WINDWARD COMMUNITY COLLEGE MISSION STATEMENT
Windward Community College offers innovative programs in the arts and sciences and opportunities to gain knowledge and understanding of Hawai'i and its unique heritage. With a special commitment to support the access and educational needs of Native Hawaiians, we provide O'ahu’s Ko'olau region and beyond with liberal arts, career, and lifelong learning in a supportive and challenging environment — inspiring students to excellence.

OUR COURSE
We begin in this world as helpless infants, unable to care for ourselves in almost any way. But even from these moments immediately following birth, we actively participate in our own development and we seek out social interaction, communicating with others and learning in the only ways available—moving our bodies and crying. From these humble beginnings, we go on to interact with others in increasingly complex and dynamic ways. Throughout our journey, we will develop along many axes; these differing developments will combine and interrelate in a myriad of ways. In this course, we will examine how people develop physically, cognitively, and socially from our very complex beginnings in utero through the lifespan until death. We will consider how interactions with family members, teachers, peers, and partners influence our development and the role that institutions such as school, media, and culture play in shaping our behavior, as does the development of emotions, attachment, temperament, gender, aggression, prosocial behavior, morality, and identity.

CATALOG DESCRIPTION
This course provides students with theories of biological, cognitive, and psycho-social development from infancy to adulthood and with similarities and differences among individuals and their cultures. DS (3 hours lecture)
Recommended Preparation: PSY 100.

This is an asynchronous distance learning class conducted via the internet using Laulima, the University of Hawai‘i’s web-based course management system. A web-based course such as this one requires that you have computer literacy skills. Our course also requires an electronic device, such as a laptop or desktop, that can open Microsoft Office (Word and PowerPoint). The course cannot be completed using a smart phone or tablet (some, but not all of our materials may open on these devices).

STUDENT LEARNING OUTCOMES

Upon completion of the course, you will be able to:

1. Compare and contrast the various theories of human development and behavior.
2. Describe biological, cognitive, and psychosocial development for each life-span period.
3. Investigate the existence of similarities, differences, and uniqueness in human development among individuals and their culture.
4. Apply human development theories and concepts to personal, social, educational, and occupational experiences.

COURSE TASKS

Because this course is conducted via the internet, our class communication, assignments, and textbook are all online and available via Laulima (https://laulima.hawaii.edu/portal). Laulima is WCC’s online course management system (you might already be familiar with it from previous classes). On Laulima, you will find our syllabus, class announcements, gradebook, and weekly unit folders that include links to our assignments as well as our class lectures/PowerPoints. Access to Laulima requires your regular UH school username and password. Throughout the semester, I recommend checking Laulima and your UH email once a day.
You are responsible for keeping up in this class: your diligence in logging in regularly to Laulima and engaging with our content in a timely fashion is essential to your success. No late work is accepted (excepting cases of qualified, documented emergencies or usage of ‘free passes’—please see our late work policy in the ‘Late Work’ section of this syllabus).

We have much to learn this semester and you’ll demonstrate the knowledge and skills you’ve acquired using a variety of different formats. As you will see, you will be submitting more work for this class than you likely do for most of your face-to-face courses. Since this is an asynchronous online course, I need to be able to measure how well you are keeping up with the materials; these assignments allow me to gauge how well you are keeping up with and understanding the course material.

Our assignments follow a uniform structure. We spend two weeks on each unit. During the first week of each unit, the first assignment (the reading check) is due on Friday evening. This assignment helps “get your feet wet” regarding the chapter content. During week two of the unit, the second assignment (the quiz questions) is due on Monday evening. This assignment deepens your understanding of core chapter concepts. At the end of the second week, the final assignment (the unit activity) is due on Sunday evening. This assignment gauges your mastery of the unit material. All assignments may be submitted early, but no assignments are accepted late (excepting cases of qualified, documented emergencies or usage of ‘free passes’—please see our late work policy in the ‘Late Work’ section of this syllabus).

