. For those who prefer not to register, an alternate activity is available. (100 points)
3. Complete “in-class” writing exercises and homework assignments. (400 points)
4. Complete three (3) take-home quizzes. (300 points)
5. Complete course project. (200 points)

6. OPTIONAL: Students may participate in a Service Learning Project. Consult with the instructor to develop an appropriate learning agreement and S/L site. Minimal requirements include: 20 hours of unpaid service at a non-profit agency. Paid positions and work at for-profit businesses do not qualify for a Service Learning option. Students will maintain a journal and submit a final summary of their experiences, observations and recommendations to enhance service learning at their chosen agency and site
