WINDWARD COMMUNITY COLLEGE MISSION STATEMENT

Windward Community College offers innovative programs in the arts and sciences and opportunities to gain knowledge and understanding of Hawai‘i and its unique heritage. With a special commitment to support the access and educational needs of Native Hawaiians, we provide the Ko‘olau region of O‘ahu and beyond with liberal arts, career and lifelong learning in a supportive and challenging environment — inspiring students to excellence.

CATALOG DESCRIPTION

SP 251 provides students with the opportunity to build on their public speaking skills through extensive practice in speech preparation and delivery techniques. This course will focus on how to organize a presentation, develop rhetorical skills, and use analytical skills. Prerequisite- Credit for ENG 100 or SP 151.

Activities Required at Scheduled Times Other Than Class Times

Two Conferences

The first conference must be scheduled by the 8th week of the semester and the second conference must be scheduled by the last week of school.

STUDENT LEARNING OUTCOMES

As a result of taking this course, students can expect to attain the following outcomes:

1. Demonstrate correct usage of relevant concepts, theories, and principles of effective public communication.
2. Analyze the ethical implications of speaking and being an attentive audience member.
3. Select appropriate and effective speech topics.
4. Conduct quality research and gather supporting material for various types of public speeches.

5. Critique and provide constructive feedback to public speakers.

To provide flexibility to adapt to needs or circumstances, the instructor reserves the right to deviate from the course outcomes, to add or omit tasks, and to adjust grades or points as the circumstances of the situation justify.

COURSE TASKS AND GRADING

Participation: Due to the nature of a speech course, participation is necessary. Class discussions, student involvement, in-class activities, and attendance are regarded as participation. You will be recorded for both the informative and persuasive presentations. There will also be two or three pop quizzes, which will count toward participation.

Impromptu: Students will be randomly selected to provide an impromptu speech about topics (current event, controversial issue, etc.) in relation to the topic of discussion. If you are absent on an impromptu day, there will be no make-up participation.

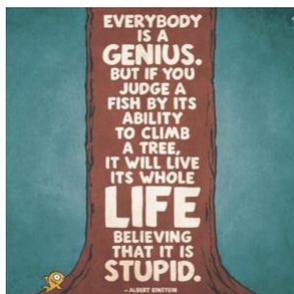

Paper Assignments:

High quality papers will show depth of thinking and insight into the analyzing process of a literary piece. Papers should include references to material covered in the textbook using appropriate APA formatting. Each paper may vary on length depending on the assignment given to you by the instructor. Each paper should contain an introduction, an organized body with main ideas developed, and a thoughtful conclusion and must follow the paper requirements for this class. An Abstract is not required unless a research paper is assigned. Any assignment that does not follow the directions provided and/or discussed in lecture will only earn minimal points.

Writing Hallmarks:

- ✦ The course uses writing to promote the learning of course materials
- ✦ The course provides interaction between teacher and students while students do assigned writing
- ✦ Writing contributes significantly to each student's course grade. Writing assignments must make up at least 40% of each student's course grade.
- ✦ The course requires students to do a substantial amount of writing – a minimum of 4,000 words, or about 16 pages.
 - Depending on the types of writing appropriate to the discipline, students may write critical essays or reviews, journal entries, lab reports, research reports or reaction papers.

The written portion of this class includes: Commemorative (15 points), Informative and Persuasive (50 points), Group Presentation & Surveys (25 points), Reflection Paper (50 points), Self-Evaluation (30 points), Homework (60 points), Resources Chart (10 points). A total of 240 points will be designated to written work, which is equivalent to 40% of your overall grade.

Your grade will be based on the total number of points you earn as outlined directly below. You may find it useful to use the assignment chart below to keep track of your points through the semester.

Assignment	Points Possible
Introductory Speech	15
Impromptu Speeches	45
Commemorative Speech	50
Informative Presentation	100 (75 presentation, 25 outline)
Persuasive Presentation	100 (75 presentation, 25 outline)
Group Project/Presentation	100 (50 presentation, 50 surveys)
Group Reflection Essay	50
Self-Evaluations (2)	30 (10 points Informative; 20 points Persuasive)
HW assignments (4)	80 (20 points each)
Conference Attendance (2)	30 (15 points each)
Unexcused Absences	- 5 points each day
Total Points	600 points

*Please do not ask me if you can turn in late work or raise your grade the last two weeks of the semester. It is your responsibility to keep track of your progress throughout the entire semester.

Student Contributions

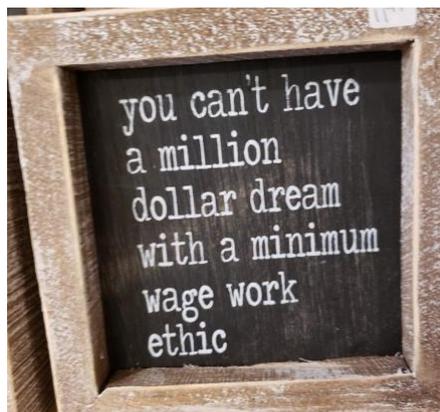

Academic Integrity: Work submitted by a student must be the student's own work. The work of others should be explicitly marked, such as through use of quotes or summarizing with reference to the original author.

In this class, students who commit academic dishonesty, cheating or plagiarism will have the following consequence(s):

Students will receive a failing grade for plagiarized assignments.

All cases of academic dishonesty are referred to the Vice Chancellor for Student Affairs.

Attendance Policy: Regular and prompt attendance is necessary for students to achieve the goals of this course. Most activities build upon one another so attendance and adequate preparation for each class period are essential. Students are responsible for material covered in classes in which they were absent (whether the absence was excused or unexcused) or late to class.

Unexcused Absences

Absolutely no make-ups will be given for unexcused absences resulting in a missed speech performance, examination, or in-class activity. If there is a prior engagement, notify your instructor and discuss your situation.

Deductions for unexcused absences. Attendance will be regularly recorded. For every unexcused absence, your overall grade will be lowered by 5 points per absence.

Deductions for tardiness. If students are 15 minutes late to class, they will be marked as late. For every two classes that a student is marked late, it will equal to one unexcused absence. It is encouraged for students to come to class on time.

Assignments: All assignments must be typed and double-spaced with one-inch margins on the left, right, top, and bottom of each page to receive credit. Please use Times New Roman as a standard font type. A hard copy of assignments is required. Emailed assignments and handwritten assignments will NOT be accepted unless stated by the instructor.

E-mails: The University of Hawaii e-mail has been declared an official means for communication with students. Executive Policy E2.213 reads: “Students are responsible for checking their email account frequently and consistently to remain current with University communications. They are expected to monitor and manage their email storage quota to ensure that their mailboxes are not saturated and are able to receive new messages.”

Cellular/Digital Phones and Other Electronic Devices: Before attending class, turn off all cellular/digital phones and other portable electronic devices that can ring and disrupt the class. You will not receive participation points for the day if you are using your cell phone.

DISABILITIES ACCOMMODATIONS

If you have a physical, sensory, health, cognitive, or mental health disability that could limit your ability to fully participate in this class, you are encouraged to contact the Disability Specialist Counselor to discuss reasonable accommodations that will help you succeed in this class. Roy Inouye can be reached at 235-7448, royinouye@hawaii.edu, or you may stop by Hale ‘Ākoakoa 213 for more information.