Our class works on a mastery system. This means that it’s more important that you get concepts eventually than to get them right away (although, it’s still awesome if you do get them right away). To this end, our class assignments and policies are all set up for you to succeed, provided you continue to put in the work. Success is obtainable even if you struggle initially or experience difficulties throughout the semester. Each unit is set up with assignments of increasing difficulty and credit, so that the first assignment—when you’re likely the most unsure on our content—is the least complex and worth the least amount of credit. As your knowledge grows throughout the unit, so too does the complexity of and credit for our assignments. As a final feature of our mastery system, we will cover 7 units over the semester but only your highest 6 scores in each assignment category count. This means you don’t have to worry if an assignment doesn’t go your way as you can replace that score with another score from that category. Counting only the 6 highest scores also means that when life inevitably gets in the way and makes it difficult for you to complete your work, you can simply make that an assignment that you don’t submit (in other words, you can miss one assignment in each assignment category with no penalty).

Reading Checks (10 points each, highest 6 scores count, 60 points total)
For each unit, you will complete a brief reading check through Laulima wherein you answer 10 questions about the assigned textbook chapter and supplemental unit PP (a.k.a. our class lecture, which is available on Laulima in the unit folder). The reading checks are open-book, open-notes but should be entirely your own work. These reading checks work on the mastery system, so you can take them as many times as you would like until the assignment deadline. The computer will record your highest score, so there’s no harm in trying a quiz multiple times. Question format includes multiple choice and true/false questions. Feel free to have the reading check open as you are reading the chapters and PPs. Fill in your reading check answers as you move through the assigned readings. Each reading check is worth 10 points. There are seven reading checks throughout the semester and your highest six scores count, so you can skip one reading check without any negative impact on your final grade. No need to tell me which reading check you’re skipping; just don’t do it. Reading checks are due on the first Friday of the two-week unit period. Reading checks may be submitted early, but not late. Late reading checks are not accepted (excepting cases of qualified, documented emergencies or usage of ‘free passes’—please see our late work policy in the ‘Late Work’ section of this syllabus).

Quiz Questions (20 points each, highest 6 scores count, 120 points total)
To deepen your knowledge of our class content, you’ll WRITE five applied quiz questions for each unit. The questions should come from the textbook chapters and the supplemental PPs for the unit (please see assignment on Laulima for a breakdown of questions by source). Question format is up to you; whichever format you choose, craft questions that apply and/or synthesize our class content. Provide the question, the answer options, the correct answer, and indicate where you found this information.

The questions that you write will go into a question bank for next semester’s students to answer, so please be thoughtful and clear. Also, feel free to write in your own voice (i.e. formal writing isn’t necessary, unless you’d like to use it). ‘Own voice’ includes the option to write in Pidgin (please note somewhere in your submission that you’re writing in Pidgin). If you choose this option, you’ll be allowing future semesters of students the chance to answer quiz questions in Standard English or Hawaiian Pidgin, per their choosing.

Questions are submitted to the ‘Quiz Questions’ tab on Laulima. Together these five questions are worth 20 points (please see assignment on Laulima for grading rubric), with partial credit available.

There are seven quiz question assignments throughout the semester and your highest six scores count, so you can skip one quiz question assignment without any negative impact on your final grade. No need to tell me which quiz question assignment you’re skipping; just don’t do it. Quiz questions are due on the second Monday of each unit. They may be submitted early (if the unit’s quiz question assignment is up, go for it), but not late. Late quiz questions are not accepted (excepting cases of qualified, documented emergencies or usage of ‘free passes’—please see our late work policy in the ‘Late Work’ section of this syllabus).

Unit Activities (30 points each, highest 6 scores count, 180 points total)
For each unit, you will complete an in-depth activity designed to showcase your understanding of the unit’s key topics. Activities vary unit to unit, but all activities will draw on the textbook and supplemental PP (i.e. our class lecture) content for that unit. Details on each individual activity complete with grading rubrics are available on our Laulima in the unit folders. Regardless of the specific activity, your submission should make use of the information from the textbook, supplemental PP, and any posted materials, be thoughtful and thorough, and when responding to a discussion post, build on the responses of fellow students. There are seven unit activities throughout the semester and your highest six scores count, so you can skip one activity without any negative impact on your final grade. No need to tell me which activity you’re skipping; just don’t do it. Activities are due on the final day of the unit (i.e. the second Sunday). They may be submitted early, but not late. Late activities are not accepted (excepting cases of qualified, documented emergencies or usage of ‘free passes’—please see our late work policy in the ‘Late Work’ section of this syllabus).
Late Work/Assignment Policies
Late assignments are not accepted, excepted in cases of serious documented emergencies with written verification of the extenuating medical, legal, or other qualifying circumstances. The determination of a qualified emergency is made by me; please contact me as soon as you anticipate or experience a problem.

