WINDWARD COMMUNITY COLLEGE MISSION STATEMENT

Windward Community College offers innovative programs in the arts and sciences and opportunities to gain knowledge and understanding of Hawai'i and its unique heritage. With a special commitment to support the access and educational needs of Native Hawaiians, we provide O'ahu's Ko'olau region and beyond with liberal arts, career and lifelong learning in a supportive and challenging environment — inspiring students to excellence.

CATALOG DESCRIPTION

Introduction to the world's major religions: Indigenous, Hinduism, Jainism, Buddhism, Sikhism, Confucianism, Daoism, Shinto, Zoroastrianism, Judaism, Christianity, and Islam. WCC: FGC

Global Multicultural Perspectives Focus Hallmarks

1. provide students with a large-scale analysis of human development and change over time.
2. analyze the development of human societies and their cultural traditions through time in different regions (including Africa, the Americas, Asia, Europe, and Oceania) and using multiple perspectives.

3. offer a broad, integrated analysis of cultural, economic, political, scientific, and/or social development that recognizes the diversity of human societies and their cultural traditions.
4. examine processes of cross-cultural interaction and exchange that have linked the world's peoples through time while recognizing diversity.
5. include at least one component on Hawaiian, Pacific, or Asian societies and their cultural traditions.
6. engage students in the study and analysis of writings, narratives, texts, artifacts, and/or practices that represent the perspectives of different societies and cultural traditions.

STUDENT LEARNING OUTCOMES

The student learning outcomes for the course are:

1. Identify the following elements or dimensions: origin, doctrines, ethics, sacred literature, important figures/founders, rituals, worship, and institutions for each of the world's major religious traditions.
2. Identify the similarities and differences between two or more religions on the basis of the aforementioned dimensions.
3. Examine the relationship between religion and culture/society.
4. Question and think critically.

COURSE TASKS

The course will be centered on the following tasks, which serve as both learning and assessment tools:

READING and NOTETAKING:

Take notes in the workbook (The Student's Guide to the Study of World Religions 3rd Edition) while reading the Professor's Notes and the textbook readings. The Professor's Notes and the textbook readings are available under the 'Resources' link on Lulima. Most people learn and remember very little from merely reading. However, writing down the main points of what you read greatly increases learning and your ability to remember the information. Therefore, it is imperative to your academic success that you write down the notes in your workbook. Your workbook serves as an organizational tool.

📖 REVIEW QUESTIONS:

Please note that there are review questions near the end of every chapter in your workbook (The Student's Guide to the Study of World Religions 3rd Edition). Please use the 'Assignments, Tests, and Surveys' tab on the left hand column of the homepage to submit your answers. I highly recommend reading these questions prior to reading your textbook and the Professor's Notes. Answers are required each week in order to prepare you for the quizzes and exams, both of which draw heavily from the review questions. However, you will only receive detailed feedback and a grade for four of the review sets. The four graded sets of review questions will be chosen at random.

The answers to the review questions come from the Professor's Notes and the textbook readings. Simply 'googling' for the answers is not acceptable because 1) it will either provide you with an oversimplified answer that misses the greater context (and thereby understanding!) that the Professor's Notes and textbook provide you with (such as the case with question 5 of the Hinduism review questions- Krishna is actually a form of which Hindu god?) or 2) it will provide you with too much information and it will be difficult to ascertain the most essential part (such as would be the case if you googled question 6 of the Hinduism review questions- What is the caste system and where did it come from?). Therefore, use the Professor's Notes and the textbook to answer the review questions. After that, feel free to conduct further research!

🗨️ DISCUSSION FORUM:

Please note that there are discussion questions directly following the review questions at the end of every chapter in your workbook (The Student's Guide to the Study of World Religions 3rd Edition). For every religious tradition you will post an answer to one of the discussion questions and then reply to two of your classmates' posts. For your post, please use the question you selected as the title of your entry. For your replies, select two questions other than the one you answered (hence the need for putting the question as the title of the entry).

