Windward Community College Mission Statement

Windward Community College offers innovative programs in the arts and sciences and opportunities to gain knowledge and understanding of Hawai'i and its unique heritage. With a special commitment to support the access and educational needs of Native Hawaiians, we provide the Ko'olau region of O'ahu and beyond with liberal arts, career and lifelong learning in a supportive and challenging environment — inspiring students to excellence.

Course Description

Continuation of HAW 102 with emphasis on increasing proficiency in use of major sentence patterns in reading, writing, conversation, and translation. (4 hours lecture)

Prerequisite: Credit for HAW 102 or consent of instructor.

This course is designed to help you conceptualize and develop your communication skills in Hawaiian as well as discuss and learn best practices to better your understanding and experience of learning in Hawaiian.

Homework will be given daily and you should review your class work daily. This should take you no longer than an hour.

In order to succeed in this course you will have to attend class regularly, having finished your homework prior to class, and be prepared to use your language skills daily.

Student Learning Outcomes:

As a result of taking this course, students can expect to attain the following outcomes:

1. Demonstrate the ability to comprehend and respond to sentence structures or greater length and complexity on a variety of topics.
2. Demonstrate the ability to comprehend, speak, read and write at the intermediate level with a working vocabulary of some 1,500 words, plus idiomatic expressions.
3. Write original expositions and communicate on a variety of topics within the student's experience.
