No late submissions will be accepted. In an extreme circumstance beyond the student’s control, a student may request that an assignment be accepted at a later date, provided that s/he has a valid reason for missing the deadline with valid documentation. (Taking a trip for leisure, attending a wedding, for example, will not be a valid excuse.) With no documentation, your request may not be considered. This request needs to be made in a timely manner within one week of the deadline, or as soon as possible. In the case that the instructor does approve the late submission, the late submission will result in a 10% point deduction off the assignment in all cases regardless of the reason.

Details of Grading:

- Grader Projects (MS Office Hands-on Tasks) (40%)

Students will submit 14 short projects throughout the semester that will demonstrate their abilities to use a word processor (Word), electronic spreadsheet (Excel), database (Access), and presentation package (PPT); following directions is imperative for these! These projects are covered in the chapters of Exploring Microsoft Office 2021. We will cover 14 chapters in that book: Word-4, Excel-4, Access 2, PowerPoint-4. You must score 70% or higher to receive credit for each grader project. If your score is below 70%, you will receive NO credit. You may attempt unlimited times before the deadline. These projects will be computer scored, so there will be no human bias added to the assessment; it will be clean, objective grading. Therefore, it is critical that you follow directions very carefully. Results should be immediate.

Important! All downloaded start files are encrypted with the student's name and ID number. Therefore, you must upload the same file you download, or the entire file will be marked as having "integrity violations" and will be considered plagiarized. You must download the "start file" before submitting your project. You must submit your downloaded file with the modifications you are instructed to complete. Uploading any other file will award no point. I will know who violated and whose file was used. In this case, all parties involved in academic dishonesty activities will have consequences and will receive zero points for the particular assignment.

Due dates for the projects are grouped at the end of the study of each of the applications. Therefore, there are only four due dates for grader projects except Word chapter 1 grader project; see the schedule for the exact dates. These dates cannot be changed. You may submit work early or weekly but not late. Students are encouraged to complete each grader project during the week that the grader project is introduced. Do not wait till the last minute to complete grader projects.

There are multimedia learning materials for each application chapter within MyLabIT. These should be accessed before doing the projects. I will also provide grader project video tutorials to help with your assignment completion.

- MS Office Applications Quizzes (15%)

There will be a short, 10 Multiple Choice quiz for each of the 14 chapters, Windows OS & File Management, and Office Common Features covered in Exploring Microsoft Office 2021. You will have two attempts at these quizzes; you will get the highest of the two scores. You will take these quizzes at your convenience before due dates. As always, if your Internet connection freezes, your computer malfunctions, etc. during either of these attempts, you have used up one attempt. You are responsible for using a reliable computer and Internet access for all aspects of this class.

- Technology in Action (TIA) Chapter Quizzes (9%), Reflection Quizzes (7%), Self-Introduction (1%), & Syllabus Quiz (1%) & Discussions (8%)

There will be nine quizzes to assess your knowledge of each chapter of the Technology in Action (TIA) textbook. You will have two chances to take every TIA quiz/exam. Questions will be about the content of the textbook and the multimedia resources introduced in each chapter. If you have a computer failure, internet disconnect, etc. during any of your attempts, you have just used up that attempt. You will receive the highest of the two scores. No late quizzes!

At the beginning of the semester, you will post a brief self-introduction on the Laulima Discussion site. See further instructions on Laulima. The Reflection Quiz (RQ) covers materials from previous classes and is intended to serve as a review exercise. You will find the Reflection Quiz on Laulima. The Reflection Quiz (RQ) will be given at the very beginning of the in-class session. RQ is a ten-minute quiz and open book. You may attempt it twice. A higher score will be your record. The instructor may also give you unannounced RQ pop quizzes during the week. You must submit these pop quizzes within 48 hours of the announcement. No make-up is allowed for RQs. RQ also serves as a check for “attendance” or a roll call.

It is imperative to understand what is required from you for this course. The syllabus explains the structure of the course, grading criteria, what is expected from students, and the resources you need to succeed in the course. Reading the syllabus (and the schedule) carefully and understanding the requirements at the very beginning of the semester is key to your success. A syllabus quiz will check your understanding of the syllabus during the first week.

- Discussions on Tech Topics (3Rs- research, reflect & report) (8%)

This activity is done on the Laulima Discussion site. Students are expected to carry out brief research on a topic and reflect on and report their findings in their own words on the Laulima discussion site. Students are expected to submit their report in a minimum of 12 sentences (6 points) and two comment postings (2 points + 2 points) that are either in whole or in part in response to their classmates' posts for each discussion. Students must submit their report and comments by the dates they are due, as forums will be locked immediately after the due dates. Discussion will be informal postings which means that students do not need to follow APA writing style, or academic conventions. However, students must cite the information source. Discussions will allow students to demonstrate their awareness of the various issues associated with technology and develop critical thinking skills. Furthermore, these discussions are vital to developing a community as a class.

(Although I will be posting the topics and reading each and every posting, I probably will not be entering into the discussion too much so as not to influence the flow too much. I have found in previous semesters that if I voice too much of my opinion, some students will just reflect back to me what I have said. That's not what this is about. This is an opportunity for you to discuss issues related to technology, and unless there is some abuse or major inaccuracy, I will probably let the discussion flow.)

- TIA Midterm (4%) and Final Exams (5%)

There will be a Midterm exam (4%) that covers the TIA chapters one through four, and a Final Exam (5 %) that covers the TIA chapters five through nine. Midterm exam will have 40 multiple choice (MC) questions, and 50 MC questions for final exam. You will have 100 minutes to complete it. You may have two attempts at these exams; you will get the higher of the two scores. These exams are open book exams, and the final exam is given during the final exam period.

- Final Video Project (10%)

You will create a short MP4 video from PowerPoint slides. First, you will create PPT slides about yourself with audio files. Then, embed them in the PPT slides. After you insert your audio, you will convert your PPT slides into an MP4 file. The length of the video should be from 3 minutes to 5 minutes. Students will make a minimum of two comments on classmates' projects. See the final project handout posted in the Laulima Syllabus & Schedule tab for further instructions.

- Extra Credit

There may be extra credit opportunities at the instructor's discretion. You can earn up to five points toward your cumulative grade.