For your posts, I am interested in your personal opinion. However, please write it in a way that hopefully won't be offensive to someone whose perspective is different from yours. For example, sentences along these lines: "I believe ___ and anyone who believes otherwise is an ignorant idiot" are completely unacceptable. Fortunately, I haven't seen that happen. Please write in a respectful manner. Also, whenever possible use religious terms. For example, type 'Quran' instead of 'Muslim Bible' and 'samsara' rather than 'reincarnation.'

Discussion posts and replies are worth the same amount so it is important to complete all three requirements (an answer to one of the discussion questions and a response to two of your classmates' posts on a different discussion question than the one you chose) for each religious tradition.

I will read all of the discussion posts and replies but I will not respond to every one of your posts. I will, however, respond to the discussion as a whole by emailing everyone once the discussion is complete. Please see the 'Resources' link for a rubric on the discussion forum.

QUIZZES:

Complete timed quizzes on Laulima under the 'Assignments, Tests, and Surveys' link. You may use your notes and textbook during the timed quizzes. Before taking any of the quizzes, please be sure that you've already read all notes and textbook chapters corresponding to that quiz. For example, before taking the Hinduism quiz, first read the professor's Hinduism notes and the Hinduism textbook reading. Follow the class schedule on this syllabus to know when to take each quiz.

Read the quiz questions carefully. Save often since all questions appear on one webpage. Quiz grades are released one week after the due date. Make sure to go back to the quiz and review the correct answers. Exam questions draw heavily from the quizzes.

✓ EXAMS:

Complete the three exams. The course is organized by geographical location of origin for each religious tradition.

- Exam 1 covers Hinduism, Jainism, Buddhism, and Sikhism.
- Exam 2 covers Daoism, Confucianism, Shinto, and East Asian Buddhism.
- Exam 3 covers Zoroastrianism, Judaism, Christianity, and Islam.

Exams will be taken online and timed. You have 75 minutes to complete an exam. Although the exams are open book and notes, since they are timed you will not have much free time to rummage through your materials. Study hard for the exams so that you will be prepared. I strongly recommend creating a notecard or review sheet to work from. Do not start an exam without a strong internet connection. Once started you cannot retake the exam at a later date. Save often since all questions appear on one webpage.

ASSESSMENT TASKS AND GRADING

Grades will be based on the following:

|--|------|
| -Review Questions (4 sets) | 20% |
| -Discussion Forum (posts and replies)..... | 25% |
| -Quizzes..... | 25% |
| -Three Exams (10% each)..... | 30% |
| | 100% |

Grades available:

A = 90% -100%

B = 80% -89%

C = 70% -79%

D = 60% -69%

F = 59% and below

N= The 'N' grade indicates that the student has worked conscientiously, attended regularly, finished all work, fulfilled course responsibilities, and has made measurable progress. However, either the student has not achieved the minimal student learning outcomes and is not prepared to succeed at the next level, or the student has made consistent progress in class but is unable to complete the class due to extenuating circumstances, such as major health, personal, or family emergencies.

LEARNING RESOURCES

The following is available for purchase at the WCC bookstore.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

Make-up Policy:

Students are provided with three virtual 'No Questions Asked' (NQA) coupons that enable them to make up a quiz, exam, discussion post/reply, or review question set up to one week past the due date. If you need to use a coupon for a week in which you missed the due date on several assignments, please email me to let me know to which assignment you would like a coupon applied. Laulima notifies me when you submit something late. Even if you do not email me about the NQA coupon, a coupon will be automatically applied to anything submitted late, for example, a late quiz. After submitting three late assignments, all future late assignments will result in an automatic zero. Without the NQA coupon, late work will not be accepted. Coupons may not be shared or replicated. Unused coupons will be counted toward extra credit if the student submitted all assignments and completed all quizzes and exams on time.

