WINDWARD COMMUNITY COLLEGE MISSION STATEMENT

Windward Community College offers innovative programs in the arts and sciences and opportunities to gain knowledge and understanding of Hawai‘i and its unique heritage. With a special commitment to support the access and educational needs of Native Hawaiians, we provide the Ko‘olau region of O‘ahu and beyond with liberal arts, career and lifelong learning in a supportive and challenging environment — inspiring students to excellence.

CATALOG DESCRIPTION

This course covers the basic economic and business principles regarding small-scale business enterprises. Focusing on the creation of a business plan, topics include researching and evaluating resources, planning, marketing, cultivating money resources, and understanding key concepts in law, budgeting, financial statements, and business documentation.

Activities Required at Scheduled Times Other than Class Times

Independent research on various topics and reflections will be due weekly.

STUDENT LEARNING OUTCOMES

As a result of taking this course, students can expect to attain the following outcomes:

1. Develop a comprehensive business plan for a future business enterprise.
2. Apply fundamental economic, financial, and organizational principles that govern the operation of business.
3. Work collaboratively in a group setting to cultivate entrepreneurship and develop solutions to economic issues.

COURSE TASKS

Course work will consist of personal reflections (50 points of total grade), weekly assignments (50 points of total grade), and completed business presentation, including website, commercial, completed written business plan, and marketing research findings, that will be worked on throughout the semester (400 points of total grade), for a total of 500 possible points.

Grading Scale: You will receive a letter grade based on the following percentage scale:

A = 90-100%, B = 80-89%, C = 70-69%, D = 60-69%, F = 0-59%

N= The 'N' grade indicates that the student has worked conscientiously, attended regularly, finished all work fulfilled course responsibilities, and has made measurable progress. However, either the student has not achieved the minimal student learning outcomes and is not prepared to succeed at the next level or the student has made consistent progress in class but is unable to complete the class due to extenuating circumstances, such as major health, personal, or family emergencies.

LEARNING RESOURCES

Lectures: PowerPoint lectures will be posted in the Syllabus below and on the Module Overview page.

Worksheets and Journaling: Different assignments and in-class work may require you to populate an electronic worksheet.

Web Resources and Research: You will be asked to visit various websites and evaluate the information found there.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

- CELL PHONE POLICY: Today, more than ever, our cell phones are an extension of who we are. Obviously, they can cause a distraction at times when our attention is needed in other areas. For the face-to-face class, we ask that your cell phones be switched to vibrate or silenced mode so as not to distract from the group discussion. On the bright side, in your face-to-face portion of this cohort class, you will be using your phone for a variety of activities as it is a valuable tool for financial success.
- MySuccess: Students may be referred for extra help or advising through MySuccess. Students can also explore resources at MySuccess.Hawaii.edu, and windward.hawaii.edu/MySuccess

DISABILITIES ACCOMMODATIONS

If you have a physical, sensory, health, cognitive, or mental health disability that could limit your ability to fully participate in this class, you are encouraged to contact the Accessibility Counselor to discuss reasonable accommodations that will help you succeed in this class.
