Course Tasks

- Quizzes (325 points total)
  - The student will complete online quizzes to assess their comprehension of course materials. The quizzes will be based on the lectures and assigned reading for the week. Although the quizzes are open-book, they are timed. As such, students who have not studied can expect to do poorly on the quizzes. For each quiz, the attempt yielding the highest score will be used to calculate the student's grade.
- Assignments (230 points total)
  - The student will complete 9 chapter exercises and 18 topic posts on Google Slides. The purpose of topic post assignments is to create a sense of community, encourage speaking skills, and open discussion of course topics between students in the class. Your posts and responses will be graded based on effort, clarity, and accuracy.
- Review 3 (40 points)
  - A unit review of the materials covered from Ha'awina 10 -12 .

- Review 4 (40 points)
  - A unit review of the materials covered from Ha‘awina 13 - 15.
- ‘O Wai Kēia? (60pt)
  - The student will select a prominent well known individual of Hawai‘i (past or present) and without naming the individual, create a video giving clues regarding certain characteristics, contributions, and well known facts about the selected individual to which your peers will have to guess who the individual is. A letter/script will also accompany the video.
- ‘Ai Kolekole (60pt)
  - This is a group project in which students will partner up and ‘ai kolekole or ”talk story” amongst themselves. The group will compose their talk story using learned sentence patterns and vocabulary/phrases and video record their conversation. A letter/script will also accompany the video.

Campuses are required by federal regulations to verify the participation of students in their classes. In accordance with Executive Policy 7.209, all students in the University of Hawai‘i system are required to establish “participation” to ensure that they are not dropped from their class(es). Students who fail to participate by the late registration period for a class will be administratively dropped from that class. Students may also be dropped from dependent prerequisite and/or corequisite classes if both courses do not establish participation.
