Windward Community College offers innovative programs in the arts and sciences and opportunities to gain knowledge and understanding of Hawaiʻi and its unique heritage. With a special commitment to support the access and educational needs of Native Hawaiians, we provide the Koʻolau region of Oʻahu and beyond with liberal arts, career and lifelong learning in a supportive and challenging environment — inspiring students to excellence.

ʻĀina

Windward Community College is located in the ahupuaʻa of Kāneʻohe and Heʻeʻia in the moku of Koʻolaupoko on the island of Oʻahu. Both ahupuaʻa are directly connected to the moʻo ʻōlelo of Pāpa and Wākea, who are seen as the ancestors of the Hawaiian nation. The campus sits beneath the puʻu of Keahiakahoe, which is also connected to many moʻo ʻōlelo of this ʻāina. Because wind names and rain names are associated with specific ʻāina, the rain name of Kāneʻohe is known as the ʻĀpuakea and the rain name of Heʻeʻia is the Ulumano.

Instructor Information

About Your Instructor

Aloha kākou! My name is Christine Walters and I am a third generation British American who was born and raised in Ojibwe lands near what is today known as the Michigan/Canada border. My proudest accomplishment is that I am the first in my family to become a college graduate: it took me five years to earn my mathematics AA degree at community college while I worked three jobs (60+ hours a week) and attended school part time. Eventually, I earned my BA in Religious Studies from the University of South Florida and a MA in Asian Religions from the University of Hawaiʻi at Mānoa, where I specialized in Buddhism. I started to pursue a PhD in South Asian religions, with a focus on South Indian Hinduism and Sri Lankan Buddhism, but I left the program in 2011 after only attending the program for a year in order to return to Oʻahu and start teaching full time at Leeward Community College. I was hired by Windward Community College in the Fall of 2025 and feel haʻahaʻa to be a part of the community here. Off campus, my hobbies include reading, hiking, and gardening. I read a lot of books about lāʻau lapaʻau in my free time. In case it isn't already obvious, I'll point out that I am quite the nerd: I am obsessed with rewatching my favorite films and recently watched the movie Project Hail Mary about five times! I have an Aussiedor fur baby named Pualena who loves to hike and I'm married to a local Filipino guy from Pearl City who has two adult children and an addiction to the ocean.

Any behavior that violates the Student Conduct Code may be reported to the appropriate campus authorities.
