Windward Community College offers innovative programs in the arts and sciences and opportunities to gain knowledge and understanding of Hawai'i and its unique heritage. With a special commitment to support the access and educational needs of Native Hawaiians, we provide the Ko'olau region of O'ahu and beyond with liberal arts, career and lifelong learning in a supportive and challenging environment — inspiring students to excellence.

CATALOG DESCRIPTION

A survey of gods, 'aumakua, kupua, mythical heroes, heroines and their kinolau as the basis of traditional Hawaiian metaphor. Pre-Requisite(s): Grade of C or better in ENG 100 (for WI courses) and credit for HWST 107 or HAW 102.

STUDENT LEARNING OUTCOMES

Throughout the semester we will contemplate our own kuleana as students, teachers, and people, who call Hawai'i home and what that means. Upon successful completion of HWST 270, nā haumāna should be able to reach the following learning outcomes for the course:

- Evaluate and analyze the relationship between Hawaiian mo'olelo, Hawaiian religion, and Hawaiian social structure.
- Analyze how Hawaiian mo'olelo illustrate and set precedents for Hawaiian cultural values.
- Compare and contrast Hawaiian and Western concepts of 'history' and 'myth'.
- Identify and access major written and oral sources for Hawaiian mo'olelo.
- Recount with details at least one Hawaiian mo'olelo and illustrate similarities with others.
- Describe and classify different characters from Hawaiian mo'olelo.

ASSESSMENT TASKS AND GRADING

Your grade will be based on the total number of points you earn in the various activities described above. The final grade-to-points correspondence will be based on the distribution of final scores. You can keep track of your progress by keeping a tally of the points you earn on each assignment (see grade tally sheet at the back of this document) or by checking Lualaba Gradebook regularly for grade updates.

Your semester grade is based on the total number of points you earn from the following totals:

Assignment	Points per assignment	Total possible points
Netiquette Quiz	10 points	10 points
Unit Quizzes	3 @ 40 points each	120 points
Discussion Posts	13 @ 10 points each	130 points
Flipgrid Video Posts	4 @ 10 points each	40 points
Total Possible Points		300 points

A = 270-300 B = 240-269 C = 210-239 D = 180-209 F = < 179

COURSE REQUIREMENTS

UNIT QUIZZES

There will be three Unit Quizzes which will assess your command of the information presented in power point lectures, website information, readings and videos which will include but is not limited to terminology (in English, Hawaiian and Pacific languages), ideas, concepts, people, dates, etc. Each of the Unit Quizzes will include 40 objective questions (multiple choice, true/false, fill in the blank, etc.).

All three 1.5 hour Unit Quizzes will be posted and taken on Lualaba and you will have one chance to take each one (see weekly schedule for specific dates). The questions are assigned randomly by the testing system so everyone will have randomized questions. You have access to your grades through Lualaba, so you can get your Unit Quiz grade and keep track of your progress in the course. Of course, I will be checking your answers for spelling errors etc.

NETIQUETTE QUIZ

The Netiquette quiz will be given in order to test your etiquette on the Internet, simple rules for how you should act in Cyberspace that keep things polite and help everyone get along. You will have 30 minutes and 2 chances to complete this 10 point quiz.

DISCUSSION POSTS

Weekly Discussion Posts will be released at 6:00am every Monday morning on Lualaba along with the release of the weekly powerpoint lecture(s). Some of the questions may pertain to the lectures and readings; other questions may require you to look at materials on the web. Discussion Posts are due the following Monday before 11:55 p.m. HST unless noted otherwise. (Please refer to the specific assignment for instructions and actual due dates).

You are expected to participate in all course discussions in a manner informed by respect for others, including those with views that may be different than your own. You are responsible for and may be tested on all material discussed online. Lack of participation may drop your course grade. You are required to comment on at least one other classmate's post in order to get full points. This is required and you will lose 2 points per discussion post if have not provided at least one comment.

FLIPGRID VIDEOS

You will be required to contribute 4 Flipgrid Video Posts (FVP) to the course in order to encourage course “face-to-face” participation. Each post will ask a question and will require a Flipgrid video answer.

LEARNING RESOURCES

TEXTBOOKS

There are no textbooks for this course; all readings will be posted on Lulima in .pdf format. Many of our readings will come from Martha Beckwith’s Book entitled Hawaiian Mythology which will be provided via a .pdf file <https://www.sacred-texts.com/pac/hm/index.htm>. An optional text would be Puku'i and Elbert. Hawaiian Dictionary, Honolulu: University of Hawai'i Press, 1986 or an online dictionary at www.wehewehe.org.