Academic Honesty:

Students are expected to act with personal integrity, to respect other students' opinions, and to help create an academic environment in which discussion is encouraged. Students are expected not to engage or tolerate acts of plagiarism, cheating, copying, fabrication of citations, or other acts of academic dishonesty. Plagiarism is treated seriously in this course. If you are quoting someone verbatim, then you must use quotation marks and cite the source immediately after the quotation in parenthetical form, (author's last name, page number). If you are unsure whether or not you are citing sources correctly, please ask me. Ignorance is no excuse. Students charged with academic dishonesty face serious consequences that range from an F grade for the assignment to an F grade for the course.

Disabilities Accommodation:

If you have a physical, sensory, health, cognitive, or mental health disability that could limit your ability to fully participate in this class, you are encouraged to contact the Disability Specialist Counselor to discuss reasonable accommodations that will help you succeed in this class. Ann Lemke can be reached at 235-7448, lemke@hawaii.edu, or you may stop by Hale Akoakoa 213 for more information.

Extra Credit:

Extra credit can be earned by turning in responses to the Think Log prompts. The prompts can be found on pp.121-124 of the workbook (The Student's Guide to the Study of World Religions). They are also embedded in the Professor's Notes by religious tradition. Think Logs are essentially journal prompts. There are no right or wrong responses to Think Log prompts. Think Logs are used to encourage critical thinking, self-analysis, and to reflect on the topics covered in this course. You can earn the full amount of extra credit by typing your responses to six of the Think Log prompts. Each Think Log response should be approximately one full, typed page, double-spaced. Think Logs can be submitted via email throughout the semester. However, no more than two extra credit Think Logs per student will be accepted during the last two weeks of classes. All extra credit must be received by May 2, 2018.

IMPORTANT NOTE ABOUT ONLINE COURSES

- Students must have regular, reliable access to a computer with a strong internet connection. If you foresee that you will not have this, then you should not take this course.
- Ask yourself if online is the right method of instruction for you. If you are very independent, organized, self-motivated, and somewhat tech-savvy, you should do fine in an online course. On the other hand, if these traits do not describe you, please seriously consider taking a traditional face-to-face (F2F) course or hybrid course (half F2F, half online). I'm offering three hybrid sections this semester. Spend some time considering your personality and study habits carefully. I want you to succeed in this course! Sadly, studies show that online learners have a higher rate of failure than F2F learners. Online courses are usually more difficult than F2F courses because they require a great deal of self-discipline and organization.
- Taking an online class requires a lot of self-discipline; stay organized and submit assignments early so that you can enjoy the class and avoid unnecessary stress. I strongly recommend using a planner. Put important deadlines for assignments from all of your courses' syllabi into the planner. Create a weekly schedule with your school and work hours. Don't forget to schedule in blocks of time when you plan to read and complete homework assignments.
- I will communicate with you via your UH Email. Thus, you'll need to check that account on a regular basis. If there is another email account you most often use (such as Gmail or Hotmail), you can forward your UH Mail to that account. Go here for directions: https://windward.hawaii.edu/Technology/Forwarding_UHMail.pdf
- Computer/internet problems are not acceptable reasons for missing or late assignments; submit your work early, just in case.
- I am not a computer help desk. If you are having technical problems please consult the people in the section titled 'Online Support.'

RECOMMENDATIONS THAT WILL HELP YOU IN THIS CLASS

1. Familiarize yourself with Lualima during the first week. Click on all of the links on the left hand side and see what they contain and/or do.
2. Even though there isn't a formal attendance policy, login to Lualima at least three times/week. This is your class and you need to show up to the classroom, our website.

3. Stay on top of the schedule, especially at the very beginning. Studies show that it only takes a week of not keeping up with the course tasks early in the semester for online learners to become lost and then give up.
4. Contact me if you have any questions. I want you to succeed in this course!