There are two exceptions to this ‘no late work’ policy: Free passes and mulligans.

1. Free passes: Each student gets two free passes to turn in an assignment late. Each free pass buys an extra week (7 days) after its due date to submit the assignment. To use a free pass, email me to say you’d like to use it and I’ll reopen the assignment.

2. Mulligans: Each student gets two mulligans. A mulligan allows a student to revise and resubmit a previously submitted assignment. For example, if you miss the mark on a unit activity, you could revise your work and resubmit. Mulligans can be used within one week (7 days) of the graded assignment being returned. To use a mulligan, email me to say you’d like to use it and I let you know how to resubmit the work.

Extra Credit
At this point, 4 extra credit opportunities are anticipated for the semester. Most are available now and due in the first weeks of the course:

1. Syllabus quiz. Taken on Laulima. Worth up to 3 points. Due 29 August.
2. Introduce yourself to the class using Laulima’s discussion board. Worth up to 2 points. Due 29 August.
3. Meet and Greet with instructor. With online classes, it can be easy to feel you’re all alone in your learning process, but you’re not. I’m in it with you so let’s get to know one another. Sign up for a quick, 10-minute one-on-one introduction with me. Worth 7 points. Due 5 September.
IMPORTANT NOTE:
Please do NOT wait until the last day to do your work because all kinds of problems can happen. This is online course reality. If you experience problems near the deadline and miss course work, your grade will be recorded as a zero.

Assigned work is due by 11.59 p.m. on the date it is listed. Beyond the free passes, late work is not accepted, excepting documented, qualified emergencies (as determined by me, see course policy).
You’re spending your valuable time and money on this course, so let’s make sure that you are on course for success. Using this grade tracker sheet, you can always be aware of your grade in our course. Simply fill in your scores as you earn them.

Grade Tracker:

Reading Checks
- Foundations of Development = ____/10 points
- Infancy = ____/10 points
- Early Childhood = ____/10 points
- Middle Childhood = ____/10 points
- Adolescence = ____/10 points
- Emerging & Middle Adulthood = ____/10 points
- Late Adulthood = ____/10 points

Highest 6 of 7 Scores = ____/60 points

Quiz Questions
- Foundations of Development = ____/20 points
- Infancy = ____/20 points
- Early Childhood = ____/20 points
- Middle Childhood = ____/20 points
- Adolescence = ____/20 points
- Emerging & Middle Adulthood = ____/20 points
- Late Adulthood = ____/20 points

Highest 6 of 7 Scores = ____/120 points

Unit Activities
- Foundations of Development = ____/30 points
- Infancy = ____/30 points
- Early Childhood = ____/30 points
- Middle Childhood = ____/30 points
- Adolescence = ____/30 points
- Emerging & Middle Adulthood = ____/30 points
- Late Adulthood = ____/30 points

Highest 6 of 7 Scores = ____/180 points

Total Points = _____/360 points

Add only the scores in this right, bolded column

Extra credit earned: _______ points

Your total points + extra credit then determines the final course grade that you have earned for HDFS 230:

- A = 360.0 – 324 points [percentage of 90 – 100%]
- B = 323.9 – 288 points [percentage of 80 – 89.9%]
- C = 287.9 – 252 points [percentage of 70 – 79.9%]
- D = 251.9 – 216 points [percentage of 60 – 69.9%]
- F = Below 216 points [percentage of 0 – 59.9%]

To figure out your grade at any point during the semester, total up all the points you’ve earned up until thus far and use this formula:

For example, say it’s partway through the semester and you’ve earned 179 points thus far and there have been 200 points available. You would take $179 \div 200$, which equals .895 and then multiply .895 by 100, which equals 89.5%. Using the above grade breakdown, we’d see that a percentage of 89.5 means that your current grade would be a ‘B’.

LEARNING RESOURCES

1. Plagiarism/Cheating: I take both plagiarism and cheating very seriously. If I think you have plagiarized (intentionally or unintentionally) or cheated, you will earn a zero for that assignment, no exceptions. A second instance of either will result in failure of the course (i.e. two instances of plagiarism, two instances of cheating or an instance of plagiarism and an instance of cheating).

2. Late work policy: Late assignments are not accepted, excepted in cases of serious documented emergencies with written verification of the extenuating medical, legal, or other qualifying circumstances. The determination of a qualified emergency is made by me; please contact me as soon as you anticipate a problem.
