3. Offer a broad, integrated analysis of cultural, economic, political, scientific, and/or social development that recognizes the diversity of human societies and their cultural traditions.
4. Examine processes of cross-cultural interaction and exchange that have linked the world's peoples through time while recognizing diversity.
5. Include at least one component on Hawaiian, Pacific, or Asian societies and their cultural traditions
6. Engage students in the study and analysis of writings, narratives, texts, artifacts, and/or practices that represent the perspectives of different societies and cultural traditions

4. Explain cause and effect relationships in history.
5. Compare and contrast historical experiences across cultures and time.
6. Relate historical events to contemporary issues and events.

Course Format and Pacing

This course is offered in an accelerated 8-week online format (asynchronously). However, even though there is no virtual class meeting (Zoom, etc), please note that this is not a self-paced course, the class schedule is strictly followed. Students are expected to complete all tasks and assignments on time and on one's own, as all work in this course will be completed online. All activities are asynchronous activities, but be aware of the due dates as this course is NOT self-paced. All interactions will be through the Laulima course site.

Required Materials

Textbooks: Bentley, Jerry H, and Herbert F. Ziegler. Traditions & Encounters: A Global Perspective on the Past. New York: McGraw-Hill, 2011. (ebook, access through Laulima)
Other Resources: Supplemental readings and videos will be provided by instructor throughout the course via Laulima. You may access or opt out of the online textbook by visiting the VitalSource for UH Windward IDAP tab on Laulima. Whatever you decide, you will need some version of the textbook to succeed in the course.

Grades/Assignment Descriptions

Your grade in this course will be based on the following course tasks that serve as both learning and assessment tools, for the purpose of measuring your learning and your ability to meet the course SLOs.

- Forum Posts: Students are required to complete 2-3 forum posts each week (varies each week). Forum posts are based on the textbook and supplemental readings assigned each week and are designed to align with specific learning objectives in each weekly module. All you have to do is post your comment by the due date listed in the course site and/or syllabus. Posts should be approximately 200-250 words, but feel free to go over. As there are no synchronous activities in this course, the Forum is our only chance to feel like a connected class, but it will not be successful without your participation and support. And as the Forum makes up the vast majority of points awarded in this course, it is essential that you not miss any of these assignments. Each post is worth 10 points.
- Forum Reply Posts: Students are required to reply to at least ONE of their peers posts each week. Replies must be substantial (100 words) and must address the content of the peer's post directly.
- Quizzes: Students are required to complete a number of quizzes throughout the semester based on the various assigned reading materials. Quizzes may include multiple choice, matching, or short essay responses and are designed to assess whether students meet the module learning objectives each week. Quizzes are worth 20 points each.

- Grade Breakdown:

Assignment	Quantity	Value	Total
Forum Post	17	10	170
Forum Reply Post	16	5	80
Quiz	5	20	100

- Grade Scale

Points	Grade
350-315	A
314-279	B
278-243	C
242-207	D
206-0	F

Course Policies and Resources

- This course will expect that you are able to independently read, comprehend the facts on your own, complete the assignments, and navigate through Laulima with little guidance.
- Keeping on track is a must in this class. Always refer to the Class Schedule that is included in this syllabus. Remember that this is a 5-week class. You are about to learn the material at a VERY ACCELERATED rate. This means that EVERY WEEK you will be expected to read 3-5 chapters in the textbook, any additional readings in the form of books or articles, and complete the corresponding assignments as scheduled in the class schedule. If this sounds overwhelming (and to many it will!), then please drop the class and take the class during the regular semester.
- Check ANNOUNCEMENTS on the Main Page in Laulima for any announcements pertaining to our class. I will usually post the announcement for the week and the discussion board assignments by Monday evening, so Monday evening or Tuesday morning is usually a good time to check the Laulima's homepage. Furthermore, you should check your UH email account frequently (you are required to use your UH email account, however you can have your UH email forwarded to any email that is more convenient.
- Make sure you adhere to the completion dates as NO LATE WORK WILL BE ACCEPTED. The reason one takes an online class is for its flexibility, but I also think that keeping you to some sort of weekly schedule is the best way to ensure that you keep up with the overwhelming amount of material. And since this is also an online class with mainly written work, I TRUST that when you do your assignments, you are doing all of the work yourself and utilizing only the class resources (i.e., textbook, handouts, books, previous assignments, etc.) that you have. I do not tolerate any form of plagiarism, and punishment for any nefarious activity will be swift and brutal.

University Policies and Procedures

The University of Hawai'i is an equal opportunity/affirmative action institution. It is committed to a policy of nondiscrimination on the basis of race, sex, victims of domestic or sexual violence, gender identity and expression, age, religion, color, national origin, ancestry, citizenship, disability, genetic information, marital status, breastfeeding, income assignment for child support, arrest and court record (except as permissible under State law), sexual orientation, national guard absence, or status as a covered veteran. For additional details, visit the UH Systemwide Policies and Procedures Information System (PPIS) site.

4. engaging in any behavior specifically prohibited by a faculty member in the course syllabus or class discussion.

Plagiarism is also an act of academic dishonesty and includes, but is not limited to:

- the use, by paraphrase or direct quotation, of the published or unpublished work of another person without full and clear acknowledgement.
- It also includes the unacknowledged use of materials prepared by another person or agency engaged in the selling of term papers or other academic materials.

Furnishing false information to any UH official, faculty member, or office.

Forgery, alteration, or misuse of any UH document, record, or form of identification.

Financial Aid Statement

As you enroll in classes, it is very important to remember that colleges are required to take steps necessary to ensure that students are academically engaged in order to justify the disbursement of federal Title IV student aid funds. If students do not begin attendance in an online course, or stop participating in a course, Title IV funds must be returned according to Federal Return of Title IV funds regulations (34 CFR 668.21(a)), which means you may have to return some financial aid that you have received. If at any time your plans change and you no longer plan to participate in the courses in which you enrolled, you must contact the financial aid office to minimize any possible negative financial impact.

For more information on financial assistance for your education, please contact your home campus financial aid office. Financial assistance may include grants, scholarships and other resources to help you pay for the cost of college. A financial aid adviser will be able to help you navigate this process to determine your eligibility for these funds.
