Windward Community College offers innovative programs in the arts and sciences and opportunities to gain knowledge and understanding of Hawaiʻi and its unique heritage. With a special commitment to support the access and educational needs of Native Hawaiians, we provide the Koʻolau region of Oʻahu and beyond with liberal arts, career and lifelong learning in a supportive and challenging environment — inspiring students to excellence.

ʻĀina

Windward Community College is located in the ahupuaʻa of Kāneʻohe and Heʻeʻia in the moku of Koʻolaupoko on the island of Oʻahu. Both ahupuaʻa are directly connected to the moʻo ʻōlelo of Pāpa and Wākea, who are seen as the ancestors of the Hawaiian nation. The campus sits beneath the puʻu of Keahiakahoe, which is also connected to many moʻo ʻōlelo of this ʻāina. Because wind names and rain names are associated with specific ʻāina, the rain name of Kāneʻohe is known as the ʻĀpuakea and the rain name of Heʻeia is the Ulumano.

Instructor Information

About Your Instructor

My name is Kamuela Kimokeo. I was born and raised in Kahaluʻu and am a graduate of Castle High School. My roots on the Hawaiian side of my family extend to Hālawa, Molokaʻi, and I come from a family of professional musicians. With over 25 years of experience as a performing artist—including as a member of a Nā Hōkū Hanohano award-winning trio, I bring both academic and lived expertise to my teaching. My research at both the master's and doctoral levels focused on the role of music as a tool for empowerment in education. I have been teaching at Windward

Regular Substantive Interaction (RSI)

Online courses at Windward Community College follow the college's RSI Definition for ensuring quality instruction. You can expect me to communicate with you frequently (and in a timely fashion) about our coursework in the following ways during our 8-week course:

Assignments: All assignments will be submitted on Padlet and I will give each of you individualized feedback. If you did well, feedback will be very brief. If there are things to work on I will either give you written or video feedback and coaching (On some occasions both).

Meetings: We will have an optional class meeting every Thursday at 2:45pm. For those who are able, participation is highly encouraged. In this session we will go over the pre-recorded lesson, do activities to test understanding, and answer any questions about that week's assignments. If you cannot make it but have a question, you can email it to me and I will cover it in our class discussion.
