Course Communication

News and Announcements

The News and Announcements Forum, linked under the Course Communication Center module on our course's home page, serves as a way for me to make announcements within our virtual learning environment. All students are automatically subscribed to this forum and will receive a duplicate email of each message posted within it.

Discussion Forum

The discussion forum will be used for the submission of some assignments and for communication with other class members on topics of interest to the whole class. In some cases you will be asked to discuss assignments and translation approaches and techniques that you have used for your language pair and compare them to what others have done. You may also be asked to discuss how you have approached such issues as cultural problems and how you have overcome them so that other students in the class can benefit. All forums are public.

Therefore, whatever is posted can be seen by everyone in the course. If you want to send a private message, use email.

Email

Course participants can also use email to communicate with me, group members, and each other privately. Please copy me on all communications using email so that I can keep up on what's going on.

Course Schedule

(Note: reading/writing assignments should be completed on the date listed in the course calendar.) This calendar is subject to change. Students are expected to make note of any changes made. Found Online on Canvas platform.

Course Requirements

- Quizzes (542 points total). The student will complete __ online quizzes to assess their comprehension of course materials . The quizzes will be based on the lectures and assigned reading for the week. Although the quizzes are open-book, they are timed. As such, students who have not studied can expect to do poorly on the quizzes. For each quiz, the attempt yielding the highest score will be used to calculate the student's grade.
- Examinations (1200 points total-600 points each for exam). The student will take a total of 2 comprehensive unit exams. Exams will be given through this Canvas site. Students who fail to take the exam by the required date and time will receive a zero score on the exam. If you experience a technical problem with the exam, you must alert me immediately.
- Assignments: (742 points total). The student will complete 6 dialog recordings, and all exercises from the 6 chapters (ha'awina). There will also be 2 unit reviews to complete. The purpose of these assignments is to facilitate open discussion of course topics between students in the class. For discussion boards, you will be required to post a response based on the prompt posted by your instructor. You will also be required to read and post responses to at least ONE of the posts from your fellow students. Both your initial post and your responses MUST be completed by the deadline. Your posts and responses will be graded based on effort, clarity, and accuracy. The topics for each discussion board will be posted on the course website.

Students are asked to respond to assignment discussion topics with thoughtful commentary, incorporating readings and other class materials into their posting. Students are required to respond to at least two other posts by their classmates.

Netiquette

The best possible experience in discussion forums and in e-mail exchanges occurs when respect is shown to all participants. When addressing other people on the discussion forums, think about the impact of your words and remember that unlike face-to-face communication, those you communicate with cannot see the expression on your face or hear the intonation in your voice.

Try to be brief and to the point. Answer questions but do not be drawn into arguments. The discussion forum is not the place for political arguments or for discussion of inappropriate topics.

If you cite someone else's ideas, make sure to give them credit.

Peer Feedback

Collaborative learning is a part of this course. Students are expected to provide quality feedback to their peers. Some of the ways that this can be done in this course include the following:

- Be nonjudgmental and provide specific examples if discussing the work of someone else
- Cite examples from your own work or cite other research as a way to make your point
- Make suggestions that are easy to understand and make sense. Suggest specific processes that a person might use to solve a particularly difficult problem.

Grading

Grade breakdown will be as follows:

Assignment	Occurrences	Total Points
Quizzes		542
Unit Exams	2 x 600 points	1200
Assignments		742
Total		2484

Calculation of grade: The final letter grade for this course will be determined on the basis of the total number of points and will follow the normal University of Hawaii grading system. Thus, the letter grade is determined by the percentage of points accumulated, based on the following scale:

A - 90%-100% (2235 - 2484 points)

B – 80%-89% (1987 - 2234 points)

C – 70%-79% (1738 - 1986 points)

D – 60%-69% (1490 - 1737 points)

F – 0 -59% (0 - 1489 points)

Please note that “N” grades are not given for this course

Grades may be curved at the instructor’s discretion; however, the student should use the above grading scale to evaluate their performance throughout the class. If you miss an examination because of an illness or legitimate emergency, you must contact the instructor within 48 hours to arrange a time to take a make-up exam. The instructor will request that the student present evidence of the illness or emergency that caused the student to miss the exam. While make-up exams will cover the same content area as a missed exam, the exam format and specific questions may be different. No retests will be given for any reason.

Attendance and Class Preparation Policy

This is an online class and students are expected to keep pace with module assignments, and attend all synchronous meetings. Students are required to complete reading and writing assignments by the posted deadlines, and interact with the instructor and other members of this online class using the delivery platform with professionalism. There will be no make-up work. As in real life, no assignments will be accepted late. In case of illness or other serious emergencies, please provide documentation and notify the instructor by e-mail. Students may not stop and restart the class.

Please read the University of Hawaii Policies on Academic Integrity