REQUIRED SOFTWARE

You must have reliable access to a computer, internet and perhaps a printer in order to gain the full benefit of this course. Students will need to retrieve additional required readings using Lulima. Point your browser to <https://lulima.hawaii.edu/> and use your UH System username and password to log in. These readings will be formatted as Portable Document Files (.pdf). Thus, you will need to be able to regularly access your Lulima account and have Adobe Acrobat Reader, which will open these “.pdf ” files. You can download Adobe at: http://www.adobe.com/products/acrobat/readstep2_allversions.html

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

COURSE ORGANIZATION

This course is divided into three units. The units are to be completed in order. For each unit you will need to:

1. Read & take notes on all of the unit materials, websites, videos & readings as you go through the materials.
2. Complete and participate in Discussion Posts by each of their weekly due dates.
3. You will have something due every Monday by 11:55 pm. Please make sure you keep up with your course due dates (see Online Course Schedule at the end of this document).
4. Study the material you collect throughout the course on a regular basis.
5. You will have 3 Unit Quizzes which are not cumulative; they only cover the material within each unit taught thus far.
6. You'll also have 4 Flipgrid Video Posts, please watch your due dates.

WEEKLY POWERPOINT LECTURES, VIDEOS & COURSE READINGS

A powerpoint lecture will be sent out each week by 6:00am every Monday morning. It will include clickable links to assigned websites, videos and readings to read/watch. The ‘Announcement Tab’ will automatically generate an email to announce the posted lectures. Participation on Lulima is mandatory in order to simulate a classroom atmosphere and to foster discussion among the group. Your participation and input are important to the overall success of this course.

NETIQUETTE GUIDELINES

Netiquette is a way of defining professionalism through network communication. Students who violate proper Netiquette will be administratively dropped by instructor from the course. For more information and to study for the Netiquette Quiz refer to: <http://www.albion.com/netiquette/corerules.html>

Here are some Netiquette Student Guidelines for the class:

- Before posting your question to a discussion board, check if anyone has asked it already & received a reply.
- Stay on topic. Don't post irrelevant links, comments, thoughts or pictures.
- Don't type in ALL CAPS! If you do it will look like you are screaming.
- Don't write anything that sounds angry or sarcastic even as a joke, because without hearing your tone of voice, your peers might not realize you're joking.
- Always remember to say "please" and "thank you" when soliciting help from your classmates.
- Respect the opinion of your classmates. If you feel the need to disagree, do so respectfully and acknowledge the valid points in your classmate's argument. If you reply to a question from a classmate, make sure your answer is accurate!
- If you ask questions, many people respond. Summarize all answers and post that summary to benefit your whole class.
- Be brief. If you write a long dissertation in response to a simple question, it's unlikely that anyone will spend the time to read through it all.
- Don't badmouth others. You may disagree with their ideas but don't mock the person.
- If you refer to something your classmate said earlier in the discussion, quote just a few key lines from their post so that others won't have to go back and figure out which post you're referring to.
- Before asking a question, check the class syllabus or search the Internet to see if the answer is obvious or easy to find.
- Check the most recent comments before you reply to an older comment.
- Be forgiving. If your classmate makes a mistake, don't badger him or her for it. Just let it go.
- Run a spelling and grammar check before posting anything to your discussion posts.

OPPORTUNITIES FOR EXTRA CREDIT

In an effort to affirm multiple ways of learning and sharing knowledge, I will offer various extra credit options, which I encourage you to do outside of class (all extra credit is worth up to 5 points each). I may offer additional extra credit options via the Lulima Announcement tool as opportunities present themselves.

For each extra credit option, you will need to write a minimum two-page essay (500-word paper) discussing the issues/purpose of the event and your reaction to the event. All extra credit papers are due on the last day of the course. I encourage you to turn it in sooner rather than later and submit it via the Lulima dropbox. You may do as many Extra Credit papers as you wish, however, I will only give you credit for them if you are least achieving a "C" in the course, in other words, extra credit cannot help you if you haven't already done the minimal required course work. It is good to do if you just want that extra padding, "just in case."

LATE WORK & PAPER HAND-IN POLICIES

All work is to be turned in on the date due unless the student has a valid excuse (sickness, death in the family, others on a case by case basis). You must have written documentation in order to be considered excused. Once the instructor receives your documentation you and she will arrange a due date. Once given permission and an alternative due date to turn in your late work from your instructor, please turn it in via Lulima Dropbox; please email the instructor once you turn anything in via Dropbox.

If you do not have written documentation you can turn your work in late but only up to one week from the initial due date and then you will only be given a maximum of half the points possible (But that is better than 0 points for the work). Late work must be turned in via Lulima Dropbox; please email the instructor once you turn anything in via Dropbox.

