Activities Required to be Successful in this Course

Communication is vital to succeeding in this course. Because this in an online course, it is crucial to log into Laulima regularly and check the weekly Laulima Announcements. The Announcements will contain the work agenda for each week as well as the due dates for assignments. You will be notified on Monday and Wednesday regarding coursework that will be due from week to week. Please be prepared to spend 1-3 hours each week to complete the Laulima discussions, assignments and Simnet activities (see page 4). It is also crucial to check your email multiple times a day.

Learning Resources

Simnet

Simnet is an online interactive learning and course management system that will be used extensively in this course. The combined scores for Simnet lessons and exams will account for 50% of your final grade. A charge of approximately $56 for the digital course material through IDAP will be added to your MyUH account. This course will be participating in the Bookstore's Interactive Digital Access Program (IDAP). Through this program, you will access your course material digitally, and it will be available to you by the first day of class. A charge for the digital course material through IDAP will be added to your MyUH account.

You have the option to opt-out of receiving your course material through IDAP. By opting-out, you will lose access to the course material and the charge will be refunded on your MyUH account. If you do not opt-out, the charge will stay on your MyUH account. Any unpaid charges on your MyUH account will turn into a hold. Holds on your account will prevent you from accessing various services within the University.

You may opt-out by visiting your unique Inclusive Access Student Portal, which can be found in your IDAP welcome email (Subject Line: "IMPORTANT: You have enrolled in an IDAP Course"). For more information regarding IDAP, please contact your campus bookstore. (808) 235-7418

McGraw Hill Customer Experience (Technical Support): Please contact the resource below ASAP if you are experiencing and technical issues with Simnet.

College & Course Policies

Participation Verification
Campuses are required by federal regulations to verify the participation of students in their classes. In accordance with Executive Policy 7.209, all students in the University of Hawaiʻi system are required to establish "participation" to ensure that they are not dropped from their class(es). Effective fall 2021, students who fail to participate by the late registration period for a class will be administratively dropped from that class. Students may also be dropped from dependent prerequisite and/or corequisite classes if both courses do not establish participation.

Due to UH's Student Verification Policy, the first Laulima Discussion must be completed by 9/5/24. If you fail to complete this discussion by 9/5/24, you will automatically be dropped from the class.

Late Work Policy
- All Course Work must be completed by the assigned due dates.
- Exceptions for late work will be made due to extenuating circumstances (e.g. illness, housing, death in family) upon the approval of the instructor and the Vice Chancellor of Student Affairs.

Academic Integrity—Cheating and Plagiarism
Work submitted by a student must be the student's own work. The work of others should be explicitly marked, such as through the use of quotes or summarizing with reference to the original author.
In this class, students who commit academic dishonesty, cheating, or plagiarism will have the following consequence(s):
Students will receive a failing grade for plagiarized assignments.
All cases of academic dishonesty are referred to the Vice Chancellor for Student Affairs.

UH System Student Conduct Policy EO 7.208

AI & ChatGPT

Using AI language models such as Chat GPT or other similar models to complete assignments is considered academic misconduct and is a violation of the student code and conduct. Any student caught using such models will be subject to disciplinary action, which may include expulsion from school.

Support Service & Policies

Disabilities Accommodations
The Windward Community College's Disability Student Services Office (WCC-DSSO) is committed to providing equal access to qualified students with disabilities.

If you have a physical, sensory, health, cognitive, or mental health disability that could limit your ability to fully participate in this class, you are encouraged to contact the Accessibility Counselor to discuss reasonable accommodations that will help you succeed in this class. Roy Inouye can be reached at (808) 235-7448, email: royinouy@hawaii.edu or you may stop by Hale Kāko'o 105 for more information.

If you or someone you know are experiencing basic needs insecurity, please see the following resources: UH System Basic Needs.

Mental Health Counseling
Mental Health and Wellness at Windward Community College counseling services and activities on campus to support students' life goals as well as their academic goals. Information about services can be found at the WCC Mental Health & Wellness website.

UH Alerts
The UH Alert emergency notification system alerts the university community in the event of a natural, health or civil emergency. The information you provide will only be used in the event of an emergency that impacts the health and safety of the UH community or the closure of whole campuses. It will not be shared with others or used for routine UH communications or announcements. To sign up, visit UH Alerts website for more information.

Financial Aid
If you are receiving financial aid and are contemplating not completing the course, BEFORE you withdraw, it is highly recommended that you contact the Financial Aid Office at 808-934-2712 or email them at wccfao@hawaii.edu to discuss the impact this decision may have on your financial aid eligibility.

Student Conduct Code

Windward Community College follows the University of Hawai'i Code of Student Conduct which defines expected conduct for students and specifies those acts subject to University sanctions. Students should familiarize themselves with the Code of Student Conduct since, upon enrollment at Windward Community College, the student has placed herself/himself under the policies and regulations of the University and its duly constituted bodies. The disciplinary authority is exercised through the Office of the Vice Chancellor for Student Affairs. Copies of the Student Conduct Code are available at the Office of the Vice Chancellor for Student Affairs or online.
