Windward Community College Mission Statement

Windward Community College is committed to excellence in the liberal arts and career development; we support and challenge individuals to develop skills, fulfill their potential, enrich their lives, and become contributing, culturally aware members of our community.

Course Description

An elementary course in the Hawaiian language which focuses on rules of grammar, pattern drills, the building of an adequate vocabulary to facilitate conversation, and reading of selected materials at an elementary level.

This course is designed to help you conceptualize and develop your communication skills in Hawaiian as well as discuss and learn best practices to better your understanding and experience of learning in Hawaiian.

Homework will be given daily and you should review your class work daily. This should take you no longer than an hour.

In order to succeed in this course you will have to attend class regularly, having finished your homework prior to class, and be prepared to use your language skills daily.

Student Learning Outcomes:

Upon completion of the course, the student will be able to:

- Recognize and reproduce the correct pronunciation of consonants, semivowels, vowels, diphthongs, words and names in Hawaiian.
- Demonstrate the ability to comprehend and respond to basic directions, requests, questions and answers.
- Demonstrate the ability to generate basic phrases and sentences for everyday situations with a vocabulary of 400-500 Hawaiian words, plus idiomatic expressions.
- Demonstrate the ability to read and write Hawaiian sentences at an elementary level on subject matter covered in class.
- Speak Hawaiian with the proper inflection, intonation, and rhythm.

Required Reading

- Hawaiian Dictionary by Samuel Elbert and Mary Kawena Pukui
- Ka Lei Ha'aheo: Beginning Hawaiian by Alberta Pualani Hopkins. University of Hawaii Press, 1992.

Class Conduct

Computers, iPads, iPods, iPhones, cell phones and other similar electronic devices are not to be used during class time. If you are late please sit near the entrance if possible so as not to disturb the rest of the class. Please refrain from unnecessary chatter, and unless there is a class party or you are planning to feed the entire class, there will be no eating in class. Special accommodations will be made for special circumstances.

E-café

eCafe evaluations are valued by Windward Community College. Students are strongly encouraged to complete eCafe evaluations for classes. Please note that student responses are anonymous and are not made available to instructors until after grades are posted.

Disabilities Accommodation Statement

If you have a physical, sensory, health, cognitive, or mental health disability that could limit your ability to fully participate in this class, you are encouraged to contact the Disability Specialist Counselor to discuss reasonable accommodations that will help you succeed in this class. Ann Lemke can be reached at 235-7448, lemke@hawaii.edu, or you may stop by Hale Akoakoa 213 for more information.

Course Requirements and Assessment Procedures

Active participation is the key to success in HAW 102. You are expected to assume a shared responsibility for the content and process of this course. The class is structured to promote success for all participants. Therefore, remember to help one another and make every effort to use Hawaiian in and out of class.

Class Attendance and Participation

Both attendance and active participation are essential to your successful progress in this course. If you attend every class on time and are an active participant your grade will be increased by 3%, if you miss one class and are an active participant your grade shall increase by 2%, and if you miss two classes but are an active participant your grade will increase by 1%. Should you miss four classes your grade will be lowered by 1%, and for each absence thereafter your grade shall drop an additional 1%.
