Windward Community College offers innovative programs in the arts and sciences and opportunities to gain knowledge and understanding of Hawaiʻi and its unique heritage. With a special commitment to support the access and educational needs of Native Hawaiians, we provide the Koʻolau region of Oʻahu and beyond with liberal arts, career and lifelong learning in a supportive and challenging environment — inspiring students to excellence.

CATALOG DESCRIPTION

An introduction to Hawaiʻi and Hawaiian culture in the context of the larger Pacific, including Hawaiian origins, settlement, language, land, history, society, religion and the arts.

STUDENT LEARNING OUTCOMES

As a result of taking this course, students can expect to attain the following outcomes:

1. Compare and contrast cultures and histories of Pacific Island peoples in relation to their languages, religious traditions, artistic expressions, material culture, and political and economic development.
2. Identify ways in which the environment has shaped Hawaiian and Pacific Island culture.
3. Describe the integration of land in Hawaiian culture and the historic changes in the relationship between people and land through written and oral communication.
4. Describe aspects of Hawaiian relationship with other groups of people in and outside of Hawaiʻi.
5. Identify, access, and evaluate major Hawaiian studies sources.
6. Identify implications of the relationships and develop proposals for possible ways to affect positive change.

COURSE TASKS

COURSE REQUIREMENTS AND TASKS:
1. Assigned readings and discussions:
   There will be reading assignments from readings that will be available in our “Resources” section of the class website.
2. Keeping up with the class timeline:
   Keeping up with the class timeline is essential. An online course offers you the flexibility of arranging course material according to your life schedule. But, there are time sensitive assignments and quizzes that must completed by deadline to attain full credit.
3. Unit and Map Quizzes, presentations, assignments
   There will be two quizzes covering the content of the class, as well as map quizzes. Each of these quizzes will be worth 20, although this is subject to change.
4. Final Quiz
   There will be a final quiz. It is not cumulative. It will cover the last few sections of Hawaiian history. The final quiz is worth 50 points.

Windward Community College is an equal opportunity, affirmative action institution.
As a member of the University faculty, I am required to immediately report any incident of sex discrimination or gender-based violence to the campus Title IX Coordinator. Although the Title IX Coordinator and I cannot guarantee confidentiality, you will still have options about how your case will be handled. My goal is to make sure you are aware of the range of options available to you and have access to the resources and support you need.

For more information regarding sex discrimination and gender-based violence, the University’s Title IX resources and the University’s Policy, Interim EP 1.204, go to manoa.hawaii.edu/titleix/

ACADEMIC INTEGRITY

Academic Honesty:
Students are expected to act with personal integrity, to respect other students’ opinions and property, and to help create an academic environment in which discussion is encouraged. Students are expected not to engage or tolerate acts of plagiarism, cheating, copying, fabrication of citations, or other acts of academic dishonesty. Students charged with academic dishonesty face serious consequences that range from an F grade for the assignment to a Fail grade for the course.
