WINDWARD COMMUNITY COLLEGE MISSION STATEMENT

Windward Community College offers innovative programs in the arts and sciences and opportunities to gain knowledge and understanding of Hawai'i and its unique heritage. With a special commitment to support the access and educational needs of Native Hawaiians, we provide O'ahu's Ko'olau region and beyond with liberal arts, career and lifelong learning in a supportive and challenging environment — inspiring students to excellence.

CATALOG DESCRIPTION

Intro to Drama: An introduction to the art of drama and theatre. Students study selected plays that are representative of important playwrights and historical periods. These plays are studied in their historical context and provide a basis for understanding elements and styles of drama. Theatre production will also be explored by considering the functions of actors, audiences, designers, playwrights and technicians. May be repeated up to 6 credits. WCC: DA

Required Activities: Students must see two plays and write about them.

STUDENT LEARNING OUTCOMES

Students will:

1. Discuss the origin and development of the theatre from its beginnings to the present;
2. Discuss the theatre's influence and importance in human culture;
3. Compare and contrast plays and theatre practices from different time periods and cultures;
4. Analyze the artistic choices and techniques used to transform a written dramatic script into a performed work presented to an audience.

COURSE POLICIES

In General:

This class is an introduction to the time honored art of theatre, its origins around the world, and the development of plays and productions from antiquity to our present day.

Taurie's Incredibly Draconian and Downright Cruel Attendance/Punctuality Policy:

There is only one way you can do badly in this class – fail to show up. If you don't come to class you aren't just letting yourself down you are letting your classmates down too.

You will be allowed TWO “free” absences if you are sick or overwhelmed by the tide of life. No additional absences will be excused for ANY REASON. Every further absence after your TWO “free” absences will deduct 10 points from your final grade (effectively dropping you an entire letter grade from A to B, or B to C). SO DON'T WASTE YOUR TWO FREE ABSENCES – YOU MIGHT NEED THEM. If you do miss a class it is your responsibility to find out what was covered on the day you missed.

You get one free tardy as long as you arrive in the first ten minutes of class – if you are later than 10 minutes you are officially absent, though the instructor may allow you to take part in class if they life (up to the instructor – they may ask you to leave). The next time you are late (even if it is just 1 minute late) you will be marked absent.

The Show Must Go On – PERFORMANCE DISCIPLINE:

In the professional theatre world there is only one excuse for missing a performance – death, and even then you must give two weeks notice. IF YOU MISS AN ASSIGNMENT DAY YOU WILL NOT BE GIVEN AN OPPORTUNITY TO MAKE IT UP. Learning to show up for things in life is one of the most important life skills you shall acquire at college.

Helpful Resources:

I encourage you to ask me questions about the class and to ask for clarification at any time. Please ask for help even though you are not sure you need it.

One of the best resources on campus is the TRiO Student Support Services (SSS) office, which provides tutoring and a range of other opportunities to eligible students. The contact number for TRiO SSS is 235-7487.

The Writing Center, located in the WCC Library and Learning Commons, provides in-person consultations during school hours and email feedback as needed. Contact writing center staff by email at wccwrite@hawaii.edu. The center's current hours are posted at <http://www.wcc.hawaii.edu/Writing/>

Classroom Etiquette:

Our classroom space is sacred. We will create and bring about wonders here. To that end, you must leave your other worries and life preoccupations at the door. Do not bring them in this place of play, freedom and creation. Smartphones and the constant invasion of the virtual world upon all aspects of our life are my nemesis and most hated foe.

- Our class will be a cellphone-free zone – you will turn off your cellphones and put them with your belongings in a cubby hole as you arrive and take them only when class is concluded. Fear not. I promise your texts and facebook notifications will be waiting for you one hour and fifteen minutes later.

- Constantly leaving class for bathroom breaks is not acceptable. Please kindly use the restroom before or after class!
- Respect one another at all times. Any disrespect of your classmates will be wholly intolerated and result in your ejection from class for the day (which will then count as an absence, effecting your grade). The work we do is collaborative, if any of us feel uncomfortable; none of us can achieve excellence.

Texting and communication:

Communicating with students is my top priority. To that end, please text if you need to reach me urgently. Texting is the best way to reach me and my preferred method of communication. If you text me, it will take me up to two hours to respond—usually, though, I can respond instantly. Emails and calls are great too! However, due to working non-stop on theatre 7 days a week, emails and calls can take up to 36 hours for a response. If you do email, please try and use your school account!

Please check your hawaii.edu account on a regular basis. I will send email announcements to that account only. Instructions on forwarding your hawaii.edu account are here:
http://windward.hawaii.edu/technology/Forwarding_UH_GMail.pdf.

Please write grammatically correct emails, using complete words and full sentences (no shorthand, such as “where r u now”). Start with a greeting (Aloha Bob, Dear Mr. Smith, or Hi Lance), and end with a signature (Thank you, Sincerely, or just your name). Get in the habit of writing professionally. This will benefit you greatly in life.

DISABILITIES ACCOMMODATION STATEMENT

If you have a physical, sensory, health, cognitive, or mental health disability that could limit your ability to fully participate in this class, you are encouraged to contact the Disability Specialist Counselor to discuss reasonable accommodations that will help you succeed in this class. Ann Lemke can be reached at 235-7448, lemke@hawaii.edu, or you may stop by Hale ‘Ākoakoa 213 for more information.

(Art must) “Axe the frozen sea within us” -Kafka

“If you are not going forwards, you are going backwards”
-Stanislavsky

“There is no maxim, wisdom, joy, tragedy not found in theatre” “Theatre should instruct, inspire, entertain” “Abbinya – ‘to carry/performance’- performance is carrying meaning to the audience” –Natyasastra 11:16 and 30:31

“The opposite of courage is seeing the right thing and not doing it”
-Socrates (and Confucius)

“Theatre is a form of knowledge; it should and can also be a means of transforming society. Theatre can help us build our future, rather than just waiting for it.”
- Augusto Boal

WHY STUDY THEATRE?

Theatre is FUN!

Theatre is the only truly social art form: everyone needs to be working their hardest for the best possible show!

Theatre is the only art form which encompasses ALL art forms: visual art (costume design), poetry and literature, dance and movement, architecture, music, and even film!

Theatre relates to virtually every single academic discipline: from psychology to history, from communication and speech to philosophy and religion!

The learning NEVER stops! With each new project you learn something new! Perhaps you begin working on a play about a physicist? You get to learn about physics for the show!

Theatre teaches you discipline and professionalism: you must attend each class or rehearsal—not for the sake of yourself but for the sake of your classmates and fellow actors!

Theatre encourages team-work and ensemble skills: great theatre cannot exist without every single person involved contributing a positive spirit and supporting each other!

Theatre teaches you life skills: interacting successfully in a group and working with others, listening, imagination, confidence, public speaking skills, memory and more!

Gain an appreciation for the discipline involved in creativity, what it means to work on a team, theatrical perspectives, the art of the actor.

Theatre is about understanding and accepting rather than judging.

Theatre is about faith and trust in the team, the people you work with, the show, and your community.

Theatre is quality over quantity: millions of people may see a film and forget it the next week; in theatre, the connection you make with each audience, each night, is often unforgettable.
