COURSE POLICIES

In General:

This class is an introduction to stage combat technique as it applies to the stage, according to the principles of Dueling Arts International’s industry-esteemed guidelines. Your work will be very “hands on,” with few take home assignments. The focus of this class is on work in the classroom, and active participation in exercises and performances will be the largest basis of evaluation of each student’s grade.

Nick’s Incredibly Draconian and Downright Cruel Attendance/Punctuality Policy:

As my mentor, Nick, has often said: there is only one way you can do badly in this class – fail to show up. If you don't come to class, you aren't just letting yourself down; you are letting your classmates down too. If you miss even one class session, you may be excluded from further training as you are now a safety liability.

You will be allowed THREE “free” absences if you are sick or overwhelmed by the tide of life. No additional absences will be excused for ANY REASON (except COVID-related ones, but I will require some sort of evidence of exposure/positive-testing). Every further absence after your THREE “free” absences will deduct 10 points from your final grade (effectively dropping you an entire letter grade from A to B, or B to C).

You get one free tardy as long as you arrive in the first ten minutes of class – if you are later than 10 minutes you are officially absent. The next time you are late (even if it is just 1 minute late) you will be marked absent. Plan to be at class a few minutes early so you can warm up and get your mind ready to think and create.

If for any reason you can't continue to participate and sit out more than half of the class period, it will be marked as an absence. Many avoidable accidents/injuries often happen when students lose focus and “play around” during class OR are not wearing appropriate clothing for exaggerated movement. Please give this art form the respect it deserves by being conscious of your own body's limits, properly dressing for class, and executing technique safely throughout the entire class period.

The Show Must Go On – PERFORMANCE DISCIPLINE:

In the professional theatre world, there is only one excuse for missing a performance – death, and even then you must give two weeks notice. IF YOU MISS A PERFORMANCE/TEST DAY YOU WILL NOT BE GIVEN AN OPPORTUNITY TO MAKE IT UP. Learning to show up for things in life is one of the most important life skills you shall acquire at college.

Helpful Resources:

I encourage you to ask me questions about the class and to ask for clarification at any time. Please ask for help even though you are not sure you need it.

One of the best resources on campus is the TRiO Student Support Services (SSS) office, which provides tutoring and a range of other opportunities to eligible students. The contact number for TRiO SSS is 235-7487.

Studio Etiquette:

Our studio space is sacred. To that end, you must leave your other worries and life preoccupations at the door. Do not bring them in this place where we will work carefully to create fights for the stage.

- Smartphones and the constant invasion of the virtual world upon all aspects of our life are my nemesis and most hated foe. Our class will be a cellphone-free zone – you will turn off your phones and put them with your belongings as you arrive and touch them again only when class is concluded. Fear not. I promise your texts and Facebook notifications will be waiting for you one hour and fifteen minutes later.
- Respect one another at all times. Any disrespect of your classmates will not be tolerated and will result in your ejection from class for the day (which will then count as an absence, affecting your grade). The work we do is collaborative; if any of us feel uncomfortable, none of us can achieve excellence.

- Your “participation” grade includes actively listening during explanations of technique, and performing tasks in class as soon as they are given to you. We have a limited amount of time together to achieve our goals, and disrupting class/forcing us to wait for you is disrespectful to, and steals learning time away from, your fellow classmates.
- Wear comfortable, stretchy clothing allowing you to run, jump and lie down without restricting or embarrassing yourself. I highly suggest NOT wearing low cut tops, skirts, or jeans (seams have ripped in very embarrassing places in the past). Closed toe shoes are mandatory. Failure to wear appropriate clothing results in an absence and you may be asked to sit out of class.
- Please remove all accessories (watches, jewelry, etc.) before class begins and stow them with your belongings. This is for your own safety, that of your classmates, and of your beloved accessories themselves. Using class time to remove accessories results in a tardy.
- If you want to wear a mask in class, please bring extras – your masks may get sweaty and you’ll want to swap them at breaks for comfort and for better protection.
- Be aware of your body’s limitations. Sometimes I will ask you to do strenuous physical activity. If you suffer from palpitations, consumption, or tennis elbow, I need to know.

Emails:

Communicating with students is my top priority. If I have not responded to your message in twenty-four hours, please email me again.

Please email me from one address only. This will help me to sort and manage my emails effectively.

Please check your hawaii.edu account on a regular basis. I will send email announcements to that account only. Instructions on forwarding your hawaii.edu account are here:
http://windward.hawaii.edu/technology/Forwarding_UH_GMail.pdf.

Please write grammatically correct emails, using complete words and full sentences (no shorthand, such as “where r u now”). Start with a greeting (Aloha Bob, Dear Mr. Smith, or Hi Lance), and end with a signature (Thank you, Sincerely, or just your name). Get in the habit of writing professionally. This will benefit you greatly in life.

If you have any problems or last minute emergencies, email me or leave a voicemail on my phone.

DISABILITIES ACCOMMODATIONS

If you have a physical, sensory, health, cognitive, or mental health disability that could limit your ability to fully participate in this class, you are encouraged to contact the Disability Specialist Counselor to discuss reasonable accommodations that will help you succeed in this class. Roy Inouye can be reached at 235-7480 royinouy@hawaii.edu, or you may stop by TRIO for more information.