WHAT YOU CAN EXPECT OF ME AS YOUR INSTRUCTOR

- I will maintain a positive learning environment for all students
- I will treat all students fairly and with respect
- I will encourage all students to truly learn the course material
- I will encourage discussion and participation.
- I highly value instructor learner communication. We can arrange a time to talk/chat/exchange ideas via Lulima Messages at anytime.
- If at any time you are dissatisfied, confused, or unclear about how the discussion is being facilitated, please contact me via email. I will respond to your inquiry as soon as possible, and we will work together to resolve the identified issue.
- I do my utmost best to respond to assignments within a reasonable time. Again, sometimes life and other work intervene in that, but, if it does, I'll let you know.
- I will treat all of you with collegial respect! I believe that you have as much to contribute to this learning process as I do and look forward to our exchange as colleagues.

CAMPUS POLICIES

In all campus environments either face-to-face or online; Disruptive Behavior will not be tolerated. This means: any speech or action that (1) is disrespectful, offensive, and/or threatening; (2) interferes with the learning activities of other students; (3) impedes the delivery of college services; and/or (4) has a negative impact in any learning environment. Please refer to the Student Conduct Code at <https://catalog.windward.hawaii.edu/student-conduct> for actions that the college may impose for such behavior. Please note that important information from the college and your instructor will be sent to your hawaii.edu e-mail address. Faculty are required to use this e-mail address when corresponding with their students.

DISABILITIES ACCOMMODATIONS

If you have a physical, sensory, health, cognitive, or mental health disability that could limit your ability to fully participate in this class, you are encouraged to contact the Accessibility Counselor to discuss reasonable accommodations that will help you succeed in this class. Roy Inouye can be reached at (808) 235-7448, royinouy@hawaii.edu, or you may stop by Hale Kāko'ō 106 for more information.

SEX DISCRIMINATION AND GENDER-BASED VIOLENCE RESOURCES (TITLE IX)

Windward Community College is committed to providing a learning, working, and living environment that promotes personal integrity, civility, and mutual respect and is free of all forms of sex discrimination and gender-based violence, including sexual assault, sexual harassment, gender-based harassment, domestic violence, dating violence, and stalking.

If you or someone you know is experiencing any of these, WCC has staff and resources to support and assist you. To report an incident of sex discrimination or gender-based violence, as well as receive information and support, please contact one of the following:

- To speak with someone confidentially, contact Madoka (Doka) Kumagai who is the Confidential Advocate (808) 348-0663 or via email at kumagaim@hawaii.edu.
- You can also speak to our WCC Mental Health & Wellness Office Counselor Desrae Kahale at 808-235- 7393 or via email at dkahale3@hawaii.edu. Office: Hale Kāko'ō 101

- Ka'ahu Alo is our Student Life Counselor and Designated Confidential* Advocate for Students who can be reached at 808-235-7354 or kaahualo@hawaii.edu. Office: Hale 'Ākoakoa 232
- confidentiality is limited*

- To make a formal report, contact the Title IX Coordinator, Karla K. Silva-Park, LMHC AW1-CH at 808-235-7468 or karlas@hawaii.edu. Office: Hale 'Ākoakoa 220

As a member of the University faculty, I am required to immediately report any incident of sex discrimination or gender-based violence to the campus Title IX Coordinator. Although the Title IX Coordinator and I cannot guarantee confidentiality, you will still have options about how your case will be handled. My goal is to make sure you are aware of the range of options available to you and have access to the resources and support you need.

For more information regarding sex discrimination and gender-based violence, the University's Title IX resources and the University's Policy, Interim EP 1.204, go to manoa.hawaii.edu/titleix/

ACADEMIC INTEGRITY

Plagiarism will not be tolerated in this class. Plagiarism is copying another's ideas, word-for-word or paraphrased, without giving the originator credit. Asking another individual to write assignments is another form of plagiarism. Using an assignment that you've done for another class is also unethical. Using essays (or portions of essays) from the internet without proper documentation is also plagiarism. In deliberate or aggravated cases, the student will fail the course. Repeated offenses or an entirely plagiarized essay will result in referral to the administration, which may lead to expulsion from WCC.

ALTERNATE CONTACT INFORMATION

If you are unable to contact the instructor, have questions that your instructor cannot answer, or for any other issues, please contact the Academic Affairs Office:

- Location: Alaka'i 121
- Phone: (808) 235-7422

COURSE SCHEDULE CHANGES

Changes may be made to the syllabus and the Schedule of Events at the instructor's discretion. You must check Laulima regularly to hear of the schedule changes that will be posted in the Announcements section.

NOTE: If at any time you have questions about the assignments, this syllabus, or any material covered in the course, please ask. If you need additional help, tutoring, or just a bit of encouragement or moral support, please contact the instructor as soon as possible.

COURSE WEEKLY SCHEDULE

Please make sure you read thoroughly and take notes for all listed tasks below, this will help prepare you to do well in the course. PLEASE NOTE: You will receive your weekly work at 6:00am every Monday. All Discussion Posts & Assignments are due on the Monday of the following week by 11:55pm.
