WINDWARD COMMUNITY COLLEGE MISSION STATEMENT

Windward Community College offers innovative programs in the arts and sciences and opportunities to gain knowledge and understanding of Hawai‘i and its unique heritage. With a special commitment to support the access and educational needs of Native Hawaiians, we provide the Ko‘olau region of O‘ahu and beyond with liberal arts, career and lifelong learning in a supportive and challenging environment — inspiring students to excellence.

CATALOG DESCRIPTION

Introduction to the biology, ecology and geology of stony corals and the reef structures they build. Topics include, but not limited to, the following: photobiology, biochemistry, physiology, reproduction, ecology, biogeography and evolution of stony corals; contributions made by other members of the coral reef community, such as algae, invertebrates, fish, sea turtles, sea birds, and marine mammals; reef formation and geomorphology; corals as resources for human utilization and the impacts of human activities upon reefs throughout the world. Emphasis will be on Hawai‘i’s coral reefs, but comparisons will be made among reefs from other areas.

STUDENT LEARNING OUTCOMES

As a result of taking this course, students can expect to attain the following outcomes:

1. Explain the process and philosophical basis of scientific inquiry.
2. Distinguish between living things and inanimate objects.
3. Describe the classification of living things, the kinds of criteria used to classify them, and the formal protocol in naming them.
4. Demonstrate an understanding of the biology of corals (e.g., systematics & classification, soft tissue morphology and cytology, skeletal morphology, endosymbiosis with zooxanthellae, modes of feeding, reproduction, environmental factors that influence growth and distribution, and evolution) with an emphasis on Hawaiian corals.
5. Describe the ecological relationships among the living components of coral reef communities and their interactions with the physical environment.
6. Describe the types of reefs and the processes that create and shape them.
7. Describe the resources that coral reefs provide, especially to Pacific island nations and states.
8. Describe the impacts of human activities on coral reefs and the significance of these impacts to Pacific island nations and states.

COURSE TASKS

BIOL 200 is a 15-week, fully online course. This course will be taught as an asynchronous course delivered through the Laulima Learning Management System (LMS). Each week will consist of watching recorded lectures and/or videos, reading selected materials, posting written reflections, creating video posts, and completing assignments. Please refer to the tentative schedule below for detailed information on the schedule of content and due dates.

ASSESSMENT TASKS AND GRADING

Each week there will be a variety of assignments, forums and quizzes to help you learn about coral reefs.

All quizzes are open notes. My intention with this course is to foster curiosity about coral reefs. I'm here to support your desire to learn and gain knowledge about these amazing and threatened ecosystems.

We will use ChatGPT in some assignments this semester but when it comes to quizzes...

Please DO NOT copy and paste answers from chat GPT. If I discover that you have done this for any question on a quiz, you will receive a ZERO for that quiz.

Assignments, forums and quizzes will be due on Tuesday at 11:55PM HST.

A final project will be assigned in lieu of a final exam and will be due the last day of regular classes.

Letter grades will be assigned as follows:
A 90% or above in total points
B 80-89.9% of total points
C 65-79.9% of total points
D 55-64.9% of total points
F Below 55% of total points or informal or incomplete official withdrawal from course.
I Given at Instructor's discretion. See catalog for detailed description.
W Official withdrawal from the course by MONDAY OCTOBER 30

LEARNING RESOURCES

There are no required texts for this course as all materials and resources will be made available through our Laulima course site.
